A MINISTER IN A JURY ROOM.

Queer Proceeding in a Murder Case in a Kansas Court.

VERDICT OF GUILTY REACHED

Special by The United Press.

WICHITA, Kans., Dec. 18.—The jury in the case of Nellie Mayers, charged with robbing John Yost, and then throwing him, while he was in a drunken stupor, from the third story of a house of ill repute had been out fifty-two hours last night, when Judge Balderson announced his determination to have a verdict before morning.

He did not reveal his plan but at 3 A. M. he took Rev. N. E. Harmon to the court house.

The bailiff ushered the reverend gentleman into the jury room and Mr. Harmon then commenced religious services, the jury joining in the singing. He then delivered an hour's discourse on the immortality of souls, and after a closing prayer left the jury to themselves.

When court opened this morning the bailiff announced that the jury had arrived at a verdict. It was "guilty."

One of the jurors said the verdict was reached on the first ballot after the close of the religious services.

The defence will appeal the case alleging misconduct on the part of the judge and the bailiff.

The Farmer's Alliance.

The official enumeration of the number of members of the National Farmers' Alliance—the organization which recently held a convention at Ocala, Fla.—was undertaken last July, and the results at that time were as follows:

Maryland	5,000	Nebraska	65,000
Virginia	70,000	Minnesota	50,000
N. Carolina	100,000	Alabama	75,000
S. Carolina	50,000	Mississippi	60,000
Georgia	100,000	Louisiana	50,000
Florida	20,000	Texas	150,000
Kansas	100,000	Tennessee	100,000
S. Dakota	50,000	Kentucky	80,000
N. Dakota	40,000	New Mexico	5,000
Indiana	5,000	Colorado	5,000
Illinois	2,000	West Virginia	2,000
Arkansas	100,000	Pennsylvania	500
Missouri	150,000
Total			1,220,500

At that time the Alliance in New York, New Jersey, California and Ohio were not yet fully organized, but their membership was roughly estimated as follows: New York, 500; New Jersey, 500; California, 1,000; Ohio, 300.

The National Alliance has elected its candidate for governor in Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee and Nebraska, and claims to hold the balance of power in the selection of six United States senators. There will be forty-four alliance men in the new congress.

The Alliance is semi-secret in its workings and bare certain professions and trades from membership. The following classes are ineligible: Bankers, merchants, brokers, commission dealers, buyers of cotton, grain and produce, lawyers, city doctors, preachers and school teachers, land and book agents, canvassers, livery-stable keepers, speculators and gamblers. To this list of eligibles ought to be added professional politicians.

"Back Numbers."

There is a class of people in every community which can be categoried as a "back numbers," who, instead of exerting themselves to forward the welfare and prosperity of their respective localities find it their way to cry down every movement, public or private, calculated to increase the population, wealth and the industries of the community. They deem it their duty to convey to the world the dismal information that, the country and especially that particular portion in which they reside is going to the "dogs" with lightning rapidity. Should a progressive citizen contemplate encouraging attention in anyway to the section in which he is interested, there is sure to be a howl of disgust from the "back number" crowd, and the chances are that the former will become so thoroughly dissatisfied that the effort will "die abornio." It is to this class people belong, who seldom go out of their way to spend a dollar at home. What care they for home institutions? But the weeding out of this unprogressive, improvement-preventing clan is only a question of time, for the development of varied resources throughout the states is becoming greater every month in the year, and with this comes a class whose whole heart is bound in making each individual effort one of benefit to the community. Home institutions should receive that encouragement which is the due of honest, legitimate business propositions, and in no way can this be better done than in making a primary start by supporting those who have invested capital in local enterprises, whether they be mercantile or manufacturing.—Grocer and Country Merchant.

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsom Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.
