The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

SUNDAY.....OCTOBER 5, 1890

JUST THE PLACE.

TRUTHFUL words are the following which appeared in the Tacoma Ledger:

The people of Tacoma have no reason to fear that the commission will locate the government navy yard or dry dock on Lake Washington. The United States government is not in the business of booming real estate for Seattle speculators. The navy yard will be located where it will be accessible for ships, and where at the same time it may be defended in case of foreign war.

Just so, brother, and the very place for that is inside the mouth of the Columbia river, near Astoria.

CONTRACTS were yesterday awarded to Cramp & Sons, of Philadelphia, for the construction of two coast line of battle ships for $3,020,000 each, by the Secretary of the Navy. The offer has also been made to the Union Iron works, of San Francisco for the construction of one of the battle ships at $3,190,000, which is allowing $170,000 for transportation expenses over and above the price given to the Philadelphia firm. The Union Iron works will probably accept the offer, though it is $60,000 less than their bid. The construction of this fine ship in San Francisco will be an immense work. Uncle Sam will have a navy after awhile, if the same rate of progress continues for a few years more as has been made during the last five years in the building of naval vessels.

SELDOM is a more horrible case of cruelty reported than was borne over the wire last night from the land of the czar of all the Russias, which is given in our telegraphic columns this morning. The very idea of professional beggars cutting off the leg of a little girl, cutting out the tongues of children and disfiguring the faces of others, so as to make them objects of pity, is revolting to humanity. The direst punishment provided by law, should be meted out to these fiends in human shape. No punishment is too severe for such incarnate devils.

ANOTHER tragedy over a 13-year-old girl was reported by telegraph last night from Cheyenne. A rancher fell desperately in love with a miss of 13, and though he ardently pressed his suit, she declined his offers of heart and hand, and the shallow-pated ninny went off and hanged himself. The girl and the family she was with continued on their way towards Oregon. Her married sister, who is with her, claims that when she was a young girl a man committed suicide on her account.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" and fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula or impure blood, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, sores breaking out on them in various places. My little boy, three years old, has been a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we have all taken it. The result is that all have been cured of the scrofula, my little boy being entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. ATHERTON, Passaic City, N. J.
