Murder Trial in the High School

Room Ten of the High School was crowded to suffocation yesterday afternoon, by an eager crowd, who had come to witness the trial of Floyd Dement, charged with the murder of Percy D. Sovey.

Especially interested was added to the trial by the gravity of the charge, and also in the fact that John H. Smith, one of the most prominent attorneys in the city, was to preside as judge.

After arraigning the defendant, the state proceeded with the examination of witnesses. The testimony was lengthy and every witness underwent a severe cross-examination by Prof. Wright, counsel for defense. The witness for the prosecution were: A. Seafeldt, (Alfred Cleveland), John McCue, Andrew Dalgety, Miss Kate Dement (sister of defendant), Miss Laura Gray, Herman Planting, Edwin Hobson and Miss Florence Twombly. The prosecution set out to prove that Floyd Dement lay in wait for Percy Sovey at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, and deliberately shot him, and that this act was the culmination of a jealousy which he entertained toward Sovey on account of some attention which Sovey had paid to a young lady, who was the object of Dement's affections. The defendant tried to justify the act of Dement by proving the bad character of Sovey, and also of Messrs. McCue and Dalgety, witnesses to the killing; and they offered, in furtherance of this proof, Miss Ethel Mathison, Sheriff Ross (Bert Ross), Mrs. Dement (Lizzie McCann), Dr. Badollet, (Paul Badollet), Alida Rippha, Mrs. Watson (Gene Lewis), and Billy Pinkerton, (Percy Sovey). All these witnesses were subject to cross-examination by Will Levings, states' attorney. The defense rested after a statement from the defendant. The state offered in rebuttal evidence to impeach the credibility of certain witnesses for the defense, after which Judge Smith submitted the case without instruction, to the jury, consisting of Rev. Van Tassel, Mrs. W. B. Ross, and Mr. Johan Young. The jury retired at 6:15 p. m., and returned in fifteen minutes with a verdict of guilty, as charged in the indictment. Thus ended a most interesting and exciting trial, which lasted for five hours. Will H. Levings was assisted in the prosecution by Alfred A. Cleveland and Prof. Wright, counsel for defendant, was ably seconded by Miss Dora Badollet.

The High School join in thanking Mr. J. H. Smith for his valuable aid and advice as presiding judge. Dement will be sentenced on the 30th of May.

A RARE STORY

About a Haunted Room in Modern Pompeii.

A true ghost story at first hand is a rare treat. Such is one told by a particularly sensible, not at all imaginative girl, lately returned from abroad:

"My chaperon and I," she says, "found on reaching Pompeii that there were two hotels there. One, near the entrance, is the usual stopping place for travelers, but we chose the one nearer the center of the place in order to make an excursion thence in the vicinity the next day. We had to wait a little for rooms, but two were vacated by an English couple and we took possession. Mine was a corner room. Mrs. W.'s opened out of it.

"I went to bed early and slept well suddenly I was awakened and started up. There was a sound—the sound of clanking chains—in my room. I lay still, breathless, and listened. It came closer and closer. I felt that it approached my bed, though I could see nothing. I could only hear. At last I felt the drag of chains upon the bed, over my feet; it dragged on and over my body. It reached my face and swept across it. I think I fainted then. The next thing I knew was Mrs. W. calling to me:

"'L' what is it?"

"She had heard it too.

"I did not dare to move at first. Finally, I made a desperate spring from the bed and into her room. She sheltered me there until morning, hearing nothing more. We went to the landlord next day, but could get no satisfaction. He declared that he had never heard such complaints before.

"Well, we made our little excursion, and in the course of it fell in with an English couple. In conversation they found out to be the persons who had come into possession of their rooms at the Pompeian hotel. One of them said very quietly:

"May I ask, had you any particular experience there?"

"Of course, I was eager to tell my story. When I had finished they looked at each other.

"We have been to the landlord, too," said they. "We heard the chains."

"By and by I came back to America. Recently I happened to be at a studio luncheon given by the C.'s. I told this happening to a group about me. Mr. — one of the best known painters, stood near. After a little, Mrs. C. brought him up and presented him.

"Do you mind," said he, "repeating that very interesting anecdote, a part of which I chanced to overhear just now?" I related it circumstantially.

"I have been in Pompeii," he added, "and have staid over night in that hotel. Let us see what room you occupied."

"I described its exact situation. When I had finished:

"Ah," said he, "I thought so! That was my room once. And I heard the chains!"

Used up. It's the only way to use some things, but it's a bad condition for a man or woman. It means disease. Take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That means health. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies the blood and cleanses and renews the whole system. For all scrofulous humors and blood-poisons, and even consumption (or lung-scrofula), if taken in time, it's a positive remedy. It's a guaranteed one. In all diseases of the liver, blood and lungs, it's warranted to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded. No other medicine of its class is sold, through druggists, on this peculiar plan. You can judge why. You only pay for the good you get.

In other words, it's sold on trial. No other medicine of its kind is. And that proves that nothing else is "just as good" as the Discovery.

The doctor's thinking of his profit, not of yours, when he urges something else. Judge for yourself which is likely to be the better medicine.

COMPLETE MANHOOD AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT.

At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is essentially the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful medical book that has appeared for years: 96 pages, every page bearing half so much illustration in that "Sovey" subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Testicles, Prostate, Stricture, etc. Every man who would know the Grand Truths, and gain a Permanent Cure, should read this WONDERFUL LITTLE BOOK. It is the only one of its kind, while the edition lasts. If convenient enclose ten cents to pay postage alone. Address the publisher, ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

Money for Sale!

The World's Fair Directors

Have 5,000,000 Souvenir Half Dollar Coins in their treasury, the gift of the American people by Act of Congress. The patriotic and historic features of these Coins and their limited number, compared with the millions who want them—our population is 66,000,000—have combined to create so great a demand for these World's Fair Souvenir Coins that they are already quoted at large premiums. Liberal offers from speculators, who wish to absorb them and reap enormous profits, have been rejected for the reason that

This is the People's Fair-- We Are the People's Servants-- and a divided sense of duty confronts us--

We need $5,000,000 to fully carry out our announced plans, and

We have decided to deal direct with the people--To whom we are directly responsible--among whom an equitable distribution of these National heirlooms should be made.

The World's Fair Offer to the American People:

That none of our plans for the people's profit be curtailed we must realize from the sale of 5,000,000 Souvenir World's Fair Fifty-cent Silver Coins the sum of $5,000,000. This means $1.00 for each Coin, a much smaller sum than the people would have to pay for them if purchased through an indirect medium. Every patriotic man, woman and child should endeavor to own and cherish one of these Coins, as they will be valuable in future years—a cherished object of family pride.

Remember that only 5,000,000 Coins must be divided among 66,000,000 people. These Coins could be sold at a high premium to Syndicates, but we have enough confidence in the people to keep the price at a Dollar for each Coin, as this will make us realize $5,000,000—the sum needed to open the Fair's gates on the people's broad plan.

How to Get Go to your nearest Bank and subscribe for as many coins as you need for your family and friends. These Sub-Agents of the World's Columbian Exposition will give you their receipt for your money, as delivery of these coins will not begin before December. There is no expense to you attending the distribution of the Souvenir Coins, as we send them to your local bank. If for any reason it is inconvenient for you to subscribe send Postoffice or Express Money Order or Registered Letter for as many coins as you wish with instructions how to send them to you, to
