the people of Topeka haven't shown a disposition to do as the "people," meaning the populists, wish them to. Of course this action simply means that they will remove themselves, bag and baggage—consisting mostly of paper collars and flasks—out of Topeka. They have as much power to select a new capital and accept a new capitol for the whole people as Cannanville would have to move the county seat from Brooklyn to that place.

Mrs. McKenzie has returned from up river. Mrs. R. B. Dyer, of South Bend, is in town.
