ASTORIA KNIGHTS VICTORIOUS They Bring Back the Drill Prize and Other Premiums.

THE CITY THAT BEATS 'EM ALL. It was what might be called a triumphal march. The local Knights of Pythias returned home yesterday and proudly through the streets did the company bear the premium it had won in the prize drill at The Dalles.

ST. HELENS ITEMS. Clipped from the "Oregon Mist" of Friday Last.

Nine divorce and two criminal cases are included in the long docket for this term of circuit court. That is an unusually large number for Columbia in this line.

A BELIEVER IN BELLAMY. A California Lady is to Found a "Looking Backward" Colony.

FREE HOMES FOR ALL PEOPLE. The principles set forth in Bellamy's "Looking Backward" are about to be tested by Mrs. Olive Washburn, a wealthy lady residing in San Francisco, who will devote nearly her entire fortune to the founding of a Nationalist colony, where the ideas advanced by the National leader can be developed to their fullest extent.

THE OLD YELLOW PUMPKIN. How dear to this heart is the old yellow pumpkin.

When orchards are barren for stuffing for pies! When peaches and apples have both been a failure. And berries of no kind have greeted the eyes.

All the returning Knights of Pythias have pockets full of Indian arrow heads gathered at The Dalles.

Some one has left a silk umbrella at this office, and the owner can have it by proving property and paying for this notice.

Most of the day yesterday it was clear and sunny, a very agreeable contrast to the stormy and unpleasant weather of last week.

A silk umbrella has been left at the store of Parker & Hansen, which the owner can have by proving property and paying for this notice.

Miss Eunice Goodrich and her company were passengers to Portland last night on the R. R. Thompson, where they open this evening for a week's engagement.

The Spokane Star says it has the "largest potato in the civilized or uncivilized world" on exhibition in its office. It weighs just over seven pounds.

The gain in membership in the Knights of Pythias throughout the state, has been very gratifying, as reported at the session of the grand lodge last week at The Dalles.

The returning Knights of Pythias are all loud in their praises of the fraters at The Dalles; and not only that, but the citizens generally, all kind words and warm greetings for the visitors.

The Washington Independent offers the following candid remarks for the possible benefit of some aspirant for political preferment in its neighborhood.

PERSONAL MENTION. I. L. Osgood went to Portland last evening. George Wallace returned Saturday from Alaska via the Sound.

Inspector Tom Linnville went up on the steamship Mexico in his official capacity. Judge C. H. Page and wife started last evening on their visit to the eastern states.

Charles S. Rogers, who is connected with the Union Pacific railroad, was in the city yesterday. Charley Clausen, the candy man, who has been on a trip to Europe is in Portland and will be there in a few days.

Richard Turk, number one of Fort Canby life saving station, returned last evening from a two-weeks' visit to Portland. J. A. Monroe, assistant general traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railroad company visited this city yesterday.

Mrs. W. C. Ricard and son left San Francisco yesterday on the steamship Columbia, and will be due here tomorrow morning. E. A. Seelye, president of the Columbia Transportation company was in the city yesterday, and went up to Portland last evening.

Dr. O. B. Estes was elected assistant surgeon of the First Regiment, Uniformed Knights of Pythias, of Oregon, with rank of first lieutenant, at the regimental election held at The Dalles last week.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES. The steam schooner Michigan will sail this morning for Puget sound ports.

The steamship Elder, loaded down pretty heavily with wheat, will sail for San Francisco on the tide this morning.

The steamship Mought left yesterday for Victoria via Puget sound. She has on board a general cargo of flour, etc., for Hong Kong.

The customs officers detailed on the steamship Mexico, failed to unearth any contraband opium. They live in hope, however, that some day the board and that it will be dug up by the officers at Portland.

The steamship George W. Elder which arrived from Portland yesterday was in collision just outside the mouth of the Willamette river and lost a little paint, besides going ashore.

The vessel that collided with the Elder was the Willamette Chief and it was in pulling back in order to avert a bad accident that the Elder went ashore. She touched lightly in soft mud and is indebted to the steamer R. R. Thompson for being pulled off.

Newspapers are often asked to make similar corrections. A thin, nervous looking man stepped up to the pastor as the latter came down from the pulpit.

Chicago, now having the biggest and prettiest theater in the world, is soon also to have the biggest extravaganza ever produced. An English theatrical speculator has bought all the scenery and costumes of "Cinderella," which, with Minnie Palmer, was seen at her majesty's theater, in London, and to it he has added the costumes of "Babe in the Wood" and "Little Red Riding Hood," all to be rolled into one gigantic show, and put upon the mammoth stage of the "Auditorium." The costumes alone are said to have cost the actor and dukes inveigled into the London scheme £120,000.

Of the twenty-six barons who signed Magna Charta all but three had to "make their mark," being unable to write.

CURTIS, Captain.

The system of indorsing is all wrong and should be utterly abolished. It has been the financial ruin of more men than perhaps other causes.

Both are now at the ranch superintending the arrangements. The Chicago Times, now in its thirty-sixth year of successful publication, continues to be the leading democratic journal of the Northwest.

Printed in Chicago, the Times responds fully to the demand of that great metropolis for local recognition, but while strongly a local publication it is essentially a great newspaper, whose enterprise covers the whole world of news.

The confidence of people who have tried Hood's Sarsaparilla, in this preparation, is remarkable. It has cured many who have failed to derive any good whatever from other remedies.

Only One in the United States. Out of 1377 cough syrups manufactured in the United States, but one has been found to be entirely free from opiates and that is the California Positive and Negative Electric Cough Cure, which is the best on earth for coughs, colds, croup, etc. Sold by J. W. Conn.
