

ABOUT THE CITY.

Light rains during today.

A full-fledged cannery's association at last.

G. W. Carl has been excused as a juror for the term.

Albert Beyer, a native of Germany was admitted to citizenship yesterday.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Warren Strom and Lena Weikala.

Mr. Wallace McCamant, of the Portland bar, was in attendance at court yesterday.

The steamer Oregon brought a thousand boxes of tin-plate for the Pacific Can Company, yesterday.

A happy device for discouraging times is that on a Chinese laundry sign in Astoria: "Sing Yet."

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kronquist will be buried from the family residence at 1:30 this afternoon.

The first issue of the Beaverton Chronicle published in Beaverton, Washington county, reached the Astorian yesterday.

Thorough repairs are being made to the Astoria Box Factory, and it is the intention to start the mill up on orders about March 6th.

The bond of W. W. Parker as assignee of the estate of Parker & Hanson, in the sum of $80,000, was laid yesterday with John Hobson as surety.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Astoria Savings Bank, held Monday last, the following persons were elected directors: I. W. Case, C. H. Page, F. J. Taylor, J. Q. A. Bowley, Ben. Young, Gust. Holmes, and A. S. Reed.

S. H. Smith, Kalama; J. Waylure, San Francisco; W. M. Black, Chinook; J. D. Meyer, Portland; Charles E. Baker, Boston; Wallace McCamant, Portland; A. P. Bradbury, Portland; Royal T. Heath, San Francisco; I. L. Cohn, J. Brigham, and M. Corrick, Portland, are registered at the Occident.

The Clatsop mill is employing about eighty-five men. Present orders are nearly completed and the manager states that the mill may close down soon, as the market is very dull, and there is no demand, foreign or domestic, worth mentioning. Freight rates from Astoria to points for railway shipment are so high that Astoria lumber is effectively shut out of markets to the east.

The following officers were elected yesterday by the members of the Columbia River Packers' Association. M. J. Kinney, president; J. G. Megler, vice-president; George H. George, secretary. Executive committee: J. G. Megler, chairman; G. A. Nelson, J. O. Hanthorn, directors: M. J. Kinney, J. G. Megler, B. A. Seaborg, P. M. Warren, G. Nelson, George H. George, W. T. Chutter, and S. Elmore.

The dance at Fort Canby this evening will be in every way an enjoyable event. It is strange how such a stupid statement as the one that objectionable people were to be present, could have received any credence, and it is hardly necessary to say that the whisper had no foundation in truth. Every preparation has been made for a splendid night's enjoyment, and no doubt the affair will take rank as one of the many successes of the present winter season.

If you want some extra fine photos, Moore's is the place to get them.

The scene along Fifth street as established last fall in Astoria, is one of chaos. Scattered in reckless disorder are planks, water pipes, street timbers, foundations of houses, ruins of front yards, fences and fancy flower gardens. Yet the work of putting the street in passable condition is going on, for some of the residents there, while not exactly "making hay while the sun shines," are making street while the water falls. A stream of water from the hills to the south is taken in a sluice box over the lots to be graded, and as fast as from five to ten men can throw in the earth, it is carried down and spread in the street, or the lots that are to be filled. Many thousands of cubic yards of earth have thus been cheaply removed, and by and by there will be a fine street, when the work is completed.

Do not be deceived with cheap pictures, but get your work done at Crow's gallery and you will not regret it.

Yesterday's Washington exercises at the Court Street School were well worth hearing, and it is a pity that so few of the parents and friends of the pupils attended. In the high school Professor Wright gave an interesting and instructive address on Washington, and John McHugh, Will Levings and Andrew Dalgaty read essays touching the various sides of his life, as a soldier, patriot, man, and president. Several recitations and songs from the young lady pupils helped to make the entertainment most enjoyable. In Rooms One and Two, the special exercises were carried out splendidly in every detail. Both rooms were nicely decorated and the youngsters gave ample evidence of close training by the manner in which they drilled and sang their parts. A dozen little fellows armed with little hatchets sang an impossible little song about our own immortal George and the cherry tree, and the "red white and blue" symbols displayed in the costumes of other small performers were woven round with song and story, very pleasant to listen to.

The steam laundry opposite and south of the Clatsop Mill Co.'s mess house is turning out some nice work. The polish on the shirt bosoms, collars and cuffs done by this laundry is as fine as could be wished. Give them your washings for a trial and see if you do not think it better than giving the money to Chinamen or to people in a distant city. Patronize home industry when they give you good work.

Mr. J. C. Trullinger has received the following communication from George E. Willis, secretary of the Duluth Board of Trade. The letter was asked for to settle a dispute on the grain question that occurred in the legislature last week:

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 8th inst. addressed to the Postmaster, Duluth, Minn., has been referred to me by Mr. J. D. Howard, postmaster of this city. In reply I would say, that wheat is shipped in vessels from this city in bulk, not in sacks. Cargoes vary from 50,000 to 100,000 bushels. Many of the vessels are bulk-headed into compartments, designated "forward," "middle" and "aft" hatch or hold, some of the steamers having compartments that hold just 8,000 bushels (for an Erie canal boat load). All grain received here comes in cars, in bulk (not sacks). Cars contain from 500 to 600 bushels, are weighed, inspected, and graded by state officials, and grain of same grades is massed together in elevators, regardless of the shipper or consignee, and grain receipts issued for same, which are negotiable the title to the grain being at all times in the holder of the receipt.

Here is an open letter to Hon. Charles H. Woodward, the brave and noble senator who has turned democrat in the last seven days, and who took it on himself to call Senator Fulton's conduct "unmanly." It is from Mr. Francis I. McKenna:

Will you explain why you voted for the Manly bridge bill every time it came to a vote in the senate, before Henry Failing, H. W. Corbett, and Boss Simon came to Salem? You voted for the bill when it passed the senate and went to the executive officer for a veto. You voted to make it a special order for a certain hour. In short, you never failed to vote for the bill every time you had an opportunity till Failing appeared on the scene. You said in your speech against its passage over the veto that you promoted the Albin people to help them get a free bridge. Will you now tell them why you made yourself an Ananias by voting against their interests when you had an opportunity to make your word good? Have you the moral courage to frankly tell those people that you were badgered into voting against the bill in order to help your financial credit at home? Or will you confess yourself an ass, and say that you did not know what you were doing when you made the promise to the Albin people? Or will you say that you were willing and ready to sell your soul for the title of senator, and made promises you never intended to fulfill?

The following communication has been sent to the local chamber of commerce: Astoria, Or., Feb. 24, 1893.

Whereas the legislature of the state of Oregon, at its last session appropriated the sum of $50,000. For an exhibit of the state's resources at the World's Fair at Chicago, and provided that one of said commissioners should be a member of the Columbia River Packers' Association, and Whereas, the chamber of commerce of Astoria forwarded a communication to us, requesting us to name a proper person to represent the fishing interests on said commission, and we thereupon named such person Mr. J. W. Cook, of Portland, and

Whereas, the governor of this state has appointed George T. Myers as the representative of the fishing interest, and as the only interest the said George T. Myers has in the fishing industry is on Puget Sound, in the state of Washington, and is not a member of the Columbia River Packers' Association, therefore be it Resolved, that we protest against Geo. T. Myers representing the interests of the Columbia River Packers' of Oregon, on the World's Fair commission, and favor the appointment of Mr. J. W. Cook.

We respectfully call your attention to the facts as above stated, and petition your favorable action in the appointment of Mr. J. W. Cook.

Columbia River Packers' Association. Signed, J. G. MEGLER, GEO. H. GEORGE, Pres. Pro Tem. Secretary Pro Tem.

The wonderful hair producing medicines, remarks the Moro Observer, which are so largely advertised nowadays, and illustrated with portraits "before using" and "after using," fade into insignificance when we gaze at the new Columbian postage stamps. The one cent stamp represents "Columbus in sight of land," his face being innocent of any hair covering; but on the two cent stamp, which shows the "Landing of Columbus," which must have been less than twelve hours later, the great discoverer appears with a full beard. The great question now agitating the minds of historical students is "Columbus, where did you get that beard?"

The editor of the North Yamhill Leader, in his efforts to raise money enough to buy a pair of pants, has perpetrated the following poetic effusion:

Lives of poor men oft remind us; honest men don't stand a chance; the more we work there grows behind us larger patches on our pants. On our pants once new in glory, now are stripes of different hue; all because subscribers linger and won't pay us what is due. Then let us be up and doing; send in your mite, however small, or when snow of winter strikes us, we will have no pants at all.

I upon a hassock low, Watching o'er her face the rosy Cupid dimples come and go; She within a rocker dozy, For the lover's freight lightened Every blush with ardent bold, And her locks of brown were brightened Into gold.

Like the fabulous "Jack Horner" Of the merry nursery page, Gleeeful from a dusky corner Grinned an idol, gray with age; And he through his dark lips muttered, "What I longed to there say," "Tell her," were the words he uttered, "Tell her now!"

Then there fell a silence sweeter Than when air is stirred with song, Than when strains in mellow meter Swing with rhythmic sweep along. In her eyes a look beguiling Bade me not to break the spell: Something told me in her smiling All was well.

Crow's gallery is the place to have your photos taken. His work is acknowledged to be the best.

THE PILOT BILL

Despite the opposition of the U. P., Campbell's Pilot Bill has passed, and once more our pilots will be enabled to make a decent living.

Prosperity for one class is to the benefit of all; there's no gain in sending money out of town, or by patronizing concerns who bring their old trash here and take our good money away from us.

If you believe in building up your town, trade with your home merchants, who stand by you in hard times as well as when times are good.

You cannot possibly do better than by trading with the Reliable Clothier, Herman Wise, because his stock is first-class and his prices are very reasonable.

The World's Fair Directors

Have 5,000,000 Souvenir Half Dollar Coins in their treasury, the gift of the American people by Act of Congress. The patriotic and historic features of these Coins and their limited number, compared with the millions who want them—our population is 66,000,000—have combined to create so great a demand for these World's Fair Souvenir Coins that they are already quoted at large premiums. Liberal offers from speculators, who wish to absorb them and reap enormous profits, have been rejected for the reason that

This is the People's Fair-- We Are the People's Servants-- and a divided sense of duty confronts us--

We need $5,000,000 to fully carry out our announced plans, and

We have decided to deal direct with the people--To whom we are directly responsible--among whom an equitable distribution of these National heirlooms should be made.

The World's Fair Offer to the American People:

That none of our plans for the people's profit be curtailed we must realize from the sale of 5,000,000 Souvenir World's Fair Fifty-cent Silver Coins the sum of $5,000,000. This means $1.00 for each Coin, a much smaller sum than the people would have to pay for them if purchased through an indirect medium. Every patriotic man, woman and child should endeavor to own and cherish one of these Coins, as they will be valuable in future years—a cherished object of family pride.

Remember that only 5,000,000 Coins must be divided among 66,000,000 people. These Coins could be sold at a high premium to Syndicates, but we have enough confidence in the people to keep the price at a Dollar for each Coin, as this will make us realize $5,000,000—the sum needed to open the Fair's gates on the people's broad plan.

How to Get The Coins
