question having arrisen as to the expediency of opening Second street before Third street is extended from the end of the car track, it is likely the city council will act in the premises in such a manner as will bring the greatest good to the greatest number.

A letter was received in this city ycsterday by a gentleman prominent in railroad matters, in which it was stated that at the meeting of the directors of the Union Pacific railroad Company, held in Boston on Wednesday, it had been decided to build to the mouth of toria Abstract, Title and Trust Com-Columbia, but which side had not, it was stated, been determined on. The fate of Astoria, it was said, depended upon the action of her citizens, and the C. S. Dow to C. N. Hague, hik 13. influence possessed by those of the who had property on the north shore. It was estimated that 30,000 acres of bia belonged to friends and officers of the Union Pacific, and that the idea of inducing the company to build to Knappton or some point near there will not be abandoned without a struggle.

In contradiction of the statements contained in the letter referred to above, it is said upon good authority that word had been received from F. K. Ames, the largest individual shareholder in the Union Pacific Company, that matters were all right, and that the company would certainly build to Astoria during the present year. What route would be selected is not stated. but it seems not unlikely that a right ed by Will H. Levings and Alfred A. of way through the city may be asked building of the road depend upon a favorable reply to such a request, Astoria is sure of having transcontinental railroad connection this year, for it seems outside the bounds of possibility that a refusal of such a modest request would be made.
