DETERMINED TO SACRIFICE HIM

Professor Briggs' Trial Causing a Warm Debate.

THE APPEAL VERY POPULAR

Evidence of Anger That Were Anything But Christian-Like—How the Vote on the Appeal Question Stood.

Associated Press.
Washington, May 31.—After devotional exercises the Presbyterian assembly convened as an ecclesiastical court. The assembly ordered, with evident confusion and a lack of understanding at just what they were doing, that roll be called, the commissioners in they were called to give their reasons for their votes. Speeches were limited to three minutes. While this preliminary was being settled, Briggs quietly came in and took a seat. Under the call of the roll each member rose in turn and stated whether he voted for or against entertaining the appeal from the New York Presbytery, which acquitted Prof. Briggs, and his reason therefor. Call of presbyteries by states progressed as far as Kansas when recess was taken till 2:30 p. m.

After recess the debate was continued with a majority of the speakers against Dr. Briggs, though he found a number of supporters, the most notable one, perhaps, being a graduate of Union Theological Seminary, James F. Gavin, missionary to Chile. Elder Thomas McDougall, of Cincinnati, precipitated a lively scene. "If it be in order," he began, "I would like to ask if the omniscience, the veracity, the character of God Almighty, or of the Lord Jesus Christ may be questioned? God Almighty has that Isaiah has said thus and so. Dr. Briggs has said to God Almighty that Isaiah did not write half the book that bears his name. The Lord Jesus Christ said in the New Testament that Isaiah wrote the book bearing his name."

Dr. Henry M. Storrs—I call the gentleman to order.

Rev. H. Milton Shields, of New Mexico—if the statement is not quoted in Dr. Briggs' inaugural, it is not before the assembly.

The colloquy was carried on in the midst of great confusion, disorder rising from all parts of the house, and the moderator and McDougall both trying to be heard. The storm having calmed down, Elder McDougall concluded: "Christ said no man can come unto the father but by me. Dr. Briggs says, 'Martin Luther found God through reason, and Newman found him through the church,' whom will you believe—Christ or Dr. Briggs?"

An extension of half an hour to the afternoon session enabled the clerk to make progress in the roll through the synod of Oregon. The assembly then took recess until this evening.

Roll call was resumed at the evening session. It was 8:15 o'clock when the moderator put the question: "Shall the specifications of error be sustained?" and Dr. Roberts stated that the clerk read the first specifications, in substance that the presbytery of New York, on objections made by Dr. Briggs, required the prosecuting committee to amend the charges and specifications by striking out charge four. The specifications were declared sustained by a vote of 232 to 190. Specifications, second to twelfth, all relating to irregularities in the proceedings of the New York presbytery were sustained. The second ground of appeal alleged the receiving of improper testimony, and was based upon those specifications. On the first division taken the result was that the specification was sustained by viva voce vote. The third ground of appeal alleged a manifestation of prejudice in the conduct of the case. The fifth and last ground of appeal contained specifications of error and charged mistake or injustice in the decision. The votes on these specifications were taken without a division, resulting in the declaration of each and every one being sustained. Rev. W. C. Young, of Kentucky, then moved that the roll be called and the assembly vote upon the main question, "Shall the appeal be sustained?" which was adopted. Roll was called amidst an almost painful silence. The vote announced was as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 409; to sustain appeal, 232; to sustain in part, 65; total to sustain appeal, 297; not to sustain, 112.

When a motion was made for the appointment of a committee to express the sense of the assembly as to the action that should be taken upon the judgment of the presbytery of New York, and what penalty should be imposed against Dr. Briggs, if any, the assembly then adjourned till tomorrow.

concluded his argument in behalf of the British case before the Bering sea tribunal today. He said this was the first occasion upon which a nation claimed property in a free swimming animal. The contention was untenable, and its advance was derogatory to the freedom of the seas. Sir Charles appealed to the tribunal to declare it could not make the law. In his peroration he dwelt upon the importance of the arbitration submitted to by two great powers. Their presence as friendly litigants is a fact of great moral significance, and their submission to the arbitration a victory for peace, as the award will be if it leaves the principles of international law untouched. Attorney General Richard Webster followed Sir Charles.

TAKING A SNAP SHOT.

Eulalie's Picture taken by an Intrepid Young Lady.
New York, May 31.—The Infanta Eulalie this morning after having entertained a select party of Spanish friends at 12 o'clock, went to the normal college and was given an opportunity to see what New York's best public school was like. Nineteen hundred young ladies went through various exercises. Miss Bertha DeVarnon, speaking in Spanish, welcomed the Infanta to the school. The Infanta, replying, said: "Well, young ladies, I am quite proud of you and the way you have received me. I appreciate it very much, and can only say I wish I were sitting on the benches with you girls."

At Madison Square she reviewed the annual parade of the New York police, about 2,500 being in line. Just as the first of the police were approaching, a young woman with a camera pointed her box at the princess. The nearest policeman started on a run to remove the young woman. The crowd cheered, and the princess leaned forward smiling and encouragingly at the intrepid camera fiend. The policeman did not arrive until the young woman had pressed the button, and smiling triumphantly at the princess, disappeared in the crowd.

CHILDREN HAVE A DAY.

Chicago, May 31.—The day opened beautifully with bright sunshine and mild temperature, well suited to viewing the World's Fair, a performance in calisthenics and athletics was given by a thousand trained children, mostly German, taught under the auspices of Turner bands.

Steel Mackey's spectacular enterprise, now partly finished, adjoining the World's Fair, went into the hands of a receiver this morning. The Mackey concern owes $116,000, and has visible assets of $50,000.

HONORING THE DEAD.

Richmond, Va., May 31.—The Jefferson Davis funeral train arrived here early this morning. An hour before the arrival the artillery began firing salutes, and continued till the remains rested in the capitol. The reinforcement services have attracted to the city one of the largest crowds ever seen here. The decorations in the rotunda of the capitol, where the remains lie in state, as well as elsewhere in the city, are simple but impressive.

THE FAIR QUESTION.

Chicago, May 31.—A great crowd gathered in the United States court of appeals today to hear the arguments on the application by the United States for an injunction restraining the management of the World's Fair from opening the gates on Sunday. Judge Woods, Jenkins and Grosscup sat on the bench. Chief Justice Fuller was prevented from attending by the illness of his daughter.

DIPHTHERIA ON SHIPBOARD.

Quebec, May 31.—The Steamship Oregon, which arrived at the Grosse Ile Quarantine grounds from Liverpool Monday night, with 550 passengers is still detained. Five deaths occurred on the voyage and fifteen are now ill on board. The existence of cholera on board is officially denied. It is said to be diphtheria.

EXPORTING HAY.

Baltimore, May 31.—Gill & Fisher, grain dealers, have exported to France 1000 tons of American hay. This is said to be the first shipment of the kind to European markets, and was sent on an order as a sample of American feed products.

NEW COLLECTOR.

Tacoma, May 31.—Jas. C. Saunders, of Port Townsend, has been appointed collector of customs for the Puget Sound district.

THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS.

Cape Charles, Va., May 31.—President Cleveland and party arrived early this morning. Later they took the boat for Hog Island.

RACING IN THE EAST.

New York, May 31.—Charles won the Metropolitan handicap. His highest second place was.

THE QUESTION OF ANNEXATION

Interesting Developments of Recent Date at Honolulu.

ATTITUDE OF THE PARTIES

Secretary Gresham's Views Announced Publicly—What Mr. Blount Has to Say on the Matter.

Associated Press.
San Francisco, May 31.—Hawaii advances up to May 24 state that the situation at Honolulu is more interesting than for several months. The whole town is agog with excitement over late developments. First came the arrest of Messrs. Bush & Kuyson, editors of a native paper, on charges of libel;—the provisional government and Minister Stevens; then the publication of Secretary Gresham's instructions to Commissioner Blount, news of Blount's appointment as United States minister to Hawaii, and finally the attempt of the provisional government to silence Charles Nordhoff, correspondent of New York Herald, and Minister Blount's interference in his behalf. All sorts of alarming rumor are afloat and even Minister Blount, who all along has predicted that there would be no trouble, is not so confident.

On May 15th Commissioner Blount gave out for publication his letter of instructions from Secretary Gresham. Among other things stated by Secretary Gresham was that the United States will not acquiesce in domestic interference by other powers. At end of his instructions, Mr. Blount added the postscript: "While I shall refrain from interference between conflicting forces of whatever nationality for supremacy, I will protect American citizens not participating in such conflict. These few lines created great excitement and they were regarded by all parties as plain invitation of the royalists to make trouble. The royalists, however, say they are not now prepared to take advantage of Blount's notice, but will await the decision of the United States. If the islands are annexed they and the queen will submit to the inevitable and become good Americans. The provisional government claims to be able to hold together for several years until a new administration, if annexation is refused by Mr. Cleveland.

Blount's appointment as minister is apparently satisfactory to both parties here. Ex-Minister Stevens has called for the United States.

San Francisco, May 31.—At 10 o'clock passengers who arrived on the steamer Australia from Honolulu rode over to Minister Stevens. Mr. Stevens will address the Chamber of Commerce of this city tomorrow afternoon on the subject of "Hawaiian Affairs and their Relation to the Interests of the United States." He said:

"If the islands are not annexed by the United States, a return to the old state of affairs is impossible. Monarchy is out of the question, and if the United States does not take what is offered, some other nation will."

FINISHED HER TRIAL TRIP.

Vallejo, Cal., May 31.—The coast defense vessel Monterey arrived at Mare Island navy yard at 4 o'clock this afternoon, having been absent on her trial trip four days and twelve hours. From those on board it was learned that the trial trip, though comparatively short, was entirely satisfactory, demonstrating beyond dispute the serviceable worth and qualities of the vessel. Captain Howison, president of the naval board, was seen by a representative of the Associated Press. To a question as to the success of the trip, the captain replied:

"We left Mare Island to give the Monterey a fair and impartial trial. This we have done, and found her to be all that is or was required of a vessel of her class."

The Monterey upon the arrival at the navy yard today, caused an accident which will cost the government several hundred dollars. While passing the navy yard ferry slip, in going alongside the quay wall, she shoved into the ferry boat Ellen, carrying away the rudder and part of the prow of the ferry boat, while the anchor, attachments, boat davits and fixtures on the port side of the men-of-war were torn from their fastenings.

IN THE RECEIVER'S HANDS.

Albany, O., May 31.—The firm of Lero Tanning & Co., of the Red Crown Mills, was placed in the hands of J. E. Buckman, the former secretary, but now receiver. Managing Partner Captain E. J. Lanning left May 31st, taking 12,000 of the firm's money, which he appropriated to his own use. He has been indicted in New York under an old sumed name. The senior member of the firm, John Isom, filed the complaint. The liabilities are $70,000; assets, $50,000; with property of the individual members $128,000. The mill will continue in operation.

RELIGIOUS WRANGLE.

Canton, Ohio, May 31.—The 1,300th anniversary of the birth of Luther is now being celebrated in the discussion of the question of adopting a version of Luther's smaller catechism, which has been in controversy some ten years or more. This is a new report, made by the committee appointed last year, and there was a heavy fight over one sentence pertaining to the confession which read: "We should receive forgiveness from the pastor as from God." It was argued by many that this ascribed to the clergy the power of absolution similar to the Roman Catholic faith. Various amendments were prepared and in the midst of the turmoil the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

SIFTING THE BANKS.

Washington, May 31.—E. Ashley Meals, the North Dakota banker whose closed a few days ago, had an interview with Comptroller Eekles this morning and left with the comptroller's statement ringing in his ears that he would never issue a charter to a national bank with which Meals was connected. Comptroller Eekles says that this is the beginning of a general sifting of national bank officials carrying on the bank simply as a means to blind, for private speculation, he intends to close them up in the interest of depositors who in the end are sure to be the only sufferers.

REPUBLICAN DOINGS.

Newport, R. I., May 31.—In the house the republicans received word from the senate this morning that it had adjourned, thus preventing any invitation being sent them to join a grand committee for the purpose of electing state officers. Unless some result is arrived at by tomorrow, it is reported that Governor Browne will take measures to have an adjournment taken to Providence at once.

THE CHOLERA SCARE.

Washington, May 31.—The treasury officials are not apprehensive that cholera will appear in this country. Since last fall the sanitary condition had been improved and the greatest cautions known to the medical science called into use. The United States officials both at home and abroad are observing all known precautions to prevent its reaching here.

THE SMUGGLING BUSINESS.

Washington, May 31.—Secretary Carlisle during the last few days received several telegrams confirming newspaper disclosures as to the discovery of a cache of opium on the extreme northwest border, to smuggle opium and Chinese immigrants. They intimate that a number of government employees are implicated.

WILL MEET IN ALBANY.

Monmouth, Ill., May 31.—The United Presbyterian general assembly decided this morning to meet next year at Albany, O., and the general committee on home missions at Portland, Or.

THE EPSOM DERBY.

London, May 31.—The great derby race at Epsom was won by McCallum's bay colt Isinglass, Ravensbury second, Raeburn third; time 2:23. There were 11 starters.

WHEN CONGRESS WILL MEET.

Washington, 31. The Star says tonight that the president has intimated that he will probably call congress together about the first of October instead of the middle of September.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.

Aspiring Young Author—I have here a few paragraphs in prose, which I venture to think will create a sensation in the literary world. I have tried to throw into them the divine afflatus of poetry, tinged with the tragic pathos of human life.

Editor of "The Literary Digest" (glancing over the pages)—Hm! Afraid that sort of stuff don't go any more. Nothing in it in the first place, and done to death. Sorry, but—tell you what, though! Suppose you let us print it in our funny column as a burlesque on the prose poet business! I'll be the screamin'est thing we've had in a long time.

"What'll you pay?"
—"Three dollars."
—"Cash down?"
—"Yes."
—"Gimme the money."

NOTICE TO FISHERMEN.
I will receive sturgeon and pay cash for them at the following places: North Shore cannery, Frankfort; Aus. Laro's cannery, Tongue Point; Lars Paulsen's cannery, Yachats; Eds. and at Aus. Paulsen's Astoria.
