

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1920. ISSUED EVERY MORNING. P. W. PARKER, Publisher and Proprietor.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Sent by Carrier, per week, 15 cents; Sent by Mail, per month, $4.00; Five of postage to subscribers.

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia River.

The tide was very low last night, seeming to leave more of the flats uncovered than usual.

No mail was received at Ilwaco yesterday from this city, as the steamer Volga failed to put in an appearance.

At the office of the county recorder yesterday, there was filed a power of attorney from C. P. Ferry to P. W. Gillette.

Last evening Dr. A. L. Fulton was summoned to Cathlamet to attend a sick lady and was obliged to go by a special tug.

Flyn, the tailor has a fine line of new goods from which he will make nobby suits to order. See his new ad on second page.

A building is to be erected at Tillamook for a summer resort, by W. S. Hunyon, who is constructing a road from Forest Grove to the former place.

The Eureka Packing Company, of Eagle Cliff, offers a reward of $25 for the recovery of the body of F. J. Smith, who was drowned near Stella, Washington, on the 8th of this month.

The work of putting in the new mains for the water company is progressing rapidly and a large force of men are engaged near Allerbrook doing the work.

The restaurant of the Central hotel, after having closed for several weeks, reopened this morning with everything in first-class order, and the public may rest assured that will find good food well cooked, and all things neat and homelike.

Between Cape Hancock and McKenzie's head yesterday the body of a drowned man was picked up on the beach, but was not recognized by any one who saw it. Word was sent to the corner of Pacific county, who took charge of the body.

Astoria Engine company No. 1 held a business meeting last night. The report of the committee of arrangements for the coming fall on the 26th inst. was presented and the committee appropriated to defray the expenses of the ball.

Jarvis Stone caused the arrest of Henry Wroten yesterday on a charge of larceny. The case grew out of the fact that Wroten took twenty old street planks. The case was examined in Justice Cleveland's court last evening and Wroten was acquitted.

The report of the special session committee on assessment and taxation has been received at this office, and is a very complete work. It also contains a bill which has been prepared by the committee and will be presented for adoption at the next session of the legislature.

Yesterday the Astoria Abstract, Title and Trust Company had placed in front of their office on Third street a handsome and elegant sign of unique design, the work of E. F. Allen, the sign artist. It bears the name of the company in gold and silver leaf letters, and is remarkably attractive in appearance.

Liberti and his famous band are to appear at the Astoria football club, after evening, as indicated by the advertisement in our columns this morning. To lovers of good music, it will be an interesting event. The sale of reserved seats commences at the New York Novelty store to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Councilman Welch and Street Superintendent Clinton have taken the matter of cleaning the streets in hand and the result has been that the inch or more of mud and slush that had accumulated on Second and Third streets has been cleared away and pedestrians can now cross those thoroughfares without getting mired.

Ilwaco will have an election for city officials on December 21. At a meeting of citizens, for the purpose of nominating a municipal ticket, held a few nights ago the following were named: For mayor, E. J. Colvin; for trustees first ward, T. H. Parks and Wilson Graham; second ward, J. J. Brumbach and James Graham; third ward, J. C. Denton; for treasurer, J. W. Howerton.

Herman Wise having received the suits for the Astoria football club, all players are requested to call on him and get the same at once. A game will be played this afternoon. Leave Kinney's cannery by the 2:30 motor. Kick-off, 3 p. m. It is absolutely necessary that all who can attend do so, as the captain wishes to start selecting a team to compete against Portland early next month.

Julius Laparte, Jeff's French night cook, met with a serious mishap last night, that will lay him up for a week or so. A trap door in the back kitchen was carelessly left open by the yard man and Laparte, while going about his work, not noticing the opening, fell through a distance of eight feet, breaking two ribs in his left side. He also had the misfortune to lose his gold watch and chain, which fell through a crack into the river.

Last Sunday afternoon, Miss Sarah Kindred, who is visiting friends at Fort Stevens, returned from a ride, and had just alighted from the buggy when the horse became frightened. Miss Kindred did not grasp his bit, but he reared and struck her on the side of the head, knocking her senseless, and would have trampled her to death but for the quick intervention of a gentleman who happened to be near by. Miss Kindred did not regain consciousness for several hours. It was a close call.

Herman Wise is not a very large man, but he has some great clothing to fit the stout, the lean, the tall and the short. Not long ago Capt. Westermeyer, of the German bark Reine Rickmers, found in Herman's store a coat fifty inches around the chest, although he had never before been able to get a ready-made coat to fit him, and yesterday Mr. E. J. Colvin of Ilwaco, was another very much surprised man. He had just returned from Portland, where he could not find a pair of pants long enough in any of the leading stores, but Herman Wise got there with both feet. He sold Mr. Colvin a pair of pants thirty-eight inches long on the inseam.

The salmon, which formed a part of the burned cargo of the steamer Michigan, has been purchased by George T. Myers, of Seattle, who this speaks of it to a reporter in that city: "I have just purchased the cargo of the steamer Michigan, consisting of 25,000 cases of Alaska salmon. You will remember that the Michigan took them in at Port Townsend a few weeks ago and was taking them to Portland. A cargo of lime also in her hold caught fire and before extinguishing it the cases containing the salmon were burned and the labels destroyed. Four hundred barrels of fish were also totally destroyed. I found that the canned salmon was unimpaired and will have all the cans re-labeled."

Next week will be a regular holiday week so far as amusements are concerned. Commencing with Monday is John Jack's company at the opera house for the benefit of No. 3. Tuesday evening at the Athletic club rooms is the Gleason-Gannon contest. Wednesday night the opera house will be the scene for the hall of No. 1. Thursday is Thanksgiving, and should be enjoyed by all. Friday evening is the fashionable event of the season, the Record concert and musicale at the opera house. Saturday night the minstrels hold the concert at the opera house, and if that is not enough fun for the week, let every reader of The Astorian start in on his own hook and add any other enjoyment to the list which his fancy may dictate.

J. G. Megler, brother of one of the proprietors of the Occident hotel, and the well known canneryman at Brookfield, is named as the speaker of the house of representatives in Washington. Mr. Megler was recently re-elected from Pacific county by a majority far in excess of that given by the remainder of the ticket in his county. He possesses many elements of strength. His war record is a brilliant one and he is a prominent member of the Royal Legion. He is an active and energetic republican and has many friends in all parts of the state. During the last legislative session he was called upon several times to preside over the house, and his bearing while in the chair was easy and dignified. It is not known whether Mr. Megler will be an aspirant for the speakership, but if he is, he will be no mean antagonist, and other aspirants will do well if they take the prize from him. He is not in the habit of being beaten.

Mrs. Harriet Jewett was much worse last evening.

M. Herrick returned from a trip to San Francisco yesterday.

A. E. Partridge, of Chehalis, signed the Occident yesterday.

Frank Bates came over from Ilwaco yesterday and returns home to-day.

Judge F. J. Taylor goes to Hillsboro on Monday, to hold a term of court.

Mrs. D. H. Welch, who has been visiting in Portland, has returned home.

W. H. Taylor and wife, of Ilwaco, returned yesterday from a trip to California.

M. Herrick, the well known canneryman, returned yesterday from a visit to California.

Capt. Al Harris, of the Fort Canby life saving station, was in the city last evening, looking as happy as ever.

County Clerk Trenchard, who has been seriously ill for several days, was reported somewhat worse yesterday.

Colonel Ed. Hughes and Frank Cook will leave this morning on a snipe hunting expedition to the Lewis and Clarke section.

Mrs. Eliza Shepard, of Portland, a well known pioneer of California and Oregon, who crossed the plains in the forties, came up from Seaside yesterday, and is assisting her daughter, Mrs. Munroe Grimes. She will be at the Occident for a day or two, before returning to her home in Portland.

A meeting of the board of delegates of the Astoria Fire Department will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 24, 1920. E. Z. FERGUSON, Secretary.

Herman Wise has a large number of fine Christmas presents displayed in his corner window. Not to mention the $100 lot of Chelsea, fine lounge, music box, etc.

A fine bed lounge in Heikorn's window, a lamp at Carman's and a baby buggy at Strass's, are three very fine presents for Herman Wise's customers.

IMPORTANT. Every person purchasing Ten Dollars worth of Goods from Herman Wise, the Reliable Clothier, in the Occident Hotel building, will receive a Ticket free of Charge, entitling the holder to a chance in the Drawing for a number of Handsome Christmas Presents.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. It is verified by the fact that nearly everybody eats at Jeff's New restaurant.

"Winter Nellis" Pens. Fifty Boxes must be sold at once; also Apples, Bananas, Grapes, etc. At THOMPSON & ROSS.

Weinhard's Beer. A fifteen ball Pool Table and all the leading newspapers on file at the Sunnyside Saloon.

Fresh Eastern Chestnuts. Main St. bet. 1st and 2d. I. X. L. Building.

Fruits, Candy, Nuts. Fresh Peanuts every day. I. X. L. Building.

Furnished Rooms With Board. Persons desiring comfortable home accommodations or good Table Board will find it at Mrs. E. C. HOLDEN'S, Corner Fourth and Main Streets.

THE ILL-FATED "MICHIGAN"

Official Report of Captain Graves in regard to the Fire.

The report of Captain S. F. Graves, master of the steam schooner Michigan, on the fire in the vessel November 1st, has been filed at the custom house and the crew numbered twenty-two. When forty-five miles off Cape Hancock, fire was discovered in the cargo. The wind was blowing twenty miles an hour at the time from the northeast, and the sea was smooth. The hatches were battened to keep the fire down and course laid for Astoria. On reaching port, assistance was rendered by the Astoria Fire Department. The cause of the fire is unknown. The report recites that the estimated value of the vessel was $40,000; value of cargo, $20,000; estimated damage to the vessel, $4,150; damage to cargo, $10,000. The steamer was insured for $35,000 and the insurance on the cargo was $10,000.

Next week will be a regular holiday week so far as amusements are concerned. Commencing with Monday is John Jack's company at the opera house for the benefit of No. 3. Tuesday evening at the Athletic club rooms is the Gleason-Gannon contest. Wednesday night the opera house will be the scene for the hall of No. 1. Deeds filed, 5; total amount, $ 1,671 Previously reported this year 1,831,368 Total to date, $1,833,039 Oldest Native Oregonians.

The following interesting facts are given by a correspondent of the Salem Statesman, and it may be that some reader of The Astorian can add something of interest to it: Miss Helen Leslie, daughter of Rev. David Leslie, was born in what is now Fairfield, Yamhill county, in 1839. She is still living in Salem, and is probably the oldest native white person living in the state. It is suggested to the pioneers that Miss Leslie is entitled to special recognition at the annual gathering, Maria Campbell, daughter of Rev. Hamilton Campbell, now Mrs. Smith, of Portland, was born in the fall of 1840, in the old institute building in Salem. She was the first white child born in Salem prairie. Julia Ellen Waller, daughter of Rev. A. F. Waller, now Mrs. Dr. Stratton, was born in the M. E. parsonage in Oregon City in May 1841, and was doubtless the first white child of either sex born in that city. In the autumn of the same year, 1841, Abbie Beers, daughter of Rev. Alanson Beers, and afterwards Mrs. Jesse Parrish, was born in the same house. Early in 1842 George Holman, son of Joseph Holman, was born in or near Salem. So far as the information of the writer extends he was born on Salem prairie. In August, 1843, O. A. Winer, son of Rev. A. F. Waller, was born in Oregon City, and later in the autumn of the same year Charles Parrish, son of Rev. J. L. Parrish, on Clatsop plains. This record may omit some names, but it gives the principal facts, and brings us down to the immigration of 1843, into the history of which it is not necessary to state.

1,600 MILES. But She Got It.—A Sample of Letters Daily Received.

Only those who have tried it can know what it is that prompts one to send 1,500 miles for it to get it again. Here is another of many such instances:—

Dear Sirs: I send $5 for which please return a half dozen of your vegetable sarsaparilla. I have moved here from Astoria City, and have brought bottles of the same with me. I send all the way back to California for more. It was just before I left Astoria City about a year ago that I began to feel very miserable. My skin was very yellow, and I had all pains and aches, especially under my shoulders and in my head. The doctor said it was my liver, and gave me some medicine which relieved me somewhat. One of my neighbors happened in and told me she had started to take Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, and advised me to try it. I did, and with such good effect that I now feel like a new man. I have recommended only my neighbors here to take it, so part of this is for her and part for myself. MRS. G. DELBRIDGE, Butte City, Montana.

The reader, who has not tried it, has no idea what a vegetable sarsaparilla in this remedy will do for disordered systems.

SCROFULOUS SORES

From Head to Waist a mass of Disease. Suffering Terrible. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I was covered with scrofulous sores from my head to my waist, suffering so that I could not sleep nights, and could lie down only with pillows under my arms. My head was so sore that I could not wear a hat, and being a farmer, I could not go bareheaded, so wore a very soft handkerchief on my head. In fact, I was a disgusting sight to others and to myself. After doctoring for six years with the best physicians in the country, and getting worse all the time, I had given up all hope of getting well when I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised and procured a set, although with little faith in them. The first set, however, did me such a vast amount of good, that I continued their use, and now, after using four sets, I am happy to say that I am entirely cured. Any of the prominent business men and farmers in and around Plainfield will endorse my story. GEORGE A. HINSELWOOD, Plainfield, Ill.

Cuticura Remedies. Ringing words from grateful hearts tell the story of great physical suffering, of mental anguish, of reason of humiliating dignifications, and of threatened dangers happily and speedily ended, by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, the greatest Skin Cures, Blood Purifiers, and Humor Remedies the world has ever known. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood and skin purifier and greatest of humor remedies, cleanses the blood of all impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the CAUSE, while CUTICURA SOAP, the great skin cure, clears the skin and scalp and restores the hair. Hence the CUTICURA REMEDIES cure every species of scrofulous, humbling, itching, burning, scaly and pimply diseases of the skin, scalp, and head, with loss of hair, and all humors, blotches, eruptions, sores, scales, and crusts, whether simple, scrofulous or contagious, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. Grateful testimonials from these statements in every particular.
