FEMALE OPIUM FIENDS

Fifty-Seven Women Arrested In
New York City.

A STRANGE SCENE IN COURT.

Twenty Policemen Captured Them In The Low Chinese Dens of The Metropolis.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A scene strange even for New York, attracted attention even in the Tombs police court this morning. Fifty-seven women, all white, with the exception of two negroes, and one of Chinese American parentage, were escorted in by twenty policemen.

The women were all found in Chinese opium dens last night, and an afternoon paper, which is ordinarily pro-Chinese, described their appearance as follows:
Their intimate relations with the Chinese seemed not only to cause them to lose all their own self respect, but also to take on in part the nature of the celestials. The two colored girls tried to laugh in a shamefaced sort of way, as the lawyer was marched in before the bar. Some others were laughing and a very few were crying.
Most of them looked defiant. They had brought with them out of the den a distinct odor of opium. One third of the entire lot wore hats, while four-fifths showed the effects of opium smoking. About one-third were sent to jail, and they ate opium pills while waiting for the van.

To Improve Commerce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—At a meeting of the chamber of commerce to-day it was decided to memorialize congress to establish a navy training ship at this port. Resolutions approving the formation of a state naval reserve and the construction of a cable to the Hawaiian islands and Australia were also adopted.

Colonel O. H. Moore, of Coldwater, Mich., a hero of the civil war, has been taken to an insane hospital near Detroit. Moore is the man who, when his command was surrounded by General Morgan's command, at Tibb's Bend, Ky., July 4, 1863, cut his way through the enemy, crying out, when called upon to surrender, "Yankees never surrender on the Fourth of July!"

delegated to commission to erect the

THE NEW CRUISERS.

The Cramps Want the Plans Modified Some.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A large amount of naval construction is now in the hands of ship building firms, and it appears to be somewhat embarrassing to the builders in the matter of obtaining supplies of material, which must be of domestic production. The number of steel works that can produce large castings necessary to carry out certain designs is exceedingly limited, and they are pressed with standing orders, so Cramp has suggested to the navy department that he be allowed to modify the designs for the stem and stern posts of armored cruiser No. 2, which provide for mammoth solid steel castings, in order to open up a field to other methods of construction and hasten work up on the vessel.

PLEADED GUILTY TO MURDER

A Girl Who Poisoned Two People Said That She Would Not Lie.

NO SHE CONFESSED IN COURT.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Mary Metzger, aged 17 years, who killed her brother James, and Louisa Broad-water, by putting poison in the breakfast coffee was arraigned in court today.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

While the clerk read the indictment the prisoner sat sobbing with her head resting in the palms of her hands.
When he finished reading the clerk asked if she was guilty or not guilty, and to the surprise of all she said "I am guilty."

For a time silence reigned, broken only by the sobs of the girl.

"Do you know," said Judge Stewart looking up somewhat amazed, "the enormity of the crime of which you are charged and do you realize the punishment attached."
"No," she replied, "I do not."
"Then you had better withdraw your plea of guilty and enter one of not guilty," but Mary would not withdraw it, saying that she would be telling a lie if she said otherwise. Her sobbing increased and all efforts to get her to withdraw the plea were fruitless.

Judge Stewart then held a consultation with Deputy States Attorney Campbell, and then said he would accept the plea and suspend sentence.

A Wise Girl.

Twenty years ago this winter

Adelina Patti, in the prime of her youth, beauty and genius, took St. Peter's burg captive, and received the coveted decoration of the Order of Merit from the emperor's own hand. She will soon return there to give twelve farewell appearances, for which she will receive $20,000, besides a special free railway train and all expenses for herself and her suite.

We now have the word "octopus."

If you are a monopolist or a capitalist then you are an "octopus." It is a word that has only existed a few days.
Its friends say that it is just as good a word as "bulldozer."

A REVOLUTION IMMINENT

Patriotic People in Cuba Ready to Rise Up in Arms.

FINANCIAL CRISIS AT HAND.

The Queen of the Antilles is Likely to Break Away From the Mother Country.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—"It will require but a spark dropped among the patriotic people of Cuba to kindle a fire of revolution which will wrest the Queen of the Antilles from the mother country," said a gentleman from Havana to-day.

Continuing the Cuban said: "The island is now in the throes of a commercial crisis, which may spread into a revolution, involving all classes before it is quieted."
"For the past eight years," he continued, "the financial mis-steps of Spain have disastrously affected the industries of the island, until ruin and starvation have threatened the inhabitants."

CONVICTS WITH PASSES.

Serious Allegations Against a Penitentiary Warden.
SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.
ST. PAUL, Oct. 21.—Local papers say that Cole Younger, the noted train robber, was permitted to go outside the prison walls at Stillwater on passes issued by Warden Randall, and that other convicts in prison for murder were allowed to go fishing outside the walls and visit women of bad repute.
Allday's support of some of these statements was furnished.

Old Fellows' Encampment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The thirtieth annual session of the Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Old Fellows of California, opened in Old Fellows hall, in this city, this morning, with Samuel B.
Smith, grand patriarch, in the chair.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The anarchists memorate with appropriate services the anniversary of the hanging of the Haymarket anarchists on November 11th.

Shad In Alaska.

A correspondent of the New York Star, writing of shad in the Columbia, says: "Already they have migrated north to the Alaskan rivers. Under date of September 5, Mr. Woodcock writes from Fort Wrangle this season that he has taken several specimens in his trap at the mouth of the Sitka river. The first shad transported overland in the United States fish commission's car from the East were liberated in the Sacramento river, California, in the month of August. They journeyed to Southwestern Alaska.
It is said that shad may be taken every month in the year in Sacramento bay, and that they greatly exceed Eastern specimens in size.
Nothing more than a plain shad of the value of the work of the United States fish commission than this successful introduction of a delicious fish into waters 3,000 miles distant from their original environment."

River Improvement at Vancouver.

Captain Cleveland Rockwell and his crew of men are in the city with headquarters at the Esmond hotel, and are now engaged in making a survey of the river at this point with a view to the removal of the sand bars which have of late obstructed the entrance to the magnificent harbor lying in front of our city. This work will be done by government appropriation as soon as the necessary survey has been made and plans of work prepared and approved. Although the tendency of the main channel is gradually changing by the side of the river, the great volume of water still keeps its course south of Shaw's island. The Register has it from good authority that if the Vancouver people would move in the matter, the government would consent to a removal of piling being put in near the ferry landing on the opposite side of the river. This would send the current past the city front and soon wash out the objectionable sand bars.
This is a subject of importance to the commerce of our city and deserves the attention of the chamber of commerce as well as the city council. The Union Pacific management have expressed themselves in favor of this mode of removing the bars, and now is the time to act.—Vancouver Register.

Sunday observance is steadily gaining ground in Paris. In the West end the great majority of the shops are closed, and the railway companies have lately agreed not to reckon Sunday in charging for the warehousing of goods. The postoffice, too, are to close in future at 6 p. m. instead of 8, and the two evening letter deliveries are to be abolished.

The quail has begun to respond to the toast of the season.

The Best Man in the World.

Well, if not positively the best, one of the wisest in his own system. In preserving or restoring his health, he has served profound consideration. His example is worthy to be imitated. The example which affords us are largely attributable to a want of tone in the stomach, either inherent or induced by over-eating upon that much abused repository of food that should nourish us. What is its requirement in adversity? A wholesome tone. None so good, if we rely on experience and testimony, as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Unmedicated stimulants won't do it. Regulation, as well as invigoration of the digestive viscera, is not to be effected by this. Through the agency of the stomachic named, strength of the entire system is refreshed—dyspepsia and biliousness overcome. Malaria, kidney, bladder and rheumatic complaints are eradicated by this salutary reformer of ill health.

THE HOUSE APOLOGIZES.

The Message of Ohio's Governor
Was Received.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21.—The house this morning adopted a resolution as the sense of the body that no slight or insult was intended on the part of the house in the refusal of the speaker to accept the governor's message yesterday evening and appointing a committee to call upon the governor and request that the message again be sent to the house.

Governor Campbell complied with the request.
The message recommends that the legislature pass a law providing for a non-partisan board of improvement for Cincinnati to be appointed by the mayor, and that an election be held in April.

her second marriage will close one of the most sensational society upheavals known in the history of this part of Texas. Pendleton has begun the practice of law in New York and has Auliffe's plans. Her death has greatly affected the champion and his friends
