As fast as they were pulled apart, they would break away and rush at each other. The presence of the captain and his pleasant but firm commands at last restored order and the crew were sent to their work. The Grant brothers who had been on shore and the command are the command of the evin and seen the commencement of the fight before it was known in the cabin, soon arrived, and as the crew had been shipped by them their counsel to the men had a good effect, and quiet reigned, broken at frequent intervals by the first mate who kept coming out of his room with the coming out of his room, with the avowed intention of being revenged upon the men who had so fearfully beaten and bruised him. He was hurt the most of any one, having two severe cuts on his head, caused by blows from an iron belaying pin, an-other wound on the back of the head, and several cuts on his face and fore-

The gun factory commission arrived in Portland Sunday afternoon. Yesterday the members visited the military post at Vancouver, to-day they will go to Oswego, escorted by members of the Portland chamber of commerce, and this evening will meet with the latter body. After that they will take the steamer for this city, and arrive here to-morrow morning. Wednesday night they intend to return to Portland, and the next day leave there for San Francisco.

Captain Sterling is one of the few men who never use liquor at all, and his behaviour yesterday was remarkably even the self-possessed, showing his thorough fitness for the position he occupies. He has been on the water for two weeks and that have for the past two weeks played to a phenominal business throughout the larger interior coast towns. Everywhere in a disturbance.

As stated in the heading of this article, whisky was the cause of the row, for had the men been sober there in the indications point to a crowded house on Friday night. The company is the same one without an exception, it is the same one in the respective towns for the past eighteen months. In Los Angeles the m was so intense that although five performances were given another week could have been spent there very profitably for every night hundreds were turned away. "U. S. Mail" pretends to be only amusing. That it succeeds everyone who has seen it admits. The company is exceptionally strong. It includes Georgie Parker, the original venue in "A Rag Baby," and latterly with Hallen & Hart's "Later On;" Frank David, an excellent comedian with operatic ex-perience, who essays the part of Hi Hand, a humorous tramp printer; Samuel Reed, a down East dialectician, who makes up as Postmaster-General Wanamaker; C. B. Harkins, last season with "Shenandoah"; William Jerome, the song writer; Marie Bockell, the prima donna; Maggie Fielding, of the old-time variety team of John and Maggie Fielding, and a number of minor characters including little Harry O'Lynn, a precocious young-ster, who, to use a technical expres-sion, "sets 'em crazy" with a clever song entitled "I'm Not Baby McKee." Georgie Parker does a Spanish dance that is said to be fully as poetical as Carmencita's with the objectionable features of Carmencita's dance ex-cluded. Clever songs and dances

The particulars of the case, which grew out of three men being placed on board the British bark Noddleburn without having signed articles, are familiar to readers of THE ASTORIAN. When the facts came to light last Saturday evening Sheriff Smith, who is also a deputy United States marshal, took the matter in hand and after interviewing the men and Captain Hall of the vessel, wired the A man's feelings toward a piace largely depend upon the manner of his treatment while there; his disposition to do business with its people is greatly influenced by the spirit evinced, and his remarks regarding it are flavored to help or hinder (so far as his influence extends), by the remembrance of his visit.

The need of the club being generally recognized, the matter of ways and means needs attention. There would be little difficulty in securing a suitable location, the club would be the social and business headquarters for the business men of the city, and should, therefore, be central.

Let the initiatory fee be $50; the membership placed at 100; that is at the start; this would give a fund of $5,000, for furnishing the rooms, etc. Experiences of other places would suggest the discarding of such features as were by them found embarrassing or disastrous. It would not

The great quantity of eathartic pills, etc., which are taken by the people of this country are productive of immensely more mischief than is generally suspected. True, the physic unloads the bowels, but its action tends to diminish the tone of the intestines; as that, instead of removing costiveness, it aggravates it, leaving the bowels in a more torpid condition.

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla was designed to fill just such a contingency as the doctor's arraignment anticipates, viz.; instead of being a powerful mineral purgative, it is a mild vegetable laxative, that, owing to its solvent and gentle stimulating properties, is so certain a relief in constipation that it has been given away to hundreds, not to be paid for unless it was of positive benefit. It replaces constipation almost immediately with a natural easy habit, and is so mild that, unlike drastic purgatives, it can be taken indefinitely with perfect safety.
