THROUGH A TRESTLE.
Fearful Railroad Accident on the Southern Pacific.
FIVE PERSONS MEET DEATH.
Forty or Fifty Passengers Injured, Many Fatally—Details of The Wreck.

QUICKLY SETTLED.
Debts of the Willamette Valley Road to be Paid.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
PORTLAND, Nov. 12.—The Pacific Improvement Company of San Francisco instituted suit in the United States circuit court late yesterday against the Portland and Willamette Valley Railroad Company, for the collection of several notes, for sums of money varying from $3,000 to $4,000 and aggregates with interest the sum of $283,822. In addition the plaintiffs asked that the sum of $2,850 be awarded them by the court in accordance with the provisions of the several notes.
This morning R. Kohler, manager of the Southern Pacific system, which recently purchased the road, appeared in court and confessed to the complaint, whereupon judgment was entered and the plaintiffs were allowed the sum of $296,672 attorney fees.
For such a large amount of money involved this is unquestionably the most rapid action at law ever brought in this city.

IT WAS ONLY A SCARE.
The Panic in Wall Street Had a Slight Foundation.
HILL AND THE PRESIDENCY.
The Revolution in Honduras—Accident on the Reading Railroad—General Notes.
Special by THE UNITED PRESS.
New York, Nov. 12.—When the gong sounded for opening of business this morning on the stock exchange, there was a yell and a rush and panic momentary reigned.
The galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity by a class which only visits the street in times of great excitement. Richly attired ladies pushed forward for a sight of the struggling brokers and to the most casual observer it would be seen that there was a time of unlooked excitement.
The market opened stronger than might have been expected and there was evidently a hopeful view of the situation, despite the fact that the early London advices were not very favorable. The trading was simply sanguine, especially in Villard's and St. Paul. About six thousand shares were sold under the rule, completing the sales begun yesterday.
The general market declined slightly with the opening with a 2 per cent drop in Burlington. The Villards, however, were strong, and it looks as if the conditions were favorable to a decided improvement. The scare is over.

WIND STORM IN CALIFORNIA.
Buildings Unroofed and Houses Wrecked at Vacaville.
SEVENTY-FIVE MILES AN HOUR.
Special by THE ASTORIAN PRESS.
VACAVILLE, Cal., Nov. 12.—Commencing about ten o'clock yesterday morning a heavy north wind sprang up which continued with increasing violence until 2 o'clock this morning when it reached its climax. At that time the wind blew at least seventy-five miles per hour and did considerable damage to fencing, trees and sheds throughout the valley.
The tin roof of the Odd Fellow's building had a section of over twenty feet square torn off and heavy weights had to be put on the balance of it to prevent the whole of the roof from being blown away.
Small frame houses were rocked like cradles and walking was impossible. Today there was some signs of abatement but it is still blowing very hard.

Free Coinage.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Commercial Bulletin's Washington special says that unless the situation changes materially before the meeting of the fifty-second congress, free coinage is likely to become the policy of the United States within the next eighteen months, and there is a chance that that policy will be adopted inside of four months.

Browned White Fishing.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 12.—Win. Hastings, John Whalen and Thos. Wadsworth were drowned during Monday night. They were on a fish spearing trip and left their rubberer in dory. The boat has been found but there is no trace of the men.

At the Point of Death.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Daniel Appleton, of the well known publishing firm of Appleton & Co., is very low to-night at his home in this city. He is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy.

On the Fredericksa Ca.
George F. Christianson, the forger who was captured yesterday, was one of the witnesses for the defense in the Fredericksa murder case and has the reputation of being a natural rascal, but lacking in the ability to become a success in that line.

A Severe Sand Storm.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
COLTON, Cal., Nov. 12.—A severe sand storm visited this section today. The telegraph wires are demoralized cutting off all communication with Arizona.

TREASURY DEPT. RULING.
A New Ruling in Regard to The Fishing Law.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The treasury department has decided that fish caught in fresh waters can be imported into the United States duty free, provided the nets and boats used in this sort of catch are owned by citizens of the United States. If such nets and boats are simply loaned or hired by Canadians to Americans for the purpose of evading the law, the fish carried in such boats are dutiable and the collectors on the Canadian frontier have been instructed to keep a close watch on "suspects."

Startling Developments Looked For in a Murder Case.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
MINNED, Nov. 12.—At 10:30 o'clock last night the Ivet murder case went to the coroner's jury. After being out one hour they reported that he was murdered by some person unknown to them.
