TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland June 6.-For Eastern Oregon and Washington: Fair weather; cloudy in western Oregon.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m., yesterday, furnished by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, weather bureau.

Maximum temperature, 60 degrees. Minimum temperature, 50 degrees. Precipitation, .29 inch.

BLOCKED BY OBSTRUCTIONISTS.

The work of the water commission has been brought to a standstill, on account of a desire on the part of many of those who own land along the route of the proposed pipe line to cinch the city by making it pay many times the value of the strip of land desired for the purpose of building the road.

Notice is hereby given that I have been appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Shay, deceased. All persons indebted to said estate, are notified to pay the same to me, at the office of Robb & Parker, at Astoria, Oregon, forthwith; and all persons having claims against said estate, are hereby notified to present the same to me, at the above place, within six months from the date hereof.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, colds, and coughs.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah E. Coffman, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the County Court of Clatsop County, Oregon, administrator of the estate of Sarah E. Coffman, deceased.

The Portland election was not invested with much political significance. The republicans might have elected G. J. McGinn, brother of the senator, as city attorney, but people feared that he might become part of a combination that would restrict his freedom in dealing with civic abuses. Beach, the democratic candidate, who was elected, has been a persistent office seeker. For city auditor 7,721 votes were cast, of which Gambell, republican, received 3,542 votes; Humason, democrat, 3,041, and Nelson, People's party, 1,138. It may be seen from these figures, that the total vote was light, and that the populists held the balance of power.

There were no party "issues" at stake, and the contest turned largely on local interests and personal preferences. The disappearance of the fusion movement is noteworthy, and foreshadows the collapse of like combinations throughout the state. The democrats who flirted with the populists last fall, are now resolved to "go it alone." They do not care to be hampered with any alliance which involves tacit approval of the free coinage of silver scheme that is regarded with so much disfavor by President Cleveland.

Funerals. E. W. Kuykendall, the leading undertaker, having completed arrangements to purchase goods direct from the factories, regardless of middle men, has made a great reduction in the cost of funerals.

Ladies' Tea. Is a pleasant drink, which will be borne by the stomach without nausea or griping. It acts thoroughly on the liver, kidneys and reproductive organs. A gentle physic, efficient diuretic, and is most useful in scant or painful menstruation. It aids digestion and reduces corpulency; clears the complexion, rendering it fair, and restoring the natural tone of the skin.

Careful Preparation. Is essential to purity of foods. It is wisdom and economy to select those that are pure. The Gall Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk is prepared with the greatest care, and infants are assured the best. Grocers and druggists.

THE METROPOLITAN CONTEST. The Portland election was not invested with much political significance. The republicans might have elected G. J. McGinn, brother of the senator, as city attorney, but people feared that he might become part of a combination that would restrict his freedom in deal-

STRICKEN DEAD. TRUSTWORTHY STATEMENTS. A recent New York dispatch reads: "James C. H., a fine looking and apparently healthy man, was observed staggering while walking on Fifth Avenue this afternoon, and after taking one or two uncertain steps fell to the sidewalk. When picked up he was dead. A physician examined the body, and pronounced heart disease the cause of death. A peculiarly sad feature of the case is that Mr. H. was on his way to Maine, to settle in the home of his boyhood. He had passed the previous ten years in the western mining country, and had amassed a fortune. If you have any of the symptoms given in the following testimonials you should lose no time in seeking relief."
