LIVED A DOUBLE LIFE

A Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde in Brooklyn
DISCLOSED BY A MAN'S DEATH.
A Wealthy Citizen Passed for a Single Man and Made Love to a Handsome Widow.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
New York, Oct. 22.—Court proceedings in Brooklyn have made public the story of the double life of Frederick Schoenberger, who died last April. He was regarded as a good citizen, a model husband and a kind father. Now a woman comes into court and claims that he deceived her into marriage by claiming to be a widower, and asks the court to award her $11,000 in payment for broken promises, claimed to have been made by Schoenberger when she discovered his perfidy.
At his death his estate, valued at $100,000, was left to his wife Caroline and to his two sons, Mr. Schoenberger, who died on April 25, 1890, and on May 20th the will was admitted to probate by Surrogate Abbott. Shortly after this various rumors affecting the good name of Mr. Schoenberger were noised about and they assumed shape and form, when a pretty Brooklyn widow began an action in the Kings county supreme court against the executors of the estate for $11,000.
Then it was learned by a friend of the family that Mr. Schoenberger had been maintaining two establishments for several years and that for a long time the members of his family had been ignorant of the double life he was living.
Mr. Schoenberger met the handsome widow in 1888. She affirms that he represented himself to her as a widower and asked her to marry him. She believed him and married him and they lived happily for four years at various places in this city and Brooklyn. Shortly before his death she was, she says, horrified and amazed at learning that he had a wife and family.
Discovered a Cave.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
GALENA, Ill., Oct. 22.—A party of galena hunters discovered a remarkable cave yesterday afternoon near Pilot Knob, about four miles from this city. It was explored to a distance of half a mile or more and found to contain many vaulted openings, lined from top to bottom with stalactites.

SUED FOR BOYCOTTING.

A New Phase of the Printers Strike in Sacramento.
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—The trouble over the typographical difficulties in the Bee office took on a new phase today, when the proprietors of the Bee commenced suit against several hundred parties, members of the Federated Trades and Typographical Union, whom they charge with unlawfully conspiring to injure the business of the paper by trying to boycott merchandise which they advertise in it or to subscribe for it.
The proprietors say they have no fault to find with the strikers so long as they don't attempt to bull-doze and intimidate their patrons, and the latter they will not submit to.
Probably for the first time this question of the right to boycott will come up before the California courts and the outcome will be looked forward to with much interest.

A STRANGE DISCLOSURE.

The Murderer of Enoch Crosby Said to Be in Astoria.
TWO MEN ARE NOW IN PRISON.
It is Believed That They Are Incent—Steps For Their Release Will Be Taken.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
TACOMA, Oct. 22.—New developments in the Enoch Crosby murder case now tend to show that Joe Hildebrand, under arrest at Astoria, Or., is the real murderer of young Crosby. The general impression is that this will result in the release of Hoyt and Stowe, now serving sentences at Walla Walla for the crime.
The above dispatch came too late last night to see Chief of Police Barry, who, it is reported, has done some work on the case, but error has evidently been made in regard to the name of the suspected party, as there is no one in the county jail booked under the name of Hildebrand. About six weeks ago five men, namely: Doc, Bate and Fred Whitehead, were arrested for robbing the cabins of localers in the Nohlem valley and along the Young and Lewis and Clark rivers. At that time it was intimated that one of the quintette was suspected of knowing something about the murder of Enoch Crosby, but nothing developed in regard to the promised disclosures.
It is probable that new developments have come to light. Chief Barry returned yesterday from a trip to the county jail and thinks that he has developed in regard to the promised disclosures.
Chief of Police Barry of Astoria has been in Tacoma for the past two days looking into the circumstances surrounding the murder of young Enoch Crosby about a year ago. He asked if a transcript had ever been made from the newspaper's notes in the case of Hoyt and Whitehead in custody, and hinted that he thought they might be the murderers of Crosby. He was not inclined to talk freely about the matter. Chief of Police Dillon is of the opinion that Hoyt and Stowe are innocent men, unjustly convicted, and thinks they should be released to the penitentiary for the $2,500 reward offered for the conviction of somebody. Reed and Smalley, the attorney for the State, and the attorney for the defense, J. O. Hawthorne, G. Wingate and E. A. Weed were present from Astoria.
Officers were elected as follows: Hollon Parker, of Walla Walla, president; J. P. Shaw, of Oregon City, secretary; Z. T. Moody, of The Dalles, E. D. McKee, of Portland, J. Q. A. Bowley, of Astoria, George Williams, of Salem, and E. L. Canby, of Vancouver, vice-presidents.
Resolutions adopted and memorials prepared favoring a portage railroad between The Dalles and Celilo, the completion of the locks and canal at the Cascades; the improvement of the Willamette river; thanking the congressional members for past influence and urging a continued effort to complete the projected improvements.
Governor Penney was present. Next year the association will meet at Astoria.
Speaker Reed Speaks.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
GALVESTON, Ills., Oct. 22.—Speaker Reed made a short speech at the depot this morning to a large audience. He upheld strongly the policy of the republican party and was loudly cheered.
ADVICE TO NOTHIES.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

NO REASON GIVEN.

Nine Telegraph Operators in Chicago Discharged.
CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—There is much excitement among the Western Union telegraph operators. Since Saturday last nine men have been discharged, it is alleged, without being given any reason for their dismissal. All of them, it is said, are members of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers, and they believe that it is on this account that their services were no longer desired.
Charles S. Andrews, publisher of the Telegrapher, was one of those dismissed, and was informed, he says, when he demanded a reason for his discharge, that they had no reason to give.
This paper, in its last issue, published a notice of an open meeting to be held the Sunday following.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES

A Negro Murderess Surrenders to the Tacoma Police.
BIG FIRE IN SAN FRANCISCO.
Forty-Six Head of Horses Burned to Death Near Modesto—Sentenced for Murder.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.]
TACOMA, Oct. 22.—Mattie Scott, who murdered her lover, Willis Scott, on April 17, and who has since evaded the officers, returned to this city today from El Paso, Texas, and gave herself up to the authorities. She now claims that Scott attempted to shoot her, and in grappling with him the pistol was discharged. Her story is discredited.
DETERMINED TO DIE.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Mary Burns, the wife of a fisherman, living at First street and Grant avenue made seven desperate efforts to kill herself in the central police station yesterday afternoon in a beastly state of intoxication. She fought viciously all the way to the station and was placed in a cell, the top of which is supported by wooden cross bars.
She removed the waist of her dress, tied one sleeve about her neck and the other around one of the cross beams, and assuming a kneeling position, was strangling to death when discovered. She was cut loose and the waist was removed from the cell. Then she made six other separate attempts to end her life by hanging, using in succession for a rope strips of her white skirt, strips from her petticoat, her corset strings, and her stockings, and finally her very nether garments. She was completely nude when last discovered, the various articles of clothing used for ropes having been taken from her each respective time she attempted to hang herself.
It was finally found to be necessary to bind her hands and feet and strap her to the cell cot to prevent her killing herself. The court will examine into her sanity.
HAVE THE GUILTY PARTIES.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—Acting Chief of Police Gonnard and Chief of Detectives Malone say today that the work of the police in the Hennessy assassination case is about finished, and that the guilty parties are undoubtedly under arrest, and the evidence to substantiate the charges is in the possession of the officers. There may be a few more unimportant corroborative facts to be picked up, but the police are satisfied with the evidence they have.
A BLAZE IN 'FRISCO.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—About 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the candle factory of Morganthau & Co., and spread to the Pacific mattress factory adjoining and four cottages in one rear. All were destroyed. The total loss estimated at about $75,000; insurance unknown.
FORTY-SIX HORSES BURNED.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
MODESTO, Cal., Oct. 22.—Last night a fire started in a large barn fifteen miles east of here and burned forty-six head of horses belonging to the Irrigation and Canal Co., and 100 tons of hay. The loss and cause of the fire are unknown.
Opium-Smoking in the East.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—Simultaneously with the arrest and conviction of white female opium-smokers in New York yesterday, the trials opened yesterday of the cases of opium-joint keepers. Judge Haro informed the jury that the most interesting relics of the Duke of Saxony, which he had secured in the case of the prisoners, that the court was sorry to see the habit attain the same hold upon Americans that it has upon Orientals, and every man found smoking should be severely punished.
Ten Years for Murder.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—Oscar Leland passed through here today in custody of an officer, on the way to the penitentiary, to serve ten years for the murder of "Big" Eddy last February, near St. Helens.
