Christmas Gift-Making.

Special to The Astorian.

Baltimore, Dec. 22.—Agents of the Johnston line of steamships have almost given up all hope of ever hearing again from the steamer Thanemore, which left here on November 25th for London with a cargo of cattle, grain and general merchandise.

The probabilities are that the steamer was caught in the great hurricane which swept the western At-Christmas gifts-are there new sugand above all, not to turn a beautiful pleasure into an imperious burden. Another condition of blessing deserves The Thanemore had first, second and third officers, chief engineer and a crew of about twenty men, besides there were a number of cattle men aboard to attend to 430 cattle which composed part of the cargo. Her officers and crew were all English, but the cattlemen were Americans.

The steamer Oranmore, Captain W. Johnston Moffatt, bound to this city from London, via Boston, is also many days overdue at the latter port. It is feared she has met a similar fate.

Another condition of blessing deserves a paragraph to itself—that whoever is forgotten or left out, it shall not be the walllower people, struggling folk, those to whom few pleasures come, those who dare not reckon up their needs, even. To give wisely and delicities. Only those who have at some time or other been in the position of the needy, anxious struggler who could make no gifts, and longed to be forgotten or left out, it shall not be the walllower people, struggling folk, those to whom few pleasures come, those who dare not reckon up their needs, even. To give wisely and delicities. Only those who have at some time or other been in the position of the cargo, the wall lower people, struggling folk, those to whom few pleasures come, those to whom few pleasures come, those who dare not reckon up their needs, even.
