A SENATOR INJURED.

Blackburn, of Kentucky, Meets With an Accident.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 23.—As Senator J. C. S. Blackburn was returning home from a drive near Versailles last night, his horse ran away and upset the buggy. The senator was thrown violently to the ground and lay motionless for some time. He was picked up and carried to his home, where physicians found that his collar-bone was broken and his shoulder badly bruised, and that he was otherwise severely injured.
The doctors do not expect any serious results from the accident, but the senator will be confined to his bed for several weeks. All his appointments to speak have been cancelled.

RACE RIOT IN GEORGIA

Several White Men Shot Down By a Mob of Negroes.
A LAND DISPUTE THE CAUSE
The Governor Orders the State Militia to Go to the Scene of the Disturbance.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—Only meagre reports can be obtained concerning the reported race riot in Coffee county as the trouble occurred some distance from the nearest point of telegraphic communication.
It appears that in the riot a white man was shot down and R. E. McLendon, Frank and Thomas Seers, and John Hendrix wounded. None of the latter are dead according to latest reports.
The governor received a request to order out the militia on the ground that the white people are at the mercy of an armed mob of negroes. He accordingly ordered the Way Cross Rifles to proceed at once to the scene of the conflict.
It is reported that the negroes are being led in the riot by L. P. Varn, a white man, engaged in the turpentine business near Stokes Turpentine mills. Stokes, Varn and the Misses had a dispute about a tract of land. Varn put his men to work on the timber land and Seers shot one of the negroes and drove the others from the wood. They returned in the afternoon and fired into the crowd of Seers' hands to have revenge on Seers.

WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.

Two Millionaire Families United in Chicago.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Two millionaire families were united to-day, when Miss A. Huck became the bride of Marshal Field, Jr., one of Chicago's wealthiest merchants.
The ceremony was performed at high noon at the Field mansion on Prairie avenue.
The bride being a member of the Catholic church, Rev. Archbishop Fagan, officiated and the entire choir of the Catholic cathedral rendered the Lohengrin wedding chorus and other selections. The church organist of the Catholic cathedral, J. Bressler, presided at the massive organ. The few present consisted of relatives and a few of the most intimate friends.
Florence Field, a little sister of the groom, and Master Eddy Beam, a youthful son of Norman E. Beam, attended the bride and scattered their path with roses. Miss E. Field was bridesmaid and Miss M. Huck, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

SMALLPOX IN MADRID.

The Epidemic is Assuming Alarming Proportions.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—The small-pox epidemic which is prevailing in Madrid has assumed grave proportions. The number of persons afflicted are counted by thousands and the authorities are resorting to every possible measure to check the spread of the disease. As a means to this end the government has ordered that all servants and soldiers be vaccinated and has prescribed severe punishment for those who shall seek to evade the operation.

DEAD ON HIS OFFICE FLOOR

Suicide of a Prominent Banker in New York City.
HIS LETTER OF FAREWELL.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—J. B. Creighton, of the firm of J. B. Creighton & Co., bankers and brokers at No. 72 Broadway, was found dead in his office early this morning. The exact cause of his death is not yet known, though it is believed that he committed suicide by taking some kind of poison.
The following open letter was found lying on the floor beside him:
To Whom it May Concern:
I have been through a good, square business fight, and have lost the battle, and now, when my poor brain is aching with pain, and so badly that it is hard for me to hold my head above water, I give way to the world of God, and a life that in the future, no doubt, would be useless. I bid good-bye to all my kind friends, and wish them a sincere and true success. J. B. Creighton.
N. B.—Be careful and notify my wife kindly.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Two New Candidates for the Supreme Court Vacancy.
SOME TARIFF BILL DEFECTS.
A Very Sensational Report Concerning Ex-President Cleveland—Minor Mention.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Two candidates for the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench have appeared in the Northwest. They are Senators W. F. Sanders of Montana and ex-Representative W. H. Calkins of Washington. Mr. Calkins is now a candidate for Mr. Squires' place in the United States senate.
The names of Attorney-General Miller and Secretary Noble are still much mentioned in connection with the vacancy.

TARIFF BILL DEFECTS.

They are Discussed Officially in Washington.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Alleged defects in the new tariff bill formed an interesting topic of discussion in official circles to-day, and while defects were not thought to invalidate the bill as a whole, the amendment was almost unanimous that section 30, of the tobacco paragraph, which was omitted in its entirety, could not be enforced, and where it by construction referred to other paragraphs it might impair their strength as to a law signed by the president not being a law passed by congress.
Secretary Halford said the bill signed by President Harrison was the same bill signed by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate. Those officers by their signatures certified that the bill had passed their respective branches of congress and their attestation of that fact was the usual mode of procedure and the only official notification the president ever received that a bill had passed. Whether the law was constitutional or not was a matter for the courts to decide.
HE NEVER WAS BETTER.
Sensational Rumor That Cleveland Had Dropped Dead.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Rumor was prevalent to-day to the effect that Grover Cleveland had dropped dead in this city this morning. Inquiry proved it unfounded.
Mr. Cleveland arrived here on the morning train from New York and proceeded to the Arlington hotel, where he is occupying Senator Hisscock's suit of rooms.
Mr. Cleveland, on having his attention called to the alarming rumor, said: "You tell my friends that I have never felt better in my life than I do at this time."
To-morrow Mr. Cleveland will appear before the Supreme court of the United States and argue the case of Wallace vs. the City of New Orleans.

Blaine on the Stamp.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Blaine will leave to-morrow for Canton, O., where he will speak Saturday. From that point he will go to Chicago.

An Oregon Postmistress.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The president has appointed Mary A. McKenzie postmistress at Albina, Or.

Closed Down Business.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Announcement was made to-day of the withdrawal from business of the house of Herman Bernheimer, Son & Co., of 75 Leonard street, who have for many years been large importers of woolsens and worsteds, used in cheap and medium grades of clothing.
Jerome Bernheimer said to-day that the firm was compelled to close out business because of prohibitory tariff raised in the new law against the goods in the firm imports.

The Oldest Switchwoman.

For forty long years Mrs. Mary Carroll has been the switchwoman at the Central railroad junction in this city, where several different railroad tracks meet. During this time she has always been faithful and efficient. She has never been the cause of an accident. Her tracks have always been right. Her duties have been responsible, but the road has never incurred a dollar of breakage, a moment of delay or the injury of a person on her account. She is, perhaps, the oldest and only switchwoman in the United States. There are hundreds of people who will recall seeing her in her little switch-house at the junction, one mile from the town. After so excellent a record and so many years of capital service, in sunshine and rain, in cold and heat, the Central road has placed her in a less irksome position. She has been made gatekeeper at the shop of the road in this city.—Macon Telegraph.

The Best Man in the World.

Well, if not positively the best, one of the best is he who checks disease at the start in his system. In preserving or restoring the heaven-granted gift of health, he deserves profound consideration. His exertions to prevent disease are largely attributable to a want of tone in the stomach, either inherent or induced by ourselves upon that much abused repository of the food that should nourish us. What is its requirement in adversity? A wholesome tonic. None so good, if we rely on experience and testimony, as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Unmedicated stimulants won't do. Regulation, as well as invigoration of the digestive viscera, is not to be effected by these. Through the agency of the stomachic name strength of the entire system is renewed—dyspepsia and biliousness overcome—Malarial, kidney, bladder and rheumatic complaints eradicated by this salutary reformer of ill health.

Eucuepy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain the sense of the word. She has spent the latter part of the summer in the far West, visiting military posts and Indian schools, and interviewing old soldiers in regard to the early days.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

NICE BUT LIGHT FINGERED.

A Young Girl in 'Frisco With a Sneaking Propensity.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Sarah Dickson, 16 years old and pretty as a picture, was surrendered to the police late to-night by her father who charges her with being a confirmed kleptomaniac. The girl has been employed as a domestic in the family of Surgeon Dickinson at Mare Island, and although small things have disappeared from time to time, Sarah was never suspected until Tuesday night, when she disappeared with one of her mistress' dresses.
She returned next day and was accused of the theft and finally admitted it. Surgeon Dickinson accompanied her home, recovered the dress and found out that she was a confirmed kleptomaniac.
Not knowing what to do and her father being a victim as well as others, he decided to surrender her to the police. She was charged with petty larceny.

A SEALSKIN SUIT.

One Company Accused of Capturing the Other's Property.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The Alaska Commercial Company has sued the North American Commercial Company for $100,000, the value of 4,158 seal skins.
The plaintiff alleges that on the 20th inst. it was lawfully possessed of the seal skins as its own property. They were discharged from the United States revenue cutter Richard Rush at the wharf, and on the same day fell into possession of the North American company, although the defendant well knew that the seal skins were the property of the plaintiff, and officers of the corporation refused to deliver them.

SUITS OF A CHICAGO WOMAN

Serious Accusation Against a Prominent Millionaire.
WHAT THE RICH MAN HAS TO SAY.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A Herald's Chicago special says: Miss Mattie S. Jackson, of 445 Otto street, Gross Park, commenced suit Friday against Edward F. Pulsifer, the millionaire and vice-president of the Union Trust Company, claiming damages of $10,000.
Miss Jackson charges him with being the father of her 2-year old baby. Attorney Frank Seales, Pulsifer's lawyer, says the woman began a similar suit against the banker a year ago, and that he holds a receipt in full for all claims.
C. A. Blaine says the woman lived in a house belonging to his father for three years and was evicted in 1887, owing $350 rent.

THE NEW ORLEANS MURDER.

What "Italo-American" Says in Reference to It.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23.—The Italo-American, the weekly paper, issued this afternoon, publishes an appeal "To Our Courageous Hosts." It denounces with strong language the assassination of Chief Hennessy, and demands that swift justice be meted out to the guilty ones. It condemns, however, the arrest of their countrymen by the wholesale and keeping them in charge merely on suspicion.
It approves the language of Mayor Shakespeare in favor of the Italians and his promise to stamp out the last vestige of revengeful people, who, he says, should not be tolerated on American soil.

French Retaliation.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
PARIS, Oct. 24.—A dispatch says the announcement of the proposed French tariff, discriminating against products of the United States, such as cereals and woolens, has excited the anger of the wine growers, who fear the loss of American markets, but is favorably received by agriculturists generally.

A Baby in an Incubator.

A wee bit of a 7 months baby, weighing between 3 and 4 pounds, is at the Cincinnati hospital being raised in an incubator.
The wee thing has no finger-nails, its eye-lids are open, and every hour a drop of two of digested milk is dropped into its tiny mouth.
Chicken have had wooden rugs for mothers, ducks have been hatched by hens, and alligators eggs warmed to life in the sand, but incubating babyhood into successful existence has at least the merit of novelty.
The incubator looks like an unpointed ice-chest. It is 30 inches high, 20 wide and contains two compartments, an upper and lower.
The inside of the chest is lined with asbestos to prevent the effect of radiating heat as well as to make it airtight. In the lower compartment is a galvanized iron tank filled with water. The tank does not fit tightly into the chest, but leaves an inch space for the air to circulate. Holes in the bottom allow the escape of foul air, while on a shelf resting on slats that divide the two compartments, lay a basket containing the baby. The skin of the tiny thing is covered with a mucous sebaceous matter. The bones of the head do not set closely together and the process of ossification is going slowly on.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the new discovery has been found. When once given trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial Bibles Free at J. W. Conn's Drugstore.

A BRUTAL PRIZE FIGHT

Johnny Murphy Severely Punished By George Dixon.
HE WAS GAME TO THE FINISH
Forty Rounds Were Fought and the Defeated Man Then Wanted to Fight More.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
PROVIDENCE, Oct. 23.—A glove fight between George Dixon, of Boston, and Johnny Murphy, of Haverhill, took place in the rooms of the Gladstone club in this city to-night. It was won by Dixon, Murphy's seconds throwing up the sponge in the fortieth round. It was seen at the start that Murphy was overmatched, but it took Dixon two hours and forty-five minutes to whip him.
The fight was for $1,000 a side and a $1,000 trophy. There was an immense crowd in attendance, sporting men coming from all sections of the country. The men weighed in at Boston yesterday. Dixon had trained down to 113 1/2 pounds and Murphy weighed the same weight. Murphy's timing was perfect. Dixon's corner when he stripped in the ring and faced the crowd it was seen that he was too fat and in build and reach was no match for his dusky opponent, who looked like a sleek well groomed horse, fit to win a canter.
Murphy's staying powers were simply marvelous, and it was astonishing how he managed to come up, round after round, in the face of the terrible punishment he received. It was thought by the way the fight started in that Dixon would win in short order, and up to the sixteenth round it looked as though each succeeding round would finish Murphy, but he revived considerably after the seventh round and took his punishment gamely.
He was badly used up at the finish, and though barely able to crawl over the ropes, protested against his second throwing up the sponge. In fact, he went over to Dixon's corner after the referee had given his decision and offered to continue the fight.
His face was streaming with blood and his mouth was open gasping for breath. Dixon seemed scarcely fatigued and was uninjured, save for a bruise over the left eye and a slight swelling across the nose.

POWDER EXPLOSION.

It Creates a Panic Among the Factory Employes.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 23.—One of the fulminate departments of the Union Metallic Cartridge Company's works was blown up with terrific force at 9 A. M. to-day, causing great consternation among 600 employes in the factory.
The explosion scattered a large quantity of glass in every direction on the opposite side of the street. The large force of operatives, mostly girls, became panic stricken and fled from the spot.
The remains were brought to this city by the train. The horses escaped uninjured.

AN ENGINEER KILLED ON THE UNION PACIFIC.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
PORTLAND, Oct. 23.—At 5:30 o'clock this morning a freight train from Portland and a train from Spokane Falls loaded with blooded horses collided at a point fourteen miles from Portland, near Fairhaven, on the Union Pacific line. An engineer named John L. O'Brien was instantly killed. He was 35 years of age, single and lived at Albina. His neck was broken.
The remains were brought to this city by the train. The horses escaped uninjured.

THE STORMY ATLANTIC.

A Heavy Gale and High Surf on the Jersey Coast.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
ASBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 23.—A terrific storm has been raging along the New Jersey coast all day and much damage has been done by a high surf. Several vessels are reported ashore at Spring Lake, but as the wires are down no information is obtainable before morning.
Several small boats were capsized off Long Beach but the occupants were rescued.

Keep Your Blood Pure.
