TODAY'S WEATHER. Portland, May 6.—For Oregon and Washington, continued fair weather.

The Austrian government, in proceeding to institute trials for new kinds of bullets devoid of explosive results, gives an example that might well be followed by other nations of the world who have armed their military forces with the rifle of small calibre.

The earnest efforts to save the magnificent forests of this country seem in a fair way to be rewarded with something like success.

It has been developed that the order adding to the navy regulations a paragraph forbidding officers of the navy from acting as correspondents for newspapers resulted from the fact that during the Chilean war some of the big dailies of New York obtained their "inside" news of the movements of the contending forces from such sources, the news being at once cabled back by the friends of both parties and having its effect.

The regular meeting of the Columbia River Protective Union will be held at Liberty Hall, Saturday, May 6, 1893, at 7:30 p. m.

finds most favor is to divide the cars into two compartments, the one for white and the other for colored passengers, the entrance to these to be at different ends of the car.

OWNERS OF TRANS-OCEANIC SOIL. A distinguished French geographer has been taking an account of stock and finds that France is next to England in the possession of a great colonial empire.

How small a part of the British empire in population and extent the British Isles are is thus recalled, nor is Great Britain the only country that has a bigger family outside her own home domains than within them.

WHEW! Mary Jane sat with her beau For six hours, with the gas turned down low.

FUNERALS. E. W. Kuykendall, the leading undertaker, having completed arrangements to purchase goods direct from the factories, regardless of middle men, has made a great reduction in the cost of funerals.

THE BOISTEROUS ATLANTIC. is a terror to timid voyagers, scarcely less on account of the perils of the sea than the almost certainty of sea sickness.

SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. Alcock's Porus Plasters are the greatest external remedy of the day. The quickest, safest, surest, best. Not only immeasurably superior to all other plasters, but also to liniments, ointments, oils and similar unctuous compounds.

YOU SHOULD READ THIS.

TOO OFTEN THE CASE.

A young society lady, after a round of gayety, becomes suddenly conscious of an unusual sensation. She has frequent attacks of dizziness, her back aches, and she feels blue and generally run down.

There is hope for all sufferers from Nervous Diseases. Read what follows: Mrs. Jennie C. Davis, a fine artist and an accomplished authoress, of Westfield, Wis., had been subject to headache ever since she could remember. So severe were her attacks as to cause at times temporary delirium.

Six weeks later she writes: "Have read and sewed moderately of late, but my headaches do not return." Mrs. John E. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., was attacked three years ago with turn of life in its worst form. It finally went to her head, and all indications were that it would result either in insanity or softening of the brain.
