PROPHET KICKING HORSE

The Sioux Chief Responsible For All the Trouble.

HE MADE A VISIT TO HEAVEN.

There Are no Fears of an Uprising—But There is Great Trouble at the Agency.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 28.—"Kicking Horse," the great Sioux prophet, seems to be responsible for most of the trouble at the Standing Rock agency. He claims to have visited heaven and returned to earth to tell the Indians what good things are in store for them.

Major McLaughlin ordered him off the reservation and confined several other troublesome spirits in the guard house as the Indians have been making day and night hideouts.

"Kicking Horse" is cunning enough with prophetic utterances. He tells them they must not kill the whites, as the great spirit would take care of them. He declares the time will soon come when the Indians will occupy the earth to the exclusion of the whites.

If it were spring instead of the fall there would be danger of an uprising, but it is not believed one will now occur. "Sitting Bull" is doing all he can to foment the disturbance.

An Aged Counterfeiter.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Portland, Oct. 28.—Myron P. White, an old man who was arrested in East Portland for passing counterfeit money, was subjected to an examination in the United States commissioner's court this morning, which resulted in the prisoner being held to await the action of the federal grand jury and in default of bonds fixed at $2,500 he was committed to the county jail.

The New Orleans Murder.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

New Orleans, Oct. 28.—The preliminary examination in the Hennessey assassination case was postponed indefinitely on motion of the district attorney, that the prisoners be remanded without bail. Two guns were found by the street gangs this morning in the vicinity of the killing. They, no doubt, were used by the assassins.

Another Hunting Fatality.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Hennepin, Cal., Oct. 28.—A young man named Miles, while deer hunting with a companion, accidentally killed himself with a rifle about ten miles down the coast from here. While climbing over the rocks the hammer of the gun is supposed to have caught and the rifle was discharged.

Knocked a Hole in His Skull.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—A sixty-pound dog fell down an elevator shaft to-day knocking a hole in the skull of Robert Starr, a tobacco man, who is dangerously if not fatally injured.

A Brewery Burned.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Cincinnati, Oct. 28.—A fire in George Weidemann's brewery at Newport, Ky., last night destroyed a warehouse containing 100,000 bushels of barley and malt. Loss, $100,000; insured.

KILLED OVER POLITICS.

A Fatal Quarrel in a San Francisco Saloon.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Lawrence Rosch, a republican saloonkeeper and a political agitator, was instantly killed to-night by John J. Allen, a democrat. Rosch and seven persons registered from one room in the rear of his saloon and had been cited to appear before the election commission. Allen was the principal witness against them. He showed that there was only one bed for eight persons to occupy.

This created hard feelings and about 9 o'clock Rosch attacked Allen, who is crippled, with a knife. Allen tried to run away after being cut twice in the head, but when he found his pursuer gaining on him he turned and shot him.

AN OLD SOLDIER GONE.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 28.—General Roberts died in Brooklyn late last night. He was 72 years old and enlisted as a private in the U. S. army more than half a century ago. He served in the Indian and Mexican wars and in the 18th regiment, New York Volunteers. He was a warm personal friend of Lincoln, Grant and McClellan. General Roberts was appointed postmaster of Brooklyn by President Lincoln and served in that position for two years.

Toughs in Tacoma.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Tacoma, Oct. 28.—This city is crowded with a very tough element, and not a night passes without a burglary or an attempted one. The police are arresting suspicious characters and ordering many to leave the city.

THE STRIKING TELEGRAPHERS

San Francisco Not Affected by the St. Paul Walkout.

THE STRIKERS NEW HANDS.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Inquiry among telegraphers employed in the Western Union office in this city, and at the office of Superintendent Jaynes discloses no signs of a strike or other trouble resulting from the walkout of brotherhood men at St. Paul.

The superintendent received private dispatches from St. Paul this morning stating that the strike is not contented with the older and more experienced hands and is therefore giving the office but little trouble. Business has been resumed at the Western Union office in St. Paul, and a full force is at work.

THE GOVERNMENT SEED.

A Caisson Gate Causes a Law-Suit in Erie.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Some time ago George S. Shields, of this city, invented a gate for the use of floating caissons and received a patent on the same. At the time of putting in place the caisson at the entrance to the stone dock at Mare Island the gate invented by Shields was utilized for which no compensation was offered by the government. Suit has been instituted by Shields and damages asked for the government's infringement of his patent.

EXCLUSIVE MR. CLEVELAND.

He Has Not Yet Called on President Harrison.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The republicans here are criticizing Ex-President Cleveland and because he has not paid a visit to the White House. He came to Washington on Tuesday last to argue a case before the supreme court and has spent most of his time since his arrival in the rooms usually occupied by Senator Hiscock at the Arlington hotel. It has been customary for ex-presidents visiting Washington to call upon their successors promptly for the purpose of paying their respects, but so far as Cleveland is concerned, he has not even exchanged salutations.

A BOGUS INTERVIEW.

The President Said Nothing as Regards a Re-Election.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A special to the Post from Indianapolis says: John B. Elam, a former law partner of the president, has just returned from a trip to the White House. During the trip he had an alleged interview with him which was published, in which he was reported as saying that the president would not be a candidate for re-election and giving other information concerning the president's political plans.

To-day Mr. Elam was asked as to the authority for the alleged interview. He said: "It so happened that I have not spoken to President Harrison on any subject for about a year and have never at any time heard him say one word as to his wishes or purposes with respect to the election of 1892, nor do I, from any source, know anything as to what he desires or intends."

The New Lottery Law.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Attorney General Miller has sent a circular letter to all the United States district attorneys calling attention to the new lottery law with a suggestion that they spare no effort in its enforcement. Similar instructions have been sent to the United States marshals.

The Way Made Clear.

One of the most serious obstacles to success in the way of man is planted right in the middle of the road to health. How to restore and to maintain a regular habit of body and digestion is too often a source of needless and unhelpful, vain inquiry. It is not necessary to invent against drastic purgatives. They have used them continuously know the consequence. A remedy which unites the action of a regulating medicine for the bowels with that of a tonic for the stomach, liver and the stomach, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, stomachic, by the best medical authority, and receiving the endorsement of our fellow countrymen. With this effectual, though gentle, laxative at hand, it is possible to defy those changes of temperature, productive of constipation, as well as constitutional attacks of biliousness, when best set over popularly healthy. Malaria, dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney troubles are remedied and prevented by the Bitters.

GOSSIP IN WASHINGTON

Ex-Secretary Whitney Has Large Senatorial Aspirations.

CLEVELAND SNUBS HARRISON.

The Ex-President Does Not Follow Customs—Rumors Political and Otherwise—Notes.

Special by THE UNITED PRESS.

Washington, Oct. 28.—It is no longer a secret that Ex-Secretary Whitney is looking for a seat in the United States senate and that he aspires to succeed the venerable Mr. Everts, whose term will expire on the third of next March.

Mr. Whitney has his eye on the presidency as his ultimate destiny, but he is not yet ready to move and will allow Cleveland and Hill to fight it out next time and use the senatorship as a stepping stone.

A gentleman who is in the confidence of Mr. Whitney arrived here from New York to-day and said that Colonel Lamont is managing the Whitney campaign with the greatest ability, and that as sure as the democrats get a majority in the legislature this winter, he will be elected.

Colonel Lamont, as everybody knows, is a skillful politician and has a very thorough acquaintance with New York democrats, particularly those in the country districts. Mr. Whitney has furnished him with all the money he needs to carry on the campaign, and the democratic members of the next legislature will find themselves almost unanimously under obligations to the ex-secretary of the navy.

SOME POLITICAL RUMORS.

A Supporter of Harrison to Be Rewarded at Last.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Ex-Congressman Baker, of Indiana, dropped into Washington and was away again unawares to the public here.

Baker served three successive congressional terms, being succeeded by William H. Calkins, who is now a prominent senatorial aspirant in the state of Washington. Baker was also a delegate to the convention that nominated Harrison for the presidency, and is the only Indiana republican who supported Harrison at Chicago who has not been substantially rewarded.

It is rumored here this morning that Baker came to Washington to discuss with the democratic members of the next legislature, and an Indian, high in official life, says that the president has it in mind to appoint Gresham to the supreme bench vacancy, put Judge Woods, of the district court, in Gresham's present position as United States circuit judge, and elevate Baker to Woods' place immediately.

Before his departure Mr. Woods' manner indicated that his visit had been thoroughly satisfactory.

EXCLUSIVE MR. CLEVELAND.

FIGHTING IN THE PAPERS.

Corbett and Campbell Bluffing at Each Other.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Jim Corbett has prepared another letter for Dave Campbell of Portland, Or., in which he offers the latter to fight for the entire gate receipts if he will meet him at any time in any place.

Portland, Oct. 28.—In reply to Jim Corbett's challenge to Dave Campbell to fight for the entire gate receipts, Campbell has issued the following above his signature: "Seeing that Jim Corbett, the would-be champion, is anxious to gain back the laurels he lost to me last winter, I will meet him in any club that will put up a purse for a finish fight if Corbett will come to my weight, 165 pounds. I hope this will satisfy this status fighter."
