C. H. COOPER,

The Leading and Largest House in Astoria.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Church bells today. This may bring fair weather.

The timber exhibit for the World's Fair from Clatsop county is daily growing larger.

There have been placed in the sheriff's office three revolving desks for the accommodation of the tax roll books.

It is believed that the steam laundry has successfully overcome its difficulties and will begin business next week.

Rev. Mr. Rayfield, of Portland, will address the regular gospel meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Tom McGarth, who was arrested for disturbing the peace at the Liverpool boarding house, forfeited his bail yesterday.

Seaside Lodge, A. O. U. W. met last night and initiated twelve new members, six for the J. W. dekre and six for M. W. Seven applications for membership were received.

The brickyard of Messrs. Mays & Thayer, on the Lewis and Clarke, will be sold at public auction on the premises on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Constable Oberg will conduct the sale.

Sheriff Smith yesterday got the county tax roll for collection. It amounts to $125,483.70, a sum much larger than it has ever totalled before on account of the resumption of a certain portion of the state tax.

If you want some extra fine photos, Mooers' is the place to get them.

Who killed Shideler? It is rumored that a warrant is to be issued on suspicion against Spagoletti in a few days. When Spagoletti was last heard from, he announced his intention of following the murdered man to South Bend with a club.

First-class piano for rent. Enquire of Griffin & Reed.

Astoria firemen will be interested to know that Chief Holman, of the Portland fire department, has made a test of patent shut-off nozzles, and was satisfied with the result. The nozzle was attached to poor hose, and full pressure was applied without bursting. The nozzle will be adopted by the department. With its use a hose can be taken through a room without throwing water, except where necessary.

Do not be deceived with cheap pictures, but get your work done at Crow's gallery and you will not regret it.

An esteemed subscriber came into the office yesterday and said that he objected to the conclusions drawn in the editorial columns of The Astorian from the legend of St. Patrick. He admitted, however, that this would be a sorry world if people always had the same notions, and illustrated his theory by stating that, if this were the case, to cite the remark of an Indian Chief, "Everybody would be wanting my squaw."

Columbia Tender Company No. 3, will give a bal April 8th, at Columbia cannery. All invited.

A meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union was held at Liberty hall last night. There were a large number of fishermen present. The main subject under discussion was the fixing of a price on salmon for the coming season. Several speeches were made on the subject, many of those present advocating a $1.25 rate. Milder counsel prevailed, however, and it was finally decided to stand by a rate of $1.15 per fish. Two men in the hall spoke for a $1.50 rate and had to be removed from the meeting. It will be seen by a notice in another column that the Union intends to make public at once the result of the conference. It is not known what the cannery will do in the matter, but as some of them claim that the price fixed only leaves a margin of about 30 cents per case, it is believed that there will be a good deal of trouble.

County and state taxes are now due and payable at the sheriff's office, and will be delinquent the first Monday in April. H. A. Smith, Sheriff.

The Rescue club met as usual last night. President I. W. Crawford was in the chair. Rev. F. K. Van Tassel opened the meeting with prayer. There was a very large audience, nearly fifty persons being unable to find seats. The following program was well rendered: Violin solo, Freeman Parker; song, "Throw Out the Life Line," Louis Reyfield; recitation, Oh Dear, Those Ladies," Miss Lolita Grange; piano solo, Mrs. J. K. Wirt; song, "My Dear Old Home," Misses Laura Fox and Irene Johnson; piano solo, Miss Eva Shively; address, Mr. L. Rayfield; song, "Bread and Cheese and Kisses," F. Parker. The singer was loudly encored and had to respond with "Three Crows Sat on a Tree," and "Nance."

E. W. Kaykendall, the undertaker, embalmer and funeral director, has his parlors in the Welch block, No. 78, Water street. Call up telephone No. 7.

Henry Loomis, the young man who was arrested some days ago for disturbing the peace of the Salvation Army, was tried before Judge Cleveland yesterday. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago he was tried for the same offense and acquitted. Yesterday the following jury heard the case: Messrs. J. W. Jeune, Ed. Hughes, Wade Hampton Smith, Ullenhart, Abercrombie and Roberts. The evidence, which lasted all day, showed very clearly that the charges were true, and the witnesses for the prosecution who were heard, testified that the prisoner was a man who made it a practice of disturbing and trying to break up their gatherings. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty in accordance with the facts. Judge Cleveland sentenced Loomis to 60 days' imprisonment in the county jail.

Swope & Slater will be pleased to furnish estimates on interior decoration to all who call or address 459 Fourth street.

Shideler, the individual who worked a "gold" watch game on this community who was business manager of the Evening Bucket, president of the Blue Jay club, and the leader of that great moral uprising known as the "citizens' movement," and who then left the city owing money everywhere and deserted his destitute wife and family without a word, is accounted for. The Bucket, a vile sheet that only lives to foist such a class of men as this Shideler on the community, has discovered that he has been foully dealt with, and with sickening hypocrisy for his own unblushing he says: "May the Lord have mercy on the villains that had a hand in it." Let them be in no danger that such a swift retribution has met him. In a few months the news will come of the formation of another citizens' party in some portion of the country, the foundation of one more watch game, the loan of another man's rings and diamonds, and then another ekip.

See Swope & Slater about your spring work. They are the swiftest, cheapest and best paperhangers and decorators on the coast.

The Astorian has been asked to publish the following appeal to the women of Oregon, from Mrs. Payton, World's Fair commissioner of the women's department, at Salem:

"The Women's Department of the Oregon World's Fair commission is now advancing the work as rapidly as possible, and as the time for collecting the exhibit to be made at the World's Columbian Exposition is limited, all persons interested in securing a creditable display in the line of the work of Oregon women, are earnestly urged to lend their assistance and co-operation in accomplishing this result. To this end, those who possess articles coming within this department are requested to place themselves at once in communication with the superintendent. The women's exhibit at Chicago is intended to be an inspiration of woman's genius, showing the evolution and progress of woman's industries from the earliest times to the present. It is desired that Oregon shall have a representative exhibit in this department, comprising the work of women in the fine arts, household economy, and the products thereof, charitable, and philanthropic work inaugurated and carried on by women, books written by women, fine needle and fancy work, curios, and rare specimens collected by women, and their work in all the varied occupations in which they are engaged; also as far as possible, statistics as to the amount of women's work, whether wholly or in part, that enters into every exhibit, and interesting data concerning the same. Persons wishing to make exhibits in this department will please communicate immediately with the superintendent, Mrs. Mary J. Train, of Albany, Oregon, and thereby assist in hastening the work forward."

Ryan & Co. 537, Third street, have just received a full line of 1893 patterns in wall paper, and comprising all the latest designs and shades, at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

The Daily Astorian will be delivered on the Ilwaco-Seaside route this season by Homer Fletcher, if a young man who has been in our employ for over a year. Mr. Fletcher also has the Daily Oregonian to deliver on the above named route, and he will attend to all orders or errands that may be entrusted to him. The proprietor of this paper takes pleasure in recommending Mr. Fletcher as honest and reliable.
