MILLIONS FIGHTING MILLIONS

Wheat Kings Trying Each Other's Strength in Chicago.

BIGGEST WHEAT DEAL ON RECORD

Great Republican Tariff Banquet at Canton, Ohio—Cleveland Promises an Extra Session.

Associated Press.

Chicago, March 29.—There were lively times at the board of trade shortly after noon, in view of the evident corner in May wheat here, which has held that future far above parity with other markets for several weeks, and has rendered shipments impossible, thereby filling all the elevators in the city to bursting.

The board of directors at a secret session last night decided that a storage emergency exists, and extra emergency houses will now be created as applications are made and the necessity presents itself. This fact was not known until about noon. When the clique began to sell, however, and the action of the board became known, there was a great rush to buy, and the price went off in great jumps, tumbling within a few minutes from $2 3/4 to 75 3/4, but at the bottom, the shorts who sold on the way down began to take profits, and there was quite a rapid recovery to 75, but later the market weakened again and closed at 78 5/8.

The clique has been selling for two or three days and it is supposed they got rid of over three millions. Today business is almost paralyzed for the time. Rumors are current of large private settlements by the clique. In the excitement of the break, much wheat was thrown on the market on stop loss orders.

John and Michael Cudahy, rich pork packers are at the head of the clique, with many other wealthy Chicago and New York men. The deal is the most gigantic in the history of the grain trade, and mighty accumulations of capital are arrayed against each other. It is said the clique controlled eleven million bushels of contract wheat and are ready to take as much more if storage room can be found for it. In comparison with high prices here today it was 18 cents lower in St. Louis, 18 1/2 in Duluth, 17 in Minneapolis, 12 in Toledo, and 8 in New York. The big shorts, Ed. Partridge and Arthur Orr, are said to have been driven in and that they have settled with the clique on private terms.

REPUBLICAN TARIFF BANQUET.

Distinguished Politicians Present Declare Their Party Allegiance.

Canton, Ohio, March 29.—The republican tariff banquet here tonight was a political success, four hundred guests being present from various cities in Ohio. Governor McKinley occupied the post of honor at the first table. Letters of regret were read from ex-President Harrison, Senator Sherman and others. With the exception of that of Senator Sherman, letters of regret contained no significant utterances. Senator Sherman took occasion to discuss the financial question. He said:

"What was needed was a honest currency and his experience had shown him that the notes of the National banks secured by an equal or greater amount of United States bonds, formed by far the best currency that had yet been devised. In conclusion, he said, the real solution of the silver problem is to put into our silver dollar enough silver at market value to be equal to the gold dollar and maintain all forms of money whether coin or note of equal and interchangeable value."

Governor McKinley responded to the toast "The Republican Presidents."

Governor McKinley in the course of his address reviewed the life and services of various republican presidents. Speaking of Harrison, he said his administration was pure, vigorous and patriotic and his own contemporaries will give him his true place in history. "The country," said McKinley, "needs the republican party for its principles, and policies underlie every American interest and are allied with its true growth and advance since 1859. Until now the democratic party have been without power to do anything with public measures without the sanction of the republican party. Now they have full possession. There is no longer any excuse for pretense; no longer any room for hypocrisy; if they believe in their own professions of the last thirty years, they can now make them effective. There is no cause for discouragement on our part, we have but to move on with our old-time vigor, yielding nothing of principle."

PUGH FAVORS MANTLE.

Washington, March 29.—In the senate today Pugh spoke in favor of the admission of Mantle as senator from Montana. The matter went over till tomorrow.

Pugh argued from the debates in the constitutional convention that the existence of a vacancy from any cause "was a crucial test of the power of the governor to fill a vacancy."

"Vacancy happened," he argued, "if it existed. In illustration of the possible evils that might result from prohibiting governors from filling vacancies in the senate, Pugh said that the force bill would now be law if one senator opposed to it had been kept out of his seat by the operation of such a rule. Three or more political parties, he said, existed by regular organization in several states. These parties favored specific principles and policies that were fundamental and irreconcilable. Was it right in such a case for the senate to establish tyrannical rules that these parties should surrender their opinions and convictions and disregard their pledges and fidelity to their constituents and come to some agreement for the election of a senator.

A lengthy discussion followed in which numerous contentions were made and argued, many of the senators indicating their concurrence with the views of the minority, adverse to the admission of the senators. The matter then went over until tomorrow, Mitchell having the floor to defend the minority report.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

Washington, March 29.—President Cleveland has intimated to a number of senators that he will call an extra session of congress to consider the tariff question, sometime in September.

THE SITUATION AT ANTLERS.

Another Battle at Any Moment is Feared.

Paris, Tex., March 29.—The relations between the rival Choctaw factions are still strained to the utmost. It is believed that another battle will be fought at Antlers in a few hours. The eighteen militiamen arrested there last night had a hearing before the United States commissioners here today. As soon as they were released they bought a new Winchester each, and then "tankered up" on whisky and boarded a north bound Frisco train at 6 p. m. Passengers on the south bound train which met the north bound at Antlers, say that Locke had fifty men and declared that if the militia stopped and made any demonstration he would fire upon them. The militia were in the smoker with the lights out. All efforts to reach Antlers by wire since dark have failed, which is considered a bad omen. Deputies that were sent to Antlers last night returned this morning reporting all quiet up to the time they left, but say the people of Antlers fear the town will be burned tonight.

FATAL LAND SLIDES.

Obstruct the Great Northern Road on the Sound.

Seattle, Wash., March 29.—A serious land slide on the Great Northern's coast line a short distance north of Edmunds, killed Robert Baker and seriously injured Charles Rode and Frank Kelley. The first slide occurred about 9 o'clock last night, and a gang on a hand car had gone to clear the road. They had just finished about 12:30 when they heard the rumbling of another slide and fled in all directions. Rode and Kelley jumped into the Sound. The slide came after them and they were pinned down in shallow water by earth and logs. Rode had his leg broken and Kelly was injured about the face and limbs. The remainder of the gang returned to work when a third slide came down, burying Baker and the hand car under a mass of earth. The body was not recovered. For several hundred feet the track was buried to a depth of from forty to fifty feet. A dozen other slides have occurred between Edmunds and Everett, and the road will be blocked for several days. Passengers are being carried by boat.

"3:10 a. m., February 19, Steamship Naronic, White Star Line, at sea. Report when you find this to our agents if not heard of before that. Our ship is fast sinking beneath the waves and it is such a storm that we can never live in small boats. One boat has already gone with her human cargo below. God let us all live through this. We were struck by an iceberg in a blinding snow storm and floated two hours. Now it is 3:20 a. m. by my watch and the great ship's deck is level with the sea.
