KING KALAKAUA'S VISIT.

Report That He Brings Overtures For Annexation.
THE PLANTERS ALL APPROVE
More Profit Would Be Realized From Their Sugar Crops - Blaine.
Special by The Union-Post.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—It is rumored here that the visit of King Kalakaua to the United States has a more important object for that politician than mere recreation.
It is reported here that he has scamped public opinion in Hawaii on the subject of annexation to the United States, and he feels authorized to make a proposition to our state department to effect that purpose.
Those who are familiar with the affairs of the island kingdom, point to the fact that under the operation of the McKinley bill, which authorizes the payment of a bounty for sugar of home production of two cents a pound, the Hawaiian planters would receive about $2,000,000 a year more for their sugar crop if they became citizens of the United States.
The quantity of sugar imported this year from Hawaii is 28,000,000 pounds, and as the product is increasing annually at the rate of about 2,000,000 pounds a year, it will be seen that this estimate is well within the mark.
It is believed here that the administration will receive Kalakaua's overtures with favor.
Blaine, on repeated occasions, has expressed the opinion that some policy demands that the Hawaiian islands and that he will therefore favor any movement which has for its object their acquisition on favorable terms.
A State Investment.
It is now which is reported to be bringing up the subject of annexation to the United States, and it is believed that the king will be favorably received here.
The king's visit is reported to be a success, and it is believed that the king will be favorably received here.

OUR MINISTER TO SPAIN.

General Grubb and Family Arrive in Paris.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
PARIS, Dec. 7.—General Burd Grubb, the newly appointed American minister to Spain, has arrived here with his family. He is in the best of health. They will continue their journey to Madrid about Christmas. They are pleased to have secured the palace of the court of Donararis on Paseo Castellano, which was the residence of General Grubb's predecessor, Governor Palmer.
By a Herald correspondent respecting his mission, the General said his position forbade him to speak. He merely remarked that it was no secret that negotiations were pending with a view to reciprocity between the two nations.
MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY.
An Old Man Beaten to Death and Robbed.
LAWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 7.—A. Moore, an old man from Manchester, Iowa, was found in an ice house on North Lawrence yesterday morning. His head was horribly crushed and he was almost dead. He left Lawrence for this city on Friday morning, having several hundred dollars on his person. He was seen with traps on Friday night. Several traps were arrested in Kansas City last night and brought to this city. The old man died last evening without regaining consciousness.
KOSUTH NOT STARVING.
The Great Hungarian is in Easy Circumstances.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
LAWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 7.—From Vienna it is learned that the great Kosuth is not suffering from depressing poverty as has been reported, but is in comfortable circumstances, although not rich. He lives quietly with his sister, Mrs. Knittel, who was for many years a teacher of languages in New York.

AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

The Order of Business in Congress Not Yet Determined.
MUCH BUSINESS IS ON HAND.
The Time is Short and Difficultly Expected in Arranging the Calendar.
Special by THE UNION-POST.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The republican caucus committee has not determined on an order of business as yet, so that nothing definite can be known of the prospects of business in that body, except that the debate on the federal election will be postponed during the week. The election bill is in the unfinished business of the senate, so that it comes up each day at 2 o'clock.
Democratic senators will continue to speak in support of the bill during the week, and the republican senators will continue to speak in opposition to it. It is believed that the bill will be passed by the senate in the next few days.
The House will probably give the bill a second reading on Monday, and it is believed that it will be passed by the house in the next few days.
The House will probably give the bill a second reading on Monday, and it is believed that it will be passed by the house in the next few days.

AN ALLEGED SHORTAGE.

The State Treasurer in Arkansas Reported in Trouble.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 7.—Rumors were freely circulated on the streets yesterday that state treasurer, Wm. H. Woodruff, was $20,000 short in his accounts. It is said that large sums of money have been advanced to certain parties for private purposes and owing to the stringency of the markets those parties were unable to return it. A United Press reporter visited the state treasurer yesterday in reply to a question in regard to the alleged shortage. Mr. Woodruff said he knew nothing of it; that it was time enough to talk of such matters should an investigation disclose the facts to be as stated.
RESTING ON THEIR ARMS.
The Parnellites Are Taking a Rest.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
LONDON, Dec. 7.—The Parnellites and their opponents rested on their arms to-day after the exciting events of Saturday. Nearly all the members of the Parnell club in the morning and Parnell himself from all but his intimate friends.
The Parnellites, it is understood, are anxious to force an appeal to the public. They are possible and claim that their antagonists are afraid to submit the issue of their conduct to the people.
Railroad Business.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—But little information has been received here by the agents of the several companies affected by the transportation pool. It is believed that the pool is still in operation, and that the companies are still in a state of uncertainty. It is believed that the pool will be broken up in the next few days.

PARNELL'S OPPONENTS.

Healy and Others Burned in Effigy in Dublin.
IRELAND ALL EXCITEMENT.
Large Meetings Held in Dublin and Other Parts—Aftermath of the O'Shas Case.
Special by THE UNION-POST.
LONDON, Dec. 7.—Ireland was ablaze with excitement to-day, many public meetings being held and the epic in the party being the universal topic of conversation and discussion everywhere.
The mass meeting in Phoenix Park, Dublin, was not so large as had been anticipated. In fact it was not a formidable gathering in point of size, though it was quite turbulent. It was distinctly a Parnell meeting, and Healy and other opponents of that leader were burned in effigy.
Judging from the bitterness of denunciations against them they would have been burned in person had they been present.
SOME QUEER STORIES.
Aftermath of the O'Shas Divorce Case.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
LONDON, Dec. 7.—Since the Parnell-Gladstone assumption, any number of queer stories are afloat. One is to the effect that when Parnell and Gladstone were negotiating an alliance Mrs. O'Shas played a trick. She and Gladstone took dinner at the Thomas hotel and the dinner had a favorable effect on the old man.
Another story is that O'Shas was offered £2,000 to leave the country because he thought the money would be forthcoming, but in this he was mistaken.
The King as Churchgoer.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—This morning King Kalakaua attended divine service at the Trinity Episcopal. He was accompanied by Lord High Chamberlain McFarlane and his suit.
SOLD FOR $1,600.
A Clatsop County Bill Purchased in Portland.
Hugh McCormack was in the city last evening and stated that he had sold his celebrated 2-year-old colt to A. J. Leitch of Portland for $1,600. This is good news, for it shows that the racing track can be raised in this section. The two-year-old in question was raised on McCormack's young's farm near Astoria, and made a record on the Tacoma track recently of 2:24. Mr. McCormack's information is to the effect that about twelve feet below the surface a rich vein of coal was struck. It was about one foot in thickness, and samples sent to this city showed freely and expects production of an excellent character. Mr. McCormack's mine on the river is so thoroughly prospected the discovery, as it is thought that after through and the stratum of earth which necessarily follows is passed, a rich bed of coal will be uncovered.
