THURSDAY MORNING SESSION. Devotional exercises led by Mrs. Miles, of Newberg. Business meeting called to order at 9 a. m., by President

Anna R. Riggs. Minutes of last session read and approved.

The Rev. Van Tassel, pastor of the Baptist church, was then introduced, and expressed himself as in sympathy with the white ribboners, and had always worked in harmony with them wherever he was. His remarks were well received.

Reports of county presidents resumed from yesterday. Polk and Yambill each reported advance all along the Superintendent of Legislation and Petition, Mrs. Narcissa White-Kinney, was received with great interest, and clearly demonstrated the work and what has been accomplished in the legal department.

Superintendent of Unfermented Wine at the Sacramental Table, Mrs. Rankin, of Portland, reported an advance in sentiment. Some discussion followed. Some of the Episcopal ladies deplored the fact that their Bishops were not in line on this point yet, but felt sure they would come into the light soon. Sunday-school work read by secretary in absence of superintendent.

Report of work done in the field of literature. The "Union Signal" and the "White Ribbon" were read by the secretary. The power of the printed page was enlarged upon.

The Evangelistic report was then read by the secretary. This department s the corner-stone of all the W. C. T. U. work. The fact is clearly demonstrated that the W. C. T. U. is an organized revival, and not spasmodic.

The Rev. Ayers, of Warrenton, was introduced and spoke words of cheer. 500 lectures, besides some not reported to the regular bureau.

The superintendent of the department of Relation of Intemperance to AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGH- Labor, Mrs. Additor, reported that this important line of work not fully understood. She emphasized the thought expressed by Miss Willard, that the reform forces must unite. The importance of getting before bodies of laborers was forcibly urged, and an earnest discussion followed

THE AFTERNOON SESSION

Was opened with devotional exercises. Mrs. Riggs occupied the chair. The committee on scientific instruction in the public echools submitted a tabulated report and was highly commended. It showed that such instruction had been secured for the schools in all but seven states, by the Union.

An invitation for a motor ride was received from Hon. F. J. Taylor, and was accepted.

On the subject of social purity, Mrs. Snyder said it was a practical method of the doctrine of Christian charity and brotherly love. She illustrated her remarks with references to incidents that came under her notice in connection with Refuge Home and Jail work. Rev. Mr. Dilworth was next intro- 1:41. duced and made a few appropriate remarks. Sabbath observance report was read by Mrs. Robb, and the need of educating children in the elements of peace was the subject of remarks by Mrs. Miles. The flower mission, a line of work so full of loving ministration, office of Robb & Parker, at Astoria, Oregon, forthwith; and all persons having claims against said estate, are hereby notified to present the same to me, at the above place, within six months from the date hereof.

was opened by singing a hymn, followed by a bible lesson. A prayer by Mrs. Harford was followed by a solo, very sweetly rendered, by Miss Gussie Gray. The superintendent of narcotics reported progress and suggested that copies of the existing law prohibiting the use of tobacco by minors, be printed and a copy posted on every school house. The president's address was next received and was a review of the various departments of work. It was full of thought and careful study.

Mrs. J. T. Ross next rendered a solo in her usual charming manner, and recelved well-earned applause. Miss Rose Trumbull then took charge of the Y's program. In a manner which at once won the good will of her audience, she refrained from inflicting her audience with her fifteen page report, and introduced Miss Sayre, of Astoria, who gave a thoughtful paper on "The Girl in Temperance Work." A duet was then sweetly sung by the Misses Pearl and Frankle Holden, Miss Rose Trumbull arose at the close of this and said, "Did you hear what the refrain of this song was? 'Will You be Mine?' This," she said, "was what the young man was saying, perhaps, to the temperance girl." She,

Miss Trumbull, would tell what she would say: "Yes, if you will make your life as pure as mine." An original poem of decided merit was read by Miss Spangler. This poem was written for the occasion by Miss Eva Foster, of University Park. A forcible paper was next read by Miss Minnie Osburn, and was followed by a solo by Miss Alma Heilborn, rendered in a manner that captivated all. A unique collection speech was given by Miss Trumbull, who was presented by the Polk county W. C. T. U. with a

Paris, May 11.-Sir Charles Russell today resumed his argument in the Bering sea tribunal of arbitration. Sir Charles in dilating upon the seizure of Canadian scalers by American vessels, The Lecture Bureau reported over for seal catching in Bering sea, insisted that the seizures made upon the high sea were made without previous diplomatic expostulation, Bayard, when secretary of state tried to justify the seizure on the grounds that the United State had property in the seals. Here followed a sharp exchange of contradictions between Senator Morgan the American arbitrator and Sir Charles and E. J. Phelps. Sir Charles got excited and angry and declared the interruptions uncalled for.

The altercation during Sir Charles' address was so hot that it threatened to jeopardize the whole arbitration. Sir Charles Russel, Senator Morgan, Lord Hannen, Baron de Courceol, Mr.
Phelps, and Justice Harmon spoke with high spirits and occasionally with bitterness. Senator Morgan and Mr.
Phelps declined to guarantee that the United States would accord damages for seizures even if the tribunal decided against them. Lord Hannen exclaimed, "Then our whole arbitration is useless and the whole question will be re-opened." Finally the difficulty
