TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

The extra session rumor is again afloat in Washington.
A gale off San Francisco damaged several schooners.
The steamer Salina of San Francisco put into Victoria in distress.
Harry Ward was fatally stabbed during a drunken row at Albany.
Successful experiments in vivisection were made in a Vienna hospital.
Two school girls were outraged and murdered near Cumberland, Ont.
A "Jack the hair-cutter," is despoiling maidens of their tresses in Detroit.
An 800-foot railroad bridge near Dixon, California, was burned by incendiaries.
George Bartlett, a clerk at Oakland, Cal., has absconded with about $1,000.
A bad wreck occurred by the breaking in two of a freight train on the Reading railroad.
Boston people protest against the erection of a monument to the late John Boyle O'Reilly.
The edition of the Atlanta Constitution was seized for alleged violation of the new lottery law.
A match has been arranged between Billy Meyer and Jack McAuliffe to take place in New Orleans.
A smash-up occurred on the Northern Pacific Short Line near Duluth; several passengers were injured.
The mother of Wm. Sprague, Jr., who committed suicide in Seattle, thinks his death was due to accident.
Tommy Ladish, aged 15 years, accidentally shot and killed himself while hunting near Henley, Calif.
Funeral services will be held over the fragments of the men killed in the powder explosion at Wilmington.
Sullivan and "Scotty" were found guilty in Portland of boarding a vessel without the master's permission.
A Gale Off "Frisco."
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—A gale prevailed outside Golden Gate last night. Of five schooners which left during the day for northern coast ports, three returned to port badly damaged.

EXTRA SESSION RUMORS

It is Said the President Will Convene Congress.

NOVEMBER ELEVENTH THE DAY.
Doubt Cast on the Reliability of the Reports—Politics at the Bottom of It.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Mail and Express has a Washington special saying: "It is stated on good authority that President Harrison will call an extra session of Congress for November 11th, to consider and pass upon the Federal election bill."
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The extra session rumor has again been set afloat and is circulated widely despite an array of facts that ought to convince any one of its emptiness.
The date for the assembly of this session is given as Tuesday, November 11th. It is hardly probable that the president will call an extra session while he is away, yet that is what he must do if Congress is to assemble on the 11th prox., for it must convene within thirty days after the call.
Another phase of the story is that a session will be called if the Democrats should chance to be victorious in the November elections. These elections will take place November 4th, so that if an extra session was called on the day following it would be several days later in assembling than the regular session. There are no senators in the city at this time and the existence of any responsible person, who knows there will be an extra session is to be doubted.

FRAGMENTS OF BODIES.

Aftermath of the Great Powder Explosion.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 9.—Two more victims of the powder mill explosion were buried this afternoon. They were William Murray and the 2-year-old son of Thomas Dougherty. The bodies of Mrs. Rose Dougherty and Patrick Dougherty will be buried to-morrow.
Seven bucketsful of ghostly remains of the bodies of six men still missing had been picked up. A part of a face and hand, supposed to be that of Dolan's, was found. Four ribs were found twenty feet up in a tree and other portions on the other side of Brandywine common. A funeral will probably be given these remains.
The coroner went to the works this afternoon and secured evidence and witnesses to be presented to a jury to-morrow. It is now stated that a teamster named George Luntin, who with his team of four horses was seen about the powder yard just previous to the explosion, had not been seen since and neither have his horses.
GUILTY AS CHARGED.
Sullivan and "Scotty" Convicted in Portland Yesterday.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, Oct. 9.—Larry Sullivan and William Scott, the Astoria boarding house rammers, were both today charged with going on board the bark Kate F. Popp without permission of the master, Capt. Banks, and were found guilty. The defendants were defended through their attorney, Judge Slott, however, have given notice that they will file exceptions on several questions of law and the court allowed ten days for them in which to prepare exceptions. The defendants were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 each. Inasmuch as they have been convicted practically for some crime heretofore, the defendants are necessarily advanced last if the verdict stands unaltered they may be given a term in the penitentiary.

ACCIDENTS ON THE RAIL

A Train Breaks in Two With Disastrous Results.

THE CARS THEN TAKE FIRE.

Bad Smash-up on the Northern Pacific Short Line—Several Passengers Injured.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—A bad freight wreck occurred this morning on the Reading road, eleven miles north from this city. A freight train parted at the top of a heavy grade and fifteen cars backed down and crashed into another freight. One of the brakemen was killed and an engineer, a fireman and another brakeman injured. The wreck took fire and thirty cars and contents were consumed.

TRAINS IN COLLISION.
Smash-up on the Northern Pacific Short Line.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 9.—At 6:25 o'clock this morning the Northern Pacific Short Line train, bound for West Superior, collided with freight train, No. 17, of the St. Paul & Duluth railroad, just opposite the round house in the west end, where it was necessary to cross the St. Paul & Duluth tracks.
The short line train was running on regular time and had the right of way. The train had partly crossed when it was struck by the freight engine and engine and several freight cars were demolished and one passenger car was capsized.
The most seriously injured of the passengers are: John Rulan, leg broken and badly lacerated; Jacob Simonsen, arm broken; A. C. Champagne, badly cut about the head and left hand.

LOST HIS PRISONER.

A Murderer Escapes From a Sheriff in California.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 9.—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Bailey, of Lee county, Texas, came to Colton on the Southern Pacific local train to escape. Inmate corpus proceedings, which were instituted against a prisoner named Nathan Willette, whom he had arrested in Los Angeles, charged with committing a murder in Texas, seventeen years ago. At 7:30 o'clock last night he took his prisoner to the depot to take the overland train for Texas, which was due at Colton at 7:45 p. m.
While waiting for the train the prisoner complained of cold and requested that the hand cuffs be removed so he could put on his overcoat. This was done. While he was donning his overcoat Willette called the sheriff's attention to some pictures on the wall and while the sheriff was looking at them Willette made a dash through the crowd and escaped in the darkness.
The sheriff could not fire at him for fear of hitting the passengers in the waiting room.
Willette came to Los Angeles a few years ago, and had accumulated property worth $30,000.
FIRE BUGS AT WORK.
A Big Railroad Bridge in California Burned.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
DREWS, Cal., Oct. 9.—A trestle bridge over Fatah creek, two miles south of Davisville, was destroyed by fire late last night. The fire was, no doubt, incendiary, and seems to have been the work of parties who have heretofore made several attempts to wreck the Oregon train, which carries a very heavy traffic. The burned bridge was over 800 feet long. Telegraphic communication is interrupted, as both the wires of the Western Union and the Pacific Postal company's were destroyed, but to-day they are being rapidly repaired.

"JACK, THE HAIR-CUTTER"

A Man Who Despoils Maidens of Their Tresses.

HE CAUSES A REIGN OF TERROR.

Young Ladies in Detroit Afraid to Venture Out of Their Homes After Dark.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 9.—Residents of the western part of this city are wildly excited over the actions of a professional hair thief, who by his cunning methods has gained the name of "Jack, the Hair-Cutter."
About four weeks ago a young woman with beautiful black hair was on her way home in the early part of the evening, when a man suddenly threw his arm around her neck so that she could not make any outcry. In an instant he had loosened her hair from its fastenings, and almost as quickly severed it close to her head, and escaped before she could call for help. Since then two other girls have been robbed of their tresses near the same spot.
The man reached the climax of his boldness last night. Fanny O'Leary, a 17-year-old girl, was going home, when a tall, slim man jumped out from an alley and caught her by the throat in such a way that she could not scream. In the twinkling of an eye she felt something glide over her head, and then she was pushed into the gutter, and the man escaped before she could call for help. He tried to hold her in such a manner that she could not see him, but she managed to get a look at him and has furnished a good description to the police, who are on lookout for him, aided by Miss O'Leary's description. This will not be needed if the people get him first.
Astorians Much Interested.

SUICIDE OF YOUNG SPRAGUE.

His Mother Thinks His Death Was Accidental.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—News of the death by suicide of Wm. Sprague, Jr., was a great shock to the many friends of the Sprague family here. When a reporter called at Edgewood, the home of Mrs. Kate Chase, the young man's mother, this afternoon, she found the latter at lunch. Mrs. Chase had not received the sad news, and when told of it her grief was very affected.
"I cannot conceive that he killed himself," she said. "If it is true that he met a violent death it surely must have been an accident."
She said that her son had done work for several illustrated papers. He had also been employed on Pittsburgh newspapers and he had been in Chicago for some time prior to leaving for Seattle, starting from the former place about the 20th of last month.
"I received a cheerful letter from him from Chicago only a few days before he left that city," said his wife. "There was nothing to indicate that he was not feeling very happy. The day before he left Chicago he sent me a postal card in which he gave encouraging news about his new field of duty on the Seattle Journal."
The young man was 24 years old, and was well and favorably known in this city, although he has not resided here for several years.

THE HEART OF A LITTLE DOG.

Experiment in Vivisection in a Vienna Hospital.

STUDENTS WERE DELIGHTED.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Opponents of vivisection, the Daily News's correspondent at Vienna, telegraphs, will be delighted to hear of an experiment that took place in a hospital yesterday. A little dog was made insensible and fastened to a board and when his heart had been laid bare a camera, in connection with a microscope, was applied which threw a magnificent picture of the dog's heart on the wall opposite, revealing to the eyes of all present every movement of the heart. The experiment lasted half an hour, and according to the professor it was a successful demonstration of the movements of the living heart and of the greatest value to the student of medicine.

WITH A POCKET KNIFE.

Serious Stabbing Affair Between Drunken Men.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
ALBANY, Oct. 9.—This afternoon Harry Ward, who has been working several months at Fred Bond, and Doc Logan, who resides near Knope Butte, got in a drunken row in front of the Waverly house saloon, over nothing in particular. The row resulted in Logan drawing a pocket knife and stabbing Ward in the throat, cutting a gash three or four inches long, severing the wind pipe, but not the jugular vein. Indications are good for the man dying. Logan jumped into a wagon with his wife and drove towards home. He was arrested by Constable Barkhart and Marshal Hoffman, but has not been arrested yet.
LATER.—The officers returned this evening with Doc Logan, who stabbed Harry Ward this afternoon.

THE LOTTERY LAW.

It Interferes With the Publication of a Newspaper.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 9.—The postal authorities to-day seized the weekly edition of the Atlanta Constitution, which contained a prize distribution offer to subscribers to be settled by a Christmas drawing. About 10,000 papers got out before the seizure, and the northern edition was detained. The paper offered to give a bonus in any amount to cover any verdict which might be rendered, but the authorities were obstinate and refused to let the paper through the mails.
The objectionable feature consisted of an amendment that there would be a distribution of prizes to its Christmas box. Like many other papers, has been running in connection with the Weekly Constitution for years.
The postal authorities claim that this violates the law recently passed. The Constitution announced that the newspapers ought to assist the government in filling the provisions of this law and stopped the publication of its lottery advertisement. Thinking that the law was intended to cover just such features, to-day's edition was seized. The paper offered to give a bonus in any amount to cover any verdict which might be rendered, but the authorities were obstinate and refused to let the paper through the mails.

HER CREW TOUGH BRAVELY.

How the Belle of an Associated Dictator Lives in New York.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
VICTORIA, Oct. 9.—The small steamer Salina, owned by Knowles Bros., of San Francisco, arrived here this morning in distress, braving short of coal and her crew out. She encountered a gale off Queen Charlotte islands, and had a rough time.
Captain Alexander says it was the worst storm he has seen for thirty years. It blew a hurricane for eight hours and he had to use drugs and oil to keep the steamer steady. The Salina has been used as a canvas steamer during the summer at Prince William's sound, and had seven men on board. All are well but exhausted by their fight with the elements. She will coal here and then sail for San Francisco.

"JUMP FOR YOUR LIVES."

A Runaway Street-Car Plunges Into the Chicago River.

"Jump for your lives! We're going into the river!"
The driver of the Lincoln avenue car 778, of the North Chicago Street Railroad company threw open the front door of his car at 12:45 o'clock, a few days since, and with a face as white as snow, shouted these appalling words to his passengers, a dozen or more in number. The passengers made a wild rush for the doors. As the last man sprang from the step the car and horses went over the bank and plunged into the river. The Clark-street bridge had been turned to allow the passing of the barge Howard J., a few days since, and with a face as white as snow, shouted these appalling words to his passengers, a dozen or more in number.
