The statement is often made nowadays that the memory of George Washington. whose birthday we celebrate today, will grow dim as the years roll on, and a parallel is drawn from the short lived picked it up and led it into active life. As long as we have our thoughts of country and the spirit of patriotism existing every little incident of that great hero's life will be eagerly sought for and as eagerly cherished.

In another column will be found an ex planation by President Fulton of his ac disposing of the Durham ballot day of the session at Salem. It is a clean statement and absolutely gives the lie direct to the false charges made in the editorial columns of the Portland Telegram, Dispatch, Marion County Dem ocrat and other democratic sheets that have chosen to revile and throw mud at the best presiding officer the Oregon sen ate ever had.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adop-tion of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime-of overwork.
