"Can I use your telephone a moment?" asked a lady, stepping into a drug store. "Certainly," said the polite drug man, and he engineered her to the back part of the store, past counters and bottles, to the telephone itself. "I cannot reach it," she said anxiously. "Can I telephone for you?" asked the druggist, with one eye on his store. "Yes. Please call up Smith & Blank's drug store, and tell them to send Mrs. —— a box of mustard leaves and a pourous plaster. I have an account there," she kindly explained to the paralyzed druggist.

The Bicycle Buggy.

This unique contrivance is made with two large wheels and the horse travels between them, while the driver sits high up over the axle and the horse's haunches. It is claimed that the contrivance enables a trotting horse to make better time.

The advantage of the thing lies in the placing of the driver's weight in a place where the horse will less feel it, and in the better control that it gives him over the horse. His weight rests on the axle-tree, from which rises a bent band of iron covered with leather and supporting the seat. His feet are braced against the fore part of the sulky, where a railing runs for their support, and the only thing which apparently keeps him from turning over backward is the bit in the horse's mouth and the reins in his hands. The sensation to the driver is almost that of a rider in a saddle, and the man who owns one of these new inventions can enjoy at one and the same time the pleasure of a rider, driver and bicycler.

Cause of Rheumatism.

The supreme importance of purifying the blood and restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, has been a subject of great study, the results of which have enabled us to present to the afflicted, Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup. By cures unprecedented, it has proven its right to the title of "The Greatest Rheumatic remedy ever discovered." For sale by J. W. Conn.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,

BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.
