Money,

Twenty Dunkards With au R.

twenty Dunkards."

Bonner was somewhat taken aback. He did not know but what an inebriate asylum had broken loose, but any way prompt action was necessary. The twenty drunkards must be desperate men, or the dispatch would not have been sent, and murder might have been committed on the road. Bonner posted off to police head-quarters, and his story did not lose in the telling. The chief of police alive to the exigences of the situation, made a special detail of ten policemen and a patrol wagon.

The policemen were drawn up in a line at the depot, and intense excite-ment prevailed among the numerous depot loungers, a rumor having gained currency that a desperate band of train robbers was on the incoming train. In due time the train arrived, but no party of roystering drunkards alighted. The party on the train was composed of several pions looking gentlemen with broad brimmed hats, who stood around as though expecting some one.

Bonner approached one of them and said, interrogatively:
"Had any trouble on the road?" "No, brother," said the gentleman none that I know of. And now I'll ask you a question. Do you know a genleman named Bonner?"

THE HOUSEHOLD.

OVERTENTHOUSAND

"Yes; I am Mr. Bonner, was the "Well, these brethren and myself are Dunkards, and you were to meet us and put us on the right train. Didn't you get a telegram?"

Bonner was completely done for. He excused himself, and called the sergeant of police aside, he told him that it was all a mistake, and he and his men could go back to head quarters. Then he disposed of his religrous friends.

The stimulating action when worn over the gastric region materially aids in restoring strength and energy to digestion, and the consequent building up of tissue and res'oring tone to the general system."

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

By special arrangement with the publisher of MANMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA, we are enabled to make to our subscribers and readers the following extraordinary offer: We will sind the MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA, Complete in Four Volumes, as above described, all postage prepared, also THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN, for ONE YEAR, upon receipt of only $2.75, which is but 75 Cents more than our regular subscription price, so that you practically get this large and valuable work for the trifing sum of 75 Cents. This is a great offer, a wonderful bargain, and it is a pleasure to us to be enabled to afford our readers so remarkable an opportunity. Through this extraordinary offer we hote to largely incre-so our circuiation. Please tell all your triends that they can get the MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA in four volumes, with a year's subscription to our paper, for only $2.75. Perfect satisfaction is guaranteed to all who take advantage of this great premium offer. Those whose subscriptions have not yet expired who renew now will receive the MAMMOTH CYCLOPÆDIA at once, and their subscriptions will be extended one year from date of expiration. The MAMMOTH CLOCLOPÆDIA will also be given free to any one sending us a club of three yearly subscribers to our paper. Address all letters:
