Nothing is more evident from his tory than the fact that weaker bodies of men driven out by stronger do not necessarily relapse into barbarism, but frequently rise, even under the most unfavorable circumstances, to a most unravorable circumstances, to a civilization equal or superior to that from which they have been banished. Out of many examples showing this law of upward development, a few may be taken as typical. The Slavs, who sank so low under the pressure of stronger races that they apparently gave the modern world a new word to express the most hopeless servitude, express the most hopeiess servitude, have developed powerful civilizations peculiar to themselves; the barbarian tribes who, ages ago, took refuge amid the sandbanks and morasses of Holland, have developed one of the world's leading centers of civilization; the wretched peasants who about the Fifth century took refuge from invading hordes among the lagoons and mud banks of Venetia, developed a power in art, arms and politics which is among the wonders of human history; the Puritage driver from the tory; the Puritans, driven from the civilization of Great Britain to the unfavorable climate, soil and circum-stances of early New England; the Huguenots, driven from France, a country admirably fitted for the highcountry admirably fitted for the high-est growth of civilization, to various countries far less fitted for such growth; the Irish peasantry, driven in vast numbers from their own island to other parts of the world, on the whole less fitted to them—all are proofs that, as a rule, bodies of men once enlightened, when driven to un-favorable climates and brought under the most depressing circumstances, not only retain what enlightenment they have, but go on increasing it. -Popular Science Monthly.

A SET OF THE

In Twelve Large Volumes. Which we Offer with a Year's Subscripting to this Paper for a Trifle More than

Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to consubscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dirks chers a Set of the Works of Charles Dick-ene, in Twelve Large and Handsone Volumes, with a year's subscription to the paper, for a triffe more than our regular sub-scription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. (herba-Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works, are even nore popular to-day than wing his lifetime. They abound in wit, burner, pathon, masterly delineation of charmer. his lifetime. They abound in wit, bumes, pathos, masterly delineation, of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home at omit be without a set of these great and romathable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published compute, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD. MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT, NICHOLAS NICKELBY, DOMBEY AND SON, BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES, OLIVER TWIST AND CREAT EXPEC-TATIONS, THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THEUNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

PICKWICK PAPERS, The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book traite, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

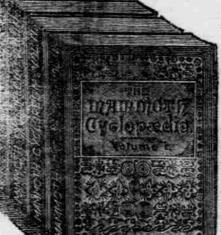

Our Great Offer to Subscribers to the "Weekly Astorian."

We will send the ENTIRE SET OF DICKENS' WORKS, in TWELVE VOLUMES, as above described, all postage prepaid by ourselves, also THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN for ONE YEAR, more receipt of $2.75, which is only 75 Cents more than the regular subscription price of thispaper. Our readers, therefore, practically get a set of Dickens' works in twelve volumes for only 75 Cents. This is the grandest premium ever offered. Up to this time a set of Dickens' works has usually been $10,000 or more. Tell all your riceasels that they can get a set of Dickens' works, in twelve volumes, with a year's subscription to THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN, for only $2.75. Subscribe now and get this great premium. If your subscription has not yet expired, it will make no difference for it will be extended one year from the date of expiration. We will also give a set of Dickens as above, free and post-paid, to any one sending us a club of three yearly subscribers. Address:

THE CRY OF MILLIONS! Warranted "APHRODITIKE" OH, MY BACK! STOP IT NOW, Thave been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 18th of April I was suffering from a very visiont attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over the palone, or to put on my dothes, whe kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hatel. I immeliately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been. SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
