The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

MONDAY.....NOVEMBER 24, 1890

POPULAR, indeed, will be the new book, recently issued, entitled "The Last Word," for all the women will be bound to have it.

PROMINENT fruit dealers of New York, Brooklyn and Boston are planning an excursion to this coast in February, for the purpose of seeing the fruit of the Pacific states growing at a time when the trees of the Eastern states are loaded with ice and snow. It will be to them an interesting trip, especially if they visit the orange and lemon groves of Southern California.

APPARENTLY ignorant of the noble nature of the brave soldier, or actuated by some base motive, a shallow pated or malevolent individual in New York has started a ridiculous story. He charges General Nelson A. Miles with overrating the Indian scare with a view of booming himself for the presidency. To the many people on this coast who know well the gallant general and esteem him highly for his many estimable qualities, this story is too absurd to be considered of any importance or worthy of a moment's thought.

PROMINENT citizens and wealthy men of Belfast, Ireland, are considering the question of constructing a tunnel under the sea, between Ireland and Scotland, a distance of thirty-three miles. A noted engineer proposes a plan, which he claims is feasible. Five hundred feet would be the greatest depth and the steepest gradient would be one foot in seventy-five. Stupendous as the undertaking may appear, the tunnel is likely to be constructed if sufficient money can be raised, as it is not more wonderful than engineering schemes which have been successfully carried out.

CALIFORNIA favors the nomination of Blaine and Stanford for president and vice president for the election in 1892, and for that purpose Creed Haymond, the well known politician and able attorney of California is now in Washington where he has consulted Secretary Blaine in reference to the matter. That the white plumed knight is not averse to the proposition is evident from Haymond's announcement that he will at once return to this coast and inaugurate the movement. Blaine stands to-day as the very embodiment of American statesmanship, and is more feared by the democrats than any other man the republicans could name, and as for Senator Stanford, while many do not endorse his radical financial schemes, it is unquestionably true that his propositions have been so much for the benefit of the farmers, mechanics and laboring men of the country that he would prove a strong candidate for the second place on the presidential ticket. It is likely that they may be nominated, and if so, would undoubtedly prove as strong as almost any candidates which could be named.

DR. PRENTICE.

WILL ARRIVE SUNDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 23.

Eye, Head and Nervous Diseases, At Occident Hotel, Astoria. For a Few Days.

FREE.

Dr. Prentice Will Cure the First Case Of Cross-Eyes and Epileptic Fits Free On the Day of His Arrival in Astoria.

Those Who Wish to Have the Doctor Treat Them Should Call Early, or They May Lose the Opportunity.

A man well known in this community writes the following interesting letter:

"I was chopping a stump four weeks ago, when a flying chip struck me in the eye; for a short time I was entirely blind. Then partial sight returned again. I nurtured hope and continued to treat it at home, until ten days ago, when I began to abandon hope of ever seeing perfectly again, unless something more than ordinary was done. I then counciled two of the leading Oculists of Portland, who told me one eye would have to be cut out to save the other. It did not exactly suit me to have my eye cut out, and so I sought other council. I went to Dr. Prentice, the Oculist, then at Portland, and he laughed at the idea of its being necessary to cut my eye out; I joined in the laugh, for it was on my side. I have been free from pain since the first day's visit to Dr. Prentice, and improved steadily, and am now entirely well again. I feel safe in saying that if Dr. Prentice cannot cure a case he will always say so.

A Touching Scene Witnessed By a Portland Gentleman.

One week ago we received an invitation to witness a delicate surgical operation on an eye. The patient was the 17-year-old daughter of Harrison Hay. For three years she had been blind in both eyes with a cataract, and was obliged to grope her way about in total darkness. The patient, without taking chloroform, submitted to the following operation: She was now ready for the surgical part of the work, and we stood in breathless anxiety as Dr. Prentice placed the point of his knife at the side of the eyeball, carefully touched the point of the cornea, then the blade entered the eye; we saw it pass through the eye in front of the pupil and then come out at the opposite side. It was then drawn upward, and a cut made of about one-third of the circumference of the ball. Another instrument was then passed in back of the pupil, and almost on the instant the girl said: "Oh, Dr. Prentice I can see you." This was spoken in tones well calculated to bring tears to one's eyes. From the time the knife touched the eye until the patient could see, it was just one minute. She was allowed to see those about her for a moment, then the eye was closed and bandaged.

In just one week after the operation she came into our office and was able to read our paper. She also wrote a letter home, saying: "Dear parents, I can see and am happy."

Mr. Jerome W. Campbell, General Superintendent of the Willamette Bridge Railway Co., saw this operation.

A LETTER.

From a Patient Who Was Cured By Dr. Prentice.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 7, 1890.

To the Suffering: For five years I have suffered with sleeplessness, nervous debility, irritation at the base of the brain, and a terrible kidney disease. I had tried so many remedies that did me no good that at last I gave up all hope of ever being a well man again. I tried many prescriptions that were said to be sure cures, and all failed. There were many times during the past few years that I was obliged to lay off from work from two weeks to three months at a time. Lately I was running down in health very rapidly, and was alarmed. I contemplated leaving this part of the country and trying to see if I could not get relief elsewhere. I must say that my faith in doctors was about gone; but something lead me to visit Dr. Prentice at the Esmond hotel. I crowded in with the others and waited my turn. He examined me, told me where my trouble was, and said he could cure it without medicine. I can't say that I really believed him, but something in his manner led me to trust him. He gave me no medicine at all, yet from the day of my first visit I began to improve rapidly. I now sleep as sound as a child. My memory is greatly improved. My kidney disease and brain irritation are entirely well, my appetite splendid, and I now enjoy life and perfect health. Any afflicted person wishing to learn about my case will find me at address below.
