

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1890.

THE ELECTIONS YESTERDAY.

ELECTION returns so far received indicate that yesterday was a democratic day. The Bourbon organs throughout the country will now have an opportunity to get in and howl louder than ever against the famed McKinley tariff bill. The bill is not to blame, however. This is one of those off-years that the democracy occasionally meet with in their up-hill march to supremacy and power, and gain a brief period of control, and then they retrograde. November, 1892, will probably see the republicans roll up one of the largest majorities in the history of the party, so every thing is all right and, if the complete returns received last night carry out as indicated, a democratic victory, no great harm will be done, for as stated, it is an off year.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The steamer H. P. Ellmore will leave for Tillamook this morning. The steam schooner Alliance arrived in from Gray's Harbor and Sheswater bay yesterday. The steam schooner Augusta came down from Tillamook last evening and will sail for Portland to-day. The steamer Casades, Captain Whitcomb, arrived down this morning at 2 o'clock, with three barges of rock for the jetty. The schooner Oriol arrived from San Francisco yesterday and was taken to Knappa by the tug Astoria. She will load lumber for San Francisco. The American bark Coloma, with passengers and freight for Yokohama and Hong Kong, crossed out yesterday and started on her voyage across the ocean. The vessel had been anchored at the mouth of the river for several days.

DR. PRENTICE.

Eye, Head and Nervous Diseases, At Occident Hotel, Astoria, On Future Date, For a Few Days Only.

FREE.

Dr. Prentice Will Cure the First Case Of Cross-Eyes and Epileptic Fits Free On the Day of His Arrival in Astoria.

A man well known in this community writes the following interesting letter: "I was chopping a stump four weeks ago, when a flying chip struck me in the eye; for a short time I was entirely blind. Then partial sight returned again. I nurtured hope and continued to treat it at home, until ten days ago, when I began to abandon hope of ever seeing perfectly again, unless something more than ordinary was done. I then consulted two of the leading Oculists of Portland, who told me one eye would have to be cut out to save the other. It did not exactly suit me to have my eye cut out, and so I sought other counsel. I went to Dr. Prentice, the Oculist, then at Portland, and he laughed at the idea of its being necessary to cut my eye out; I joined in the laugh, for it was on my side. I have been free from pain since the first day's visit to Dr. Prentice, and improved steadily, and am now entirely well again. I feel safe in saying that if Dr. Prentice cannot cure a case he will always say so. THOS. H. FOSS, Gray's River, Wash.

A Touching Scene Witnessed By a Portland Gentleman.

One week ago we received an invitation to witness a delicate surgical operation on an eye. The patient was the 17-year-old daughter of Harrison Hay. For three years she had been blind in both eyes with a cataract, and was obliged to grope her way about in total darkness. The patient, without taking chloroform, submitted to the following operation: She was now ready for the surgical part of the work, and we stood in breathless anxiety as Dr. Prentice placed the point of his knife at the side of the eyeball, carefully touched the point of the corner, then the blade entered the eye; we saw it pass through the eye in front of the pupil and then come out at the opposite side. It was then drawn upward, and a cut made of about one-third of the circumference of the ball. Another instrument was then passed in back of the pupil, and almost on the instant the girl said: "Oh, Dr. Prentice I can see you." This was spoken in tones well calculated to bring tears to one's eyes. From the time the knife touched the eye until the patient could see, it was just one minute. She was allowed to see those about her for a moment, then the eye was closed and bandaged. In just one week after the operation she came into our office and was able to read our paper. She also wrote a letter home, saying: "Dear parents, I can see and am happy." Mr. Jerome W. Campbell, General Superintendent of the Willamette Bridge Railway Co., saw this operation.

A LETTER.

From a Patient Who Was Cured By Dr. Prentice. PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 7, 1890. To the Suffering: For five years I have suffered with sleeplessness, nervous debility, irritation at the base of the brain, and a terrible kind of disease. I had tried so many remedies that I did me no good that at last I gave up all hope of ever being a well man again. I tried many prescriptions that were said to be sure cures, and all failed. There were many times during the past few years that I was obliged to lay off from work from two weeks to three months at a time. Lately I was running down in health very rapidly, and was alarmed. I consulted a doctor and he said to get relief elsewhere. I crowded in with the others and waited my turn. He examined me, told me where my trouble was, and said he could cure it without medicine. I can't say that I trusted him, but something in his manner led me to trust him. He gave me no medicine at all, yet from the day of my first visit I began to improve rapidly. I now sleep as sound as a child. My memory is greatly improved. My kidney disease and brain irritation are entirely well, my appetite splendid, and I now enjoy life and perfect health. Any afflicted person wishing to learn about my case will find me at address below. D. DOONAN, North Pacific Hotel, Portland. Eyes fitted with glasses by Dr. Prentice.

Epileptic fit, Paralysis, Drunkenness (periodical), Heart disease, Kidney disease, Asthma, Sick headache, Spinal irritation, and nervous debility in men and women. A permanent cure is made.
