San Francisco, Dec. 29.—Suit has been commenced in the United States circuit court by the United States government against the Southern Pacific Company, the Central Pacific Railway, Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company.

This is one of a series of suits, the first of which was filed some time ago. The first suit included the Southern Pacific Company, Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company. Similar suits have been filed in other circuit courts in different parts of the United States. The purpose of the suit last begun in this circuit is to compel the several companies enumerated to operate their own lines of railroad and telegraph under their own franchises and to set aside the leases made in violation of the terms agreed upon with the government.
