The Elk creek delegation comprising Hebert F. L. Logan, H. Bell and R. C. F. Astbury, were in the city yesterday.

The politicians over in Pacific county are arranging for a grand political demonstration, and have sent over here to borrow a lot of torches to use for street parade at night.

The red holiday flag of the Chinese was floated from the flagstaff on the headquarters of the six companies on Second street yesterday, indicating that the Chinese New Year is approaching.

Suit was brought late last evening in the circuit court by H. Sloop against A. S. Knapp to recover $505.15 claimed to be due for timber and services. The complaint recites that $150 of the amount is owing for 300,00 feet of standing timber and the balance for work and labor done.

Grand Lecturer Whitmore has returned from a tour of the Gray's harbor country. He was quite successful, having instituted two lodges A. O. U. W., and revived the work of the order among the membership. He is now at his McMinnville home and will start this week or the early part of next on another official tour.

When good company visits at a friend's house, it is a welcome event, and when a long-expected arrival appears it is still more pleasant, but especially joyous is the arrival of one of the very kind of permanent guests most wanted, and that is the case at the house of John Riley, where a ten-pound daughter arrived on Monday.

The board of pilot commissioners met yesterday and considered the matter of appointing additional pilots for the bar. After some discussion it was decided not to appoint any pilots for the schooner until the vessel arrives. Loy Staples, was, however, appointed a pilot in the tug boat service. It is expected that the schooner will arrive here in a few days and then several pilots will be named by the board.

The West Shore Publishing Company have concluded the purchase of a site for their proposed building, at Columbia and Water streets, Portland, and have let the contract for erecting two stories to John B. Bridges. Work will be begun at once, as the company desire to have their plant moved into the new building by January 1. The structure will be of Oregon pressed brick, and fitted and finished as far as practicable with Oregon material. Massive concrete foundations will be put in for the presses, which will be on the ground floor. The building will be plain but neat, and will eventually be run up to probably six stories.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. N. Coffee of Knappa was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conn have returned from Portland.

D. F. Stafford and daughter of Skipanon are in the city.

Pilot Commissioner Weeks is expected home on the steamship Columbia to-day.

Major E. A. Weed goes up to Portland this morning to see his little son who is still too sick to be brought home.

Sam H. Perin, President of the Chilkat Packing Company, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Perin came up from San Francisco to settle with his cannery employes. He leaves for home to-day.

A Marine Curiosity.

Carl Boentjen brought a marine curiosity to this office last evening. It consists of an ordinary seaweed some twenty feet in length and at the lower end the cluster of roots have a firm hold of an aggregation of marine shells several pounds in weight. These shells are occupied by a curious inhabitant that has a beak that resembles a chicken's, only it is divided perpendicularly instead of horizontally. Several persons inspected the curious formation but had never seen anything like it. Mr. Boentjen will pickle the whole outfit and place it on exhibition.

Notice.

A. F. and A. M., Temple Lodge, No. 7, regular communication this Tuesday evening at 7:30 work in the E. A. degree. All members are requested to attend promptly and sojourning brethern are cordially invited.

By order,

Sandy's Next Trial.

Papers from the clerk of the state supreme court containing the recent decision of that body, have been at the courthouse for two or three days. He will probably be arraigned for a new trial either to-day or to-morrow. It is expected that a change of venue will be granted him for his next trial. It is thought at the courthouse that he will not be tried at Astoria, but at either Oregon City or Hillsboro.—Oregonian, 20.

Mlle. Louise Gautier, a young French lady who had the misfortune to be born deaf and dumb, has nevertheless passed with honor all the examinations of the Ecole des Beaux-Artis at Paris, receiving not only her diploma, but an appointment as teacher. She has been taught by the Grosselin system both to read the lips and to speak, so that her infirmity is hardly noticeable.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A Good Attendance And a Very Interesting Session.

MEMBERS IN ARREARS MUST PAY

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the chamber was held last evening, and in the absence of President Bowlby, Vice-President Halloran occupied the chair. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The committee on membership proposed F. W. Newell and M. M. Ketchum, who were duly elected.

Delegates Case, Wingate and Hanthorn presented a written report of their attendance at the Pacific Coast Chamber of Commerce held in San Francisco, September 17th, 18th and 19th, giving the principal items of business transacted. The report was received and placed on file.

A communication was received from T. F. Osborn, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, asking amount of shipping and imports from September 1, 1889 to August 31, 1890. It was referred to the president and secretary to secure and forward the desired information. It is wanted for the naval commission.

A communication was received from the secretary of the Columbia Waterway Association inviting election of delegates to attend the session on the 22d. The communication was accepted and the acting president, J. F. Halloran was authorized to appoint five delegates. He appointed Judge J. Q. A. Bowlby, C. W. Fulton, G. Wingate, E. A. Weed and J. O. Hauthorn.

A letter was read from Senator Dolph in reference to the establishment of another railway postal division on the Pacific coast.

A letter was read from a party in Pennsylvania who desires to come here and start a store. It was referred to Capt Gray.

A communication was received, inviting Astoria to be represented in a pamphlet, of which 200,000 copies will be issued, and the price is $150 per page of reading matter, and $170 per page of illustration. It came from the Oregon Immigration board. It was referred to a committee to consider, adopting some plan if possible. The chair appointed Messrs. B. Van Dusen, J. H. Mansell, A. W. Cyrus and Fred W. Keen.

The motion adopted at the previous meeting to raise the dues from 50 cents to $1 per month, was reconsidered. After considerable discussion the motion to make the dues $1 per month after November 1 was passed without a dissenting voice.

The secretary was instructed to notify all members in arrears that if, by the 1st of November, they do not pay all arrears of dues up to October 1st, they will be expelled.

It was voted that a committee of three be appointed to revise the by-laws and recommend some amendment providing for expulsion of members when delinquent for dues. Messrs. Weed, Barker and Case were appointed as such committee.

It was voted that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the transportation companies and endeavor to have a boat from here to Portland and return every night. Messrs. Gray, Thatcher and Mansell were appointed as such committee.

Mr. Nickerson asked permission to have the chamber verbally indorse the efforts of the Columbian in getting up their souvenir edition. The matter was referred to the advertising committee for their investigation. This committee consists of Messrs. Gray, Weed and Cyrus.

A bill of $18.50 from the Occident hotel, for the entertainment of the naval commission, was presented and ordered paid.

The secretary reported that since the last meeting he had received for dues $56.50, and that Mr. Keen had collected for dues $145, and this evening, for admission fees, $15 was paid, making the receipts of the evening $216.50, a very creditable amount.

The meeting then adjourned.

SOPHIA MATTSON DROWNED.

She Fell Through Net Racks Last Sunday Afternoon.

Sunday afternoon, about 2:30, J. H. Mattson and a son of Mrs. Henry Mattson were fishing from the net racks at Elmore's cannery, when two little daughters of Mrs. Mattson ran out on the net rack to where the two were fishing. Mr. Mattson, who is the uncle of the children, told the little girls to go back to the house, and started towards them as if to enforce his command. They started back and he gave his attention to his fishing; when he looked up the eldest of the girls was not in sight, but he suspected nothing wrong. The youngest girl went to the house and told some other children that her sister Sophia had fallen overboard, and they came down to look for her and told her uncle, who made unsuccessful search for her. He thinks the little girl, who was only 6 years of age, must have been walking backwards while looking to see if he was following, and that she stepped into one of the holes in the racks through which the nets are hauled up. The body has not yet been found. The little girl's father was drowned while fishing about two years ago.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The steam schooner Michigan sailed for the Sound and Victoria late yesterday afternoon. She has a cargo composed principally of flour for China.

BOUGHT A TICKET FROM EUROPE

A Rancher Causes the Arrest of a Steamship Agent.

HIS WIFE DID NOT ARRIVE.

Constable Oberg and several officers were out last night searching for A. T. Brakke, who of late has been doing a land office business in selling foreign steamship tickets. The charge against Brakke is embezzlement, is being alleged that he appropriated $114.75 in money intrusted to him by Peter Moller, a Nehalem rancher.

Mr. Moller settled in the forests some time ago and having proved up on a homestead he builded himself a home. Then he bethought him of the wife he left back in Denmark, Copenhagen was the place. To get his spouse here was the next question, and he saw Brakke, who represented himself as an agent for transatlantic steamship and transcontinental railroad lines. The result was that Moller gave to Brakke on October 3d, $114.75, Brakke giving to Moller a big piece of printed paper which reads that Mrs. Moller is entitled to a passage via steamship and rail from Copenhagen to Portland, Oregon.

Telegrams were supposed to have been sent to the Old Country, giving Mrs. Moller passage, but she never got the transportation, and Moller decided to have Brakke arrested.

Up to a late hour the constable had not found Brakke.

This morning, just after midnight, Mr. Brakke called at this office and stated that he had settled with Mr. Moller and given him back the amount received, and he still maintains that he has sent the ticket to Copenhagen, as he agreed to.

Baron James Rothschild, of London, has adorned his drawing-room with the most superb electrolier ever made. THE TROUBLE WITH OUR MAIL.

The Unsatisfactory State of Affairs in the Astoria Postoffice.

SOME MORE HELP REQUIRED.

For a city of over 7,000 inhabitants, according to the late census enumeration, Astoria is not provided with as efficient mail service as she should be.

The city itself is rapidly growing and the country round about it is fast filling up with a permanent population that demands the establishment of new postoffices, the mail for which passes through the Astoria office.

Mails arrive at the Astoria postoffice early in the morning and late in the evening.

Mails leave the Astoria office early in the morning and in the evening also.

The office is doing a large money order and registered letter business which takes time and care to properly attend to.

Besides the large letter mail that must be taken care of in the postoffice of a city of the size, and doing the large business that Astoria does, there is the large bulk of business resulting from the publication of seven newspapers in the city—four weekly papers, and three daily papers; two of them morning publications and one an evening.

To handle all this mail, and do it promptly and properly, requires the employes in the office to give the work their attention from halfpast four in the morning until ten o'clock at night.

Postmaster Hare is only allowed pay for two assistants. One of them comes to the office at halfpast four in the morning to make up the mail that goes to Portland and the various points tributary to Astoria, the mails for which are sent in the morning.

About 8 o'clock Postmaster Hare and his assistant who has charge of the money order and registered letter department come to the office and attend to their respective duties, while the assistant who made up the morning mail returns from breakfast and attends to the distribution of the wagonload of newspaper mail that came the night before which was not distributed immediately upon its arrival from Portland, by the afternoon boat which arrives here all the way from 4:30 to 6 o'clock in the evening.

The assistant who rises at 4:30 in the morning to send off the early morning mail could not in reason be asked to remain in the office until late at night to distribute the late afternoon mail.

Postmaster Hare and his assistant who come to the office and are employed about the delivery window and their various clerical duties could not be expected to return to the office after supper and stay until the work was all cleared up.

The people of Astoria are justly indignant when they go to the postoffice in the evening and find that they cannot get their mail which has come down on the afternoon boat.

When the situation is explained, no one blames Postmaster Hare or his assistants who are as attentive and accommodating as any one could ask.

But the people of this city who pay taxes to support this government and its postal service do blame the authorities of the postoffice department for not allowing Postmaster Hare a sufficient allowance to pay for the assistance that is required to deliver them their mail promptly without waiting for it from twelve to sixteen hours.

With a newspaper it works a great hardship.

THE ASTORIAN has a large and valuable list of exchanges coming from all parts of the country. They often contain bits of news that are valuable for publication in this paper if they can be had on the evening they arrive in this city, so that they can be presented to readers in the morning. But they lose value as news when carried over to another day.

THE ASTORIAN, in common with the other newspapers of this city, demands that there be sufficient help furnished our postmaster to enable him to send and deliver our mails promptly every day.

What is the use of having daily mails, morning mails and evening mails, pouring into the postoffice, and our people fail to receive the full benefit of them, simply because the postal authorities are too careless or too parsimonious to provide the office with the help required to place the mail in the boxes where people can get it the same day it arrives, instead of being compelled to wait till the next day, when it may be rendered almost worthless by a flood of later news that demands attention.

The rush and hurry of these times is too great for people to endure unnecessary delay or spend their time poking over stale news.

We want to read the letters and papers that come on the evening mail that evening, and not be compelled to wait until the next morning for them.

The postoffice department is supposed to be for the accommodation of the people, and not for the purpose of trying their patience and aggravating them.

The postoffice department should "get a move on" and allow Postmaster Hare another assistant.

EXPENSE MONEY FORWARDED.

The Clouds Clearing Away From the Railroad Situation.

On a suit brought by Gordon Eager & Co. in the circuit court yesterday, the bonds of the Astoria & South Coast Railroad Company, in the vaults of the Case Banking Co., were yesterday attached by Sheriff Smith. The amount sued for is $8,599, balance due for work of construction on the Seaside division of the line. A supplemental garnishment was also placed on the bonds under a writ of execution issued under judgment in the case of Thompson & Ross against the construction company for $7,828.60. The garnishment will in no wise affect the pending negotiations for the sale of the bonds, and were made simply to protect the creditors and give their claims a preferred place.

It is understood in this connection and the authority is a director in the South Coast road that President Reid has forwarded the necessary $5,000, for the engineer of the English syndicate to visit this city and check up the survey. Also that J. H. Smith has signed or will within a day or two sign the papers to conclude the deal with the British capitalists.

THE YELLOW FLAG AGAIN.

Another Storm Signalled for This Coast.

The yellow flag was hoisted again yesterday by Mr. Grover, signal observer, indicating that mariners should look out for gales on the coast. The signal was raised pursuant to a dispatch from San Francisco reading as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.

Storm center at sea west of Vancouver Island, moving east south-east. Southerly shifting to westerly winds. Stationary followed by higher temperature. Rain and thick weather with dangerous gales along the North Pacific coast for the next forty-eight hours.

In speaking of the storm the signal officer said he did not think it would be felt here. The center of the storm will be out at sea and north of the mouth of the river, being between this place and Cape Flattery.

Coasters between here and San Francisco will escape the storm, but will have heavy seas to encounter.

PRACTICAL TESTS.

An Astonishing Offer—Some of the Replies.

The San Francisco papers of recent date contained the following offer:—

"As an evidence of the ability of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla to prevent sick headaches, we will give to the first twelve responsible persons who will apply at our office a bottle free if they will agree that after they have been cured that they will admit the fact over their signatures."

This offer so startlingly asserted the efficiency of the remedy that many accepted, and the letters of the parties, nearly all of whom responded, are probably the most convincing attestations that any remedy ever received. The following is a sample of those received:—

I have been subject to bilious headaches and constipation for several years past; in fact, have been compelled to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache and dull, mean feeling. I have taken that bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, and have derived great benefit from it, and intend continuing it. After my own experience I can heartily advise those troubled with billousness and constipation to try it.
Yours, CHAS. E. ELKINGTON,
125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco.

A Physician's Opinion.

DR. A. M. SPAULDING, of Grand Rapids, Mich., says: "I prescribe Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup in my practice, and unhesitatingly recommend it. It operates upon the liver, kidneys and bowels, destroying the poison in the blood and tissues. It is a grand tonic and appetizer, and for a diseased stomach or dyspepsia, has no equal." For sale by J. W. Conn.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria.
