

The Daily Astorian. PUBLISHED BY Astorian-Columbia Publishing Company. ASTORIA, OREGON. ASTORIAN BUILDING, - - - CASS STREET

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m., yesterday, furnished by the U. S. department of agriculture, weather bureau: Maximum temperature, 46 degrees. Minimum temperature, 37 degrees.

This paper has the largest circulation on the Columbia river. An honest and complete telegraphic report gives a newspaper a right and title to the name.

Yesterday morning the case of libel against the editor of this paper for calling Sidney Dell a liar and a falseher was dismissed, and today we feel it a duty we owe ourselves to speak of the matter freely and fully.

The jury returned into court with a disagreement, but with a two thirds majority in support of our statements. It is a pleasant thing to know, as our friends yesterday showed us very plainly, that such a result was a complete vindication of our course and an absolute condemnation of this conceited, egotistical fool, whose true character has at last been successfully and publicly exposed.

The charge of Judge McBride to the jury was an absolutely fair statement of facts, and he must allow us to thank him for his ruling that whenever a newspaper finds a case of flagrant wrong doing and evil, it is its duty and privilege to expose it and give it the widest circulation.

This we have always done, and this we will continue to do as long as the Astorian exists. If public officials in the honest exercise of their duty are again maligned and attacked as they were by this cowardly "lawyer," they will always find our columns behind them to support and encourage their acts.

Our readers can rest assured that no fear of libel actions, or of the work of spiteful bumpkins foisted into a position of temporary power will prevent us from doing our duty.

The populist party of Kansas, or more properly, the organized Anarchists of the grasshopper and sunflower state, has received a setback that ought to finish them. After resorting to force in support of their attempted fraud, and evading all reference to it, they have been compelled to bow to the decision of these courts.

The decision of the supreme court of Kansas that the "Douglass" House was the legal one, was at first received by the "Dunsmore" House in a surly and recalcitrant temper, and the more hot headed among them talked of disobeying the mandates of the court; but, crazy as the populists have been, it appears they are not all afflicted with a suicidal mania, and political suicide it would be for them to hold out longer against the expressed will of the people and the law in the case. The defeated populists who were declared by the Dunsmore House as "elected," can now flock by themselves somewhere outside of Kansas.

At least five millions of voters have professed the deepest love for silver. Suppose they take twenty dollars each in silver certificates and draw the coin—that would be one hundred millions of silver dollars in circulation. Then suppose Mr. Carlisle is authorized to sell the $102,973,771.21 gold value of silver in the London market and replenish with gold. We ought to get $100,000,000 gold, and hold it in reserve for the treasury notes of '90.

There is in the treasury, greenbacks, $32,506,273.81, and gold certificates, $7,782,250, or more than $40,000,000 greenbacks and gold certificates. This is precisely the equivalent of gold, and add to it the gold coin and bars and we have over $250,000,000 gold, greenbacks and gold certificates on hand.

There are also in the treasury, silver certificates, $6,782,250; and national bank notes, $5,578,127.53. The general result is that we have nearly seven hundred and fifty millions of cash on hand. There is a good deal of paper out, to be sure, but the people seem to want it. We presume the democracy can so break down the public credit as to get the treasury into trouble, but there is no need to do so.

Mohamet, Mohammed, or Muhammad Alexander Russell Webb—it doesn't matter how you spell his name—the old Christian but young Turk, to paraphrase Sir Walter Ralegh, isn't half as big a man as old Brigham Young, though he squinted in the same direction.

He is said to be a man of "limited intelligence and education." It looks that way, certainly. But every one to his liking. If a man hasn't brains enough to be a Christian, let him be a Turk, or a Theosoph, or a fetish-worshiper, Christianity is the religion of progress and of humanity.

Woman's condition is elevated by it as never before in the history of the world. Islamism denies her the possession of a soul, and keeps her enslaved. Brigham Young was cunning enough, in all his polygamous teaching, to accord a future state to woman, in keeping with the spirit of the age.

Turk Webb will not make any converts among American women, and very few among the men of the race. He has hit the wrong field. No smart Yankee wants to wear a lot of shawls and towels on his head, or a petticoat around his feet, as a Turk, even if he does admire a pretty woman.

Mr. Webb is wasting valuable time in America, and putting in work that won't count.
