FROM THE FROZEN NORTH

The Alaska Salmon Pack Was Above the Average.
THE CUTTERS AND SEALERS.
No Serious Trouble Experienced by Seal Poachers.—Mission of the Steamer "Bertha."
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Intelligence has been received here from Alaska that the steamer Mexico will bring down to Astoria, en route to this port, 16,889 cases of salmon, closing the season's work.
Late reports from the canneries state that the season will average well on account of the big catches made at several stations.
Captain Carroll, at one time employed by the Pacific Coast Steamship company, is a candidate for delegate from Alaska to Washington, and he is making an active canvass. He is opposed by George W. Carsted, a well known lawyer of Juneau. The convention of "The People of Alaska" met at the latter city on October 6th to nominate a candidate and after a hot fight Captain Carroll came out the victor.
It is reported that so far the government in place of the Walcott as a patrol boat in Behring sea has accomplished nothing worthy of note.
The sealers Triumph and Adela are now in Behring sea and the Bertha is there supposedly to seize them. The Adela sailed this season under the German flag and it is said that ship will not endeavor to escape seizure.
Some of the Victoria poachers want to make a case between this country and Germany, and they think that in this way the Behring sea question will arrive at a settlement favorable to them.

FAVORS HOME RULE.

The Prince of Wales Said to Advocate It.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
LONDON, Oct. 19.—In a recent interview Mr. Brien made a remarkable assertion, which is likely to stir up the politicians. He declared that the cause of justice to Ireland has no less a friend than his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, who, however, could of course take no active part in advocating that cause, and who was precluded by the constitution from openly pronouncing his opinion of political matters.
O'Brien said he had it from those who frequent the society of the prince that he is by no means opposed to home rule in Ireland and that he would welcome the passage of some measure to bring it about; and that he has prompted the queen to have the subject mentioned in a speech from the throne at the opening of parliament and that her majesty has consented to bring the matter to the notice of her advisers.

POLATICS IN THE SOUTH

The Negro Vote Will Be a Very Important Factor.
THE SITUATION VERY OBITICAL
Leaders of Both Parties Trying to Control the Colored Men—Some Predictions.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 19.—The situation in South Carolina, from a political standpoint, is decidedly peculiar. Everybody is talking politics and the people are wrought up to a high political excitement. The excitement is confined to no class, nor to any peculiar section of the state. It is general throughout the whole state and effects both races. The few days now remaining before the general election in November bid fair to be days well filled with bitterness and events of bloodshed. The leaders of the opposition factions are hard at work and neither side will leave a single stone unturned to ensure victory. There are many who regret that such a state of things has come about. On the other hand there are others who welcome the breaking of old party lines. All recognize the fact that they will be used and many admit that the negro will be the deciding factor in the fight between the whites.
A great many bewail this recognition of the negro vote, which they regard as a step toward the degradation of the race and to take charge of it now and get control of it. They say that the recognition of the negro vote is but a question of time and that, too, of a very short time, and that if they did not see opponents who would use it two years hence, to keep themselves in office.

WHISKY GOT THE BEST OF THEM

A Man Pours Kerosene on His Brother and Fires It.
HORRIBLE CASE OF MURDER.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Crazed by liquor after a prolonged spree, James Morris, finding his brother Joseph in a drunken slumber in bed at home, poured kerosene oil over him and set fire to the saturated bed and clothing. The blaze flashed up and awakened the sleeping man. Others of the family rushed to the rescue, and careless of burns, extinguished the fire and dragged Joseph to a place of safety, though their own hands were scorched.
Joseph was in a horrible condition. The flesh on his left side was burned to a crisp. All the care and remedies that physicians could use were given to him, but after lingering in great agony he died this morning.
James was arrested and placed in jail immediately after the crime to await his brother's injuries. Coroner Carr and District-Attorney Devo visited Morris' house to-day.
The Morris farm is six miles from this city on a mountain road near the village of Hurley. The father of the boys on his death a few years ago, left about $150,000 to his three grown sons and his widow. The boys were likely to quarrel, and they bought a fine farm for $100,000 and worked it together, living in a well-to-do manner. They made money for the land was good and they also worked a profitable limestone quarry on the place. Dr. Devo got the best of them, however, with the result stated.

WAS ELECTED TO HIS DEATH

In Killing Himself, the Victim Simply Carried Out a Pledge He Made to the Club.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
BRIDGEPORT, Conn. Oct. 19.—Another member of the Suicide club has carried out the edict of that society.
This time it is Emil Ziemske who ended his life, by taking iodine of poison. Ziemske came from Ansonia, and joined the club only nine months ago, when it was without any members other than its president and secretary.
Early last spring Wm. F. Many, a United States letter carrier, killed himself. Wendell Baum shot himself and Joseph Kopp followed by hanging himself. All were members of the suicide club. These last three rolled up the number of suicides to nearly a score and reduced the membership to the president and secretary, who are exempt from self destruction.
Ziemske, with three others, was then pledged to the secret order. A ballot resulted in ordering Ziemske to destroy himself before the next meeting, Saturday night, October 18, and Ziemske has fulfilled his vow.

The leaders of the opposition factions are hard at work and neither side will leave a single stone unturned to ensure victory. There are many who regret that such a state of things has come about. On the other hand there are others who welcome the breaking of old party lines. All recognize the fact that they will be used and many admit that the negro will be the deciding factor in the fight between the whites.
A great many bewail this recognition of the negro vote, which they regard as a step toward the degradation of the race and to take charge of it now and get control of it. They say that the recognition of the negro vote is but a question of time and that, too, of a very short time, and that if they did not see opponents who would use it two years hence, to keep themselves in office.

A Man Pours Kerosene on His Brother and Fires It.
HORRIBLE CASE OF MURDER.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Crazed by liquor after a prolonged spree, James Morris, finding his brother Joseph in a drunken slumber in bed at home, poured kerosene oil over him and set fire to the saturated bed and clothing. The blaze flashed up and awakened the sleeping man. Others of the family rushed to the rescue, and careless of burns, extinguished the fire and dragged Joseph to a place of safety, though their own hands were scorched.
Joseph was in a horrible condition. The flesh on his left side was burned to a crisp. All the care and remedies that physicians could use were given to him, but after lingering in great agony he died this morning.
James was arrested and placed in jail immediately after the crime to await his brother's injuries. Coroner Carr and District-Attorney Devo visited Morris' house to-day.
The Morris farm is six miles from this city on a mountain road near the village of Hurley. The father of the boys on his death a few years ago, left about $150,000 to his three grown sons and his widow. The boys were likely to quarrel, and they bought a fine farm for $100,000 and worked it together, living in a well-to-do manner. They made money for the land was good and they also worked a profitable limestone quarry on the place. Dr. Devo got the best of them, however, with the result stated.

WAS ELECTED TO HIS DEATH

In Killing Himself, the Victim Simply Carried Out a Pledge He Made to the Club.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
BRIDGEPORT, Conn. Oct. 19.—Another member of the Suicide club has carried out the edict of that society.
This time it is Emil Ziemske who ended his life, by taking iodine of poison. Ziemske came from Ansonia, and joined the club only nine months ago, when it was without any members other than its president and secretary.
Early last spring Wm. F. Many, a United States letter carrier, killed himself. Wendell Baum shot himself and Joseph Kopp followed by hanging himself. All were members of the suicide club. These last three rolled up the number of suicides to nearly a score and reduced the membership to the president and secretary, who are exempt from self destruction.
Ziemske, with three others, was then pledged to the secret order. A ballot resulted in ordering Ziemske to destroy himself before the next meeting, Saturday night, October 18, and Ziemske has fulfilled his vow.

The Alaska Salmon Pack Was Above the Average.
THE CUTTERS AND SEALERS.
No Serious Trouble Experienced by Seal Poachers.—Mission of the Steamer "Bertha."
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Intelligence has been received here from Alaska that the steamer Mexico will bring down to Astoria, en route to this port, 16,889 cases of salmon, closing the season's work.
Late reports from the canneries state that the season will average well on account of the big catches made at several stations.
Captain Carroll, at one time employed by the Pacific Coast Steamship company, is a candidate for delegate from Alaska to Washington, and he is making an active canvass. He is opposed by George W. Carsted, a well known lawyer of Juneau. The convention of "The People of Alaska" met at the latter city on October 6th to nominate a candidate and after a hot fight Captain Carroll came out the victor.
It is reported that so far the government in place of the Walcott as a patrol boat in Behring sea has accomplished nothing worthy of note.
The sealers Triumph and Adela are now in Behring sea and the Bertha is there supposedly to seize them. The Adela sailed this season under the German flag and it is said that ship will not endeavor to escape seizure.
Some of the Victoria poachers want to make a case between this country and Germany, and they think that in this way the Behring sea question will arrive at a settlement favorable to them.

FAVORS HOME RULE.

The Prince of Wales Said to Advocate It.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
LONDON, Oct. 19.—In a recent interview Mr. Brien made a remarkable assertion, which is likely to stir up the politicians. He declared that the cause of justice to Ireland has no less a friend than his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, who, however, could of course take no active part in advocating that cause, and who was precluded by the constitution from openly pronouncing his opinion of political matters.
O'Brien said he had it from those who frequent the society of the prince that he is by no means opposed to home rule in Ireland and that he would welcome the passage of some measure to bring it about; and that he has prompted the queen to have the subject mentioned in a speech from the throne at the opening of parliament and that her majesty has consented to bring the matter to the notice of her advisers.

POLATICS IN THE SOUTH

The Negro Vote Will Be a Very Important Factor.
THE SITUATION VERY OBITICAL
Leaders of Both Parties Trying to Control the Colored Men—Some Predictions.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 19.—The situation in South Carolina, from a political standpoint, is decidedly peculiar. Everybody is talking politics and the people are wrought up to a high political excitement. The excitement is confined to no class, nor to any peculiar section of the state. It is general throughout the whole state and effects both races. The few days now remaining before the general election in November bid fair to be days well filled with bitterness and events of bloodshed. The leaders of the opposition factions are hard at work and neither side will leave a single stone unturned to ensure victory. There are many who regret that such a state of things has come about. On the other hand there are others who welcome the breaking of old party lines.
