

ABOUT THE CITY.

The city council meets tonight. Fresh strawberries at Smith's today. A large delegation from the residents along Clatsop Beach was in town yesterday. The original Root Beer Extract is Raser's. Cushing Post, G. A. R., will meet tonight at Pythian Castle Hall for the transaction of important business. Fresh Clatsop cream received every morning at Colmann's. A fire on the hills near town yesterday burned 175 cords of cordwood belonging to Messrs. Hite and McMullen. Remember the Austin House at the Seaside is open the year around. Lot 7 in block 1, Flavel Center, was yesterday purchased from W. E. Warren by F. W. Fraiel, the price being $100. The Rod and Gun Club will meet tonight at Utzinger's Hall at 8 o'clock. "Bah, rah, ray! Astori-at High School! Bah, rah, ray!" will be the "yell" of the high school boys in future. Raser's Root Beer Superior to all others. On Sunday the thermometer registered eighty-seven degrees in the shade, or five degrees higher than it was in Portland. Strawberries and cream at Colmann's. Rates have again been reduced on the Union Pacific, the round trip rate to Chicago now being $96.20, and single fare $88.60. If you want some extra fine photos, Mooers' is the place to get them. The excursion of the members of the Camera and Bicycle club to Fort Stevens on Sunday, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Westport cream fresh every morning at Smith's Ice Cream parlors, Third st. In the police court yesterday two fighters forfeited $10 each, and $10 was collected from an individual charged with drunkenness. The Belmont cigar can be had at Chas. Olsen's. A large number of people visited Smith's Point on Sunday, and their enjoyment of the beautiful day was not marred by the nauseous odors from the vacated works. For fine wines and liquors call at August Danielson's Sample Rooms. There will be a practical game of football today at Smith's Point. Players will take the 3 o'clock motor and will be brought back to the city after the game. Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. A small blaze caused by sparks from the chimney, called Engine No. 1, and the hooks, to the lower end of Spruce street near the Water front, last night at 7:30. The fire was in the roof of the house occupied by Mrs. Nordstrom, and was put out before much damage had been done. Raser's Extract Root Beer, the purest. Wing Lee has just received a full line of Japanese curiosities and fancy goods. Will sell at cost. 529 Third street. Capt. Gray, chairman of the music committee, invites those who will take part in singing for the Pioneer and Historical Society picnic, to meet at Rescue Hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. He wishes to get a good old-fashioned chorus for the occasion, when the old folks as well as the young may take part. Fresh fish received at the Albatross Fish market daily. Salmon 10 cents per pound. For all kinds of job printing, go to Del. Ferguson, upstairs, Astorian building. The special novel is a very absorbing and bright work, and the selected matter is most agreeable summer reading.—Town Topics, 21 West Twenty-Third street, New York. Owners of horses can purchase Campbell's Hoof Remedy, and all the Columbia Veterinary Remedies at Fred. Sais' Saddlery establishment. Buy Raser's Root Extract to make a healthful, refreshing beverage. Sold everywhere. Sheriff Smith yesterday received the resignation of Deputy Merrifield of Seaside. During his tenure of office Mr. Merrifield was not the most popular officer in the county, and in all probability a number of "the boys" will hold a celebration at Seaside when they receive the news of his resignation. He will be succeeded by Emley Houghton, whose is credited with the possession of a perfect balance wheel in his head machinery. Parties visiting in Portland can get The Daily Astorian at Handley & Haas' news stand, 150 First street. Del. Ferguson, general job printer, Astorian building, upstairs. First-class work at reasonable rates. Three alarms were turned in to the fire department Sunday, but the damage amounted to less than $25. The fire was for a blaze in the chimney of Pete Johnson's house; the second came from Box 8 for a fire on the roadway, and the third was for a blaze under the boiler of the Clatsop Mill. The damage was only nominal. It is supposed the fire on the roadway caught from an electric spark from a street car. Free at Crow's gallery, a life-size crayon with every dozen cabinets ordered. Offer good for 30 days.

The Other Side of the Fish-trap Cases

"I would like to state," said M. J. Kinney yesterday in an Astorian reporter, "that the present law holding the cannerymen responsible for the lawless acts of the men in their employ, is not only unjust, but altogether unreasonable. I have a great many men employed fishing, and I am positive there is not one among them who is not familiar with our rules that there shall be no fishing on Sunday. A strict rule in force here, as well as at the other canneries, prohibits Sunday fishing, and personally I have made it a point to see that my men are acquainted with that rule. Just why, then, I should be arrested for the alleged violation of the Sunday law by one of my trappers, is beyond my power of comprehension. As far as I know, the other canners have rules of a like nature, and endeavor to see that they are enforced. "Does it look reasonable—" continued Mr. Kinney, "does it seem probable that I, or any of the cannerymen, in fact, would contribute money for patrolling the river on Sunday, and then throw ourselves in the very arms of the law? I am not going to question the jurisdiction of the courts. I do not care about that. I have been arrested for illegal fishing, and the news has been spread broadcast, when in fact I am not only guiltless of such an act, but have used every endeavor to aid the fish commissioner to see that the Sunday fishing law is respected. Mr. Munsen, the keeper of the trap found open by the officers, says that on Saturday night when he left the trap, the poles were up and the trap closed. If the trap was opened later, other parties must certainly have done the work. The whole fact of the matter is, it places me before the public in a wrong light, and while a great many can see the utter absurdity of such a construction of the law, there are many more who do not even stop to think that there might be two sides to the one story. Every canneryman in Astoria is strictly anxious to see that the Sunday closing law is strictly enforced."

J. W. Thompson, organist at the M. E. church, wishes to take a few more pupils in music, piano or organ. Address, 659, Astor street. Gribble; recorder, William Pohl (re-elected); financier, T. Dealy; receiver, John Bryce (re-elected); guide, George Johnson; L. W. H. E. Topping; O. W. J. Jacobs; medical examiners, Drs. Cigars of the choicest brands, including the Belmont, Flor de Madrid, and Wedding Bouquet can be had at Frank Rogers & Co.'s store. Trap shooting is becoming more popular in this city daily, and a number of the most enthusiastic were down at Smith's Point Sunday, testing their skill at breaking clay pigeons. Some excellent shooting was done, several of the marksmen displaying a skill that is seldom excelled anywhere. Each fired 25 shots and the scores were as follows: H. A. Smith, 24; J. T. Hay, 21; C. W. Loughery, 21; A. L. Noe, 21; F. Cook, 15; E. C. Hughes, 23; E. Schwab, 16; Dr. O. B. Estes, 16; A. G. Spexarth, 15. Subsequently Hay killed 9 out of a possible 10 birds. Loughery missed one in 20, Noe missed 4 out of 25, Hughes killed 17 in 20 shots. Boynton 17 in 24, Estes 10 in 20 and Schwab 11 in 20. It was regretted that Sheriff Smith could not have been credited with a kill for his twenty-fifth shot, which would have made the score a perfect one.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Sold by Chas. Rogers, Druggist.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE FEEBLE. So long as the falling embers of vitality are capable of being kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this, and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hopes in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized, and sustenance afforded to each other life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe.
