One mortgage for $750 was filed with the county recorder yesterday.

Practice for the Mikado will be held in Rescue club hall on Tuesday, the 16th inst., at 4 P. M.

Rev. C. M. Hill of Portland, will conduct services in the Baptist church to-morrow morning and evening.

Yesterday morning's steamer from Portland brought three days' delayed eastern mail. The delay occurred on the Union Pacific line.

The severe storm that raged yesterday morning, washed out a portion of the stone revetment along the Bay Railway near Smith's Point.

Those needing any house cleaning or carpets beaten or office kept in order, will do well to leave their order with C. Higgins whose advertisement appears new this morning.

High tides prevail in this section at present, and yesterday at noon the highest tide ever known in this city was marked. Seafaring men attribute it to a tidal wave off the coast.

The delinquent tax roll for school district No. 1, has been placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection and that official says unless the property owners that are delinquent commence to pay up he will institute suits.

Three locators "proved up" before Deputy County Clerk Dickenson yesterday. They were Simon Walin, who has a pre-emption, H. C. Busick, who has a homestead and Miss M. A. Grant, with a pre-emption claim.

There are three prisoners in the county jail at present and all are awaiting the action of the grand jury. They are Charles Mitchell, accused of murder, John Nelson, assault with a deadly weapon and George Christiansen, the forger.

C. E. Bayard, special government agent, arrived in this city yesterday morning and will take testimony in the case of Job Ross, who has had a claim against the government for depredations by the Indians during the war in the fifties.

Yesterday morning Cushing Post, No. 14, G. A. R., displayed the American flag at half mast, in respect to the memory of Richard F. Tobin, senior vice commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who died at his home in South Boston, November 22nd, aged 46 years.

At the annual election of the Presbyterian Sunday school on Wednesday, the 10th inst., Miss Emma Warren was elected superintendent; J. T. Ross, assistant; H. C. Thompson, chorister, Jno. Bryce, treasurer and librarian; Sidney Campbell, secretary and Miss Maud Warren, organist.

A calf escaped from the Telephone dock last evening and until an early hour this morning kept Officers Beasly, Ley Larsen and Hendricksen busy trying to catch it. The young veal however was not to be caught, and as late as 2 o'clock this morning it was wandering about Third street making a noise something like a fog siren.

One of the most ingenious advertising devices in this city is the sign displayed by Shanahan Bros., at their store on Second street, next to the postoffice. Their electric light is made to shine through perforations in some suspended sheets of pasteboard. The lights and shadows thus formed are thrown on the front of the Gearhart building, opposite, and reads, Christmas Goods.

At a regular meeting of Cushing Post No. 14, department of the Oregon G. A. R., held Thursday evening, officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year as follows: A. G. Hardesty, past commander; F. N. Breeze, senior vice-past commander; Phillip L. Taylor, junior vice-past commander; T. G. Rawlings, officer of the day; Jesse Baker, surgeon; G. L. Baker, chaplain; M. Dillon, officer guard; E. H. Brodie, past quartermaster. The past adjutant will be appointed January 8, 1891.

The letter carrier system is to be inagurated in this city on January 1st. Postmaster Hare has named all except one of the four carriers, and has received an abundance of supplies. Yesterday morning's boat from Portland brought twenty-five letter boxes, five of them being of the large or hotel size. In addition to this a number of pouches for the carriers arrived. A contract for the changes necessary in the office was also entered into and C. W. Holt will do the work. The new furniture required for the office will be furnished by C. Heilborn.

The Columbian's "idiotors" are always sneaking about to watch THE ASTORIAN'S employes so as to make them the subject of their meddlesome comment. THE ASTORIAN believes that its employes earn their money, as they should, and that it is nothing to its discredit that their duties are often manifold. But THE ASTORIAN'S reporters have not yet, like the Columbian's, been compelled to eke out a miserable salary by impounding hogs along the water front and then holding them for ransom.

SAFE ROBBERS STILL AT LARGE.

No Clue to the Men Who "Blew" Parker & Hanson's Safe.

BIG MONEY OVERLOOKED.

Hundreds of persons visited the store of Parker & Hanson yesterday and viewed the wrecked safe, which was blown open by burglars shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday morning as was detailed in THE ASTORIAN. The iron chest is a complete wreck. The contents were at first thought to be intact, but investigation after daylight came disclosed that the burglars had boldly remained after the doors of the safe had been blown off and secured $7 in coin and commenced gouging out the steel money box in the safe when they thought it best to fly without securing it. Prior to blowing the safe the thieves robbed the money drawer in the counter of $25.

Chief Barry and his officers with outside assistance went to work on the case immediately. It was found that the door of the safe had not been touched by a drill and for a time it was a mystery how the theives got powder enough in behind both doors of the safe, to blow them off. A careful examination showed that a hole had been drilled through the left hand side of the safe back of the inside door. The robbers then loaded the safe with powder and blew both inside and outside doors off.

It was a job similar to one done in Portland last week and while the officers refuse to state whom they suspect, it is pretty certain that the men that operated in Portland last week were the same that did the work in Parker & Hanson's store. There is also suspicion that the safe crackers are Chinese, Footprints in a yard in the rear of the plundered store show that whoever the robbers were they wore American boots, but as Chinese sometimes do this it does not relieve that nationality from the suspicion. However, the officers have strong suspicions and the next forty-eight hours will doubtless see one or more persons behind the bars.

In investigating the case yesterday the officers found that the burglars had paid their respects to Liddicoat & Cribb's carpenter shop first. There they opened and ransacked the safe but did not find it necessary to do any "blowing." Some $300 in money was overlooked. The thieves obtained admission by forcing a back door. They satisfied themselves with taking the few tools which were found in the store of Parker & Hanson. These they used principally in cutting through the floor.

The New Charter Completed.

Senator Fulton and City Attorney Curtis of the new city charter committee, held a meeting and completed the work. The other members of the committee were conspicuous only by their absence.

The new charter as prepared, has been outlined in THE ASTORIAN heretofore. It will, if adopted prove beneficial to the city. It increases the powers of the city council; makes it possible to bond the city for half a million; provides for the improvement of streets by taxation; extends the city limits so as to include what is now termed Alderbrook and Uniontown, besides providing for other needed reforms.

A Practical Common-Sense Plan.

EDITOR ASTORIAN:

A have heard to-day a great many Astorians discussing Granger's plan for a half million subscription bonus for a trans-continental road. The drift of opinion is that it is a practicable common-sense plan without any string to it, and wholly in the interest of Astoria. If everybody would now get in and work up the bonus as proposed, it looks like a pretty sure thing for a railroad. I would freely give my ten per cent. of the assessed values to get a railroad here, and thanky, too.

MERCHANT.

Echoes from the People.

EDITOR ASTORIAN: I read with interest the "subscription paper" plan submitted by "Granger" in this morning's ASTORIAN. Keep the ball rolling. If the people get fully aroused on this plan for united action a railroad will run into Astoria in a year. All we have to do is to get a reliable bonus into the hands of one man as trustee and he can talk business with the people who build railroads, one of whom is J. H. Smith.

Excitement

Runs high at J. W. Conn's drug store over System Builder, as everybody is using it for Catarrh of the stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Impure Blood, and to build up the system it certainly possesses wonderful merit when all speak so well of it.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success.

It is verified by the fact that nearly everybody eats at Jeff's New restaurant.

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF ELIZA.

A Street Episode in Which Shots Were Fired.

A man pursued by bullets fled up Fifth street about 7 o'clock last evening, and caused considerable excitement, and a big sensation. The man's name is Andrew Schuring, and the man that sent the bullets after him is a Mr. Greer, who resides with his young wife on Olney street near Fifth. It appears from Greer's statement that Mrs. Greer, whose Christian name is Eliza, has been the object of his suspicion, and last evening he set out to watch his better half. She has been employed in a down town hotel for some time past, and as Greer claims, was in the habit of meeting Schuring on the street.

Be this as it may, Schuring and Mrs. Greer met last evening in front of Bain's mills on Fifth and Genevive streets.

The salution of "good evening" was punctuated by a pistol shot which was followed by two others, and Schuring left hastily as stated. The shots attracted Deputy Sheriff Kenney, but as no one seemed to want to make a complaint, and as Schuring was over the hills, no arrests were made.

H. H. Bancroft.

It is a source of pleasure and pride to Pacific Coast people to know that our own historian, Hubert Howe Bancroft, stands in the very front rank of America's distinguished literary men. That wonderful historical series, which it has taken so many years to complete, has made him famous the world over. A brilliant array of eminent scholars of Europe and America, including Herbert Spencer, Huxley, Dr. John W. Draper, Emerson, Bryant, Holmes, Howells, Wendell Phillips, Whittier, Longfellow, Sir Arthur Helps and scores of others whose names are familiar to book loving people, have come forward and testified to their appreciation of his genius. Diplomas and complimentary certificates from scientific and literary institutions have been showered upon him. Yale college has conferred the honorary degree of Master of Arts. That powerful and independent journal, the famous London Times, The Thunderer, devoted two whole columns to a review of Bancroft's works, and England's most dignified journals discussed at length each separate volume as it appeared. Now comes the news that Hubert Howe Bancroft has received a number of votes for a place among the "Immortals," an honor that those who know what the "Immortals" are, will appreciate.

A new work which the author has been engaged on for years has just appeared from Mr. Bancroft's pen. It is called "Literary Industries," and is the graphic story of a great achievement told by a master hand. The nature of the work is such that it will have a remarkable sale, especially on this coast, where many of the people mentioned are well known. The work is to be sold by subscription, and the publishers want responsible agents to receive orders. We call attention to their advertisement under Help Wanted.

Burglars Foiled Again.

Three burglars broke into Herman Wise's big clothing store in the Occident hotel building and leisurely proceeded to pack off a lot of the finest cloths, when our ever vigilant police force swooped down upon them, they didn't attempt to escape at all, for having noticed how low these fine goods were marked down, they concluded that it was cheaper to buy than steal them, and get a chance in the drawing for those elegant Xmas presents besides.

It is a mistake to try to cure catarrh by using local applications. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system.

The County Court.

I will be at the Occident hotel every Thursday, from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M. when I can be seen by any one having business with the county court.

WHY DID HE GO?

A St. Louis Merchant's Trip to the Postoffice, and the Result.

California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 122 and 124 North Commercial Street, was one of the first to test Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches. Its effect was such a gratifying surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thos. P. Culkin, sup't of the registry division, who was also worried with headaches. The following letter details his friend's experience also:—

POSTOFFICE, ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20, 1890.
J. V. S. BARRETT, ESQ.:—
DEAR SIR: You ask me, Did I act on your advice? I did, and have to thank you. For years I have suffered from indigestion and headaches. Taking your advice, I purchased a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Before I had finished it I could eat almost anything with impunity, and have been since rarely troubled with a headache of any kind, for which I give due credit to your advice and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.
Yours, etc.,
THOS. P. CULKIN,
Sup't Registry Division, Postoffice.

AN ECZEMA 17 YEARS.

Cured in 8 Weeks. One of the Greatest Cures Ever Performed by the Cuticura Remedies.

At the age of three months a rash (which afterwards proved to be eczema or salt rheum) made its appearance on my face. Physician after physician was called. None of them did me any good at all, but made me worse. The disease continued unabated; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely, and from continually sitting on the floor on a pillow, my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all, and had to wear a sort of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off, and my head, face and ears were one scab. The disease continued in this manner until I was seventeen years old, and one day in January, 1879, I read an account in the Tribune of your CUTICURA REMEDIES. It described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial. When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself, but I went asleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing. In about two weeks I could stand straight but not walk, I was so weak; but my sores were nearly well. As near as I can judge, the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me in about six to eight weeks, and up to this date (i. e., from January, 1879, to January, 1887) I have not been sick in any way, or have had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me.
