Entron Astonias:

Much to my surprise Mr. Cooper seems to have had his feelings seriously wounded over the innocent little local in the Astonias Staken pains great to have it corrected both in the Astonias and Columbias.

The remarks in the Columbias I will not betice, as they appear to have been is seried for the purpose of venting their spite against The Astonias, and therefore entry little weight, but I desire to put the matter before Mr. Cooper in the right light, as he doesn't seem to in the right light, us be doesn't seem to quite comprehend the facts in the case. If Mr. Coper will call on mr I will be and which contains socks, pants, coats.

in my mind what I am at present at a loss to account for.

I write the above with an apology to Mr. Cooper, as he seems to desire to avoid publicity in the various suits which he has been bringing against me on one pretext and another.

I will further state that I will be pleased to see any one who takes sufficient interest in this matter, at the Justice Court on the 26th inst., as Mr. ice Court on the 26th inst., as Mr. Scoper will then doubtless explain the uniter to the salisfaction of every one. It is a matter of surprise that this see end suit should have been brought a Mr. Cooper was absent from the city when the first suit was brought by Mr. Denber and I had supposed that had he been here be would not have counte-nanced such action on the part of his and A
