RUSSELL SAGE.

The well-known financier, writes: 306 Fifth Avenue, New York City, December 20, 1890.

"For the last twenty years I have been using Allcock's Pore Purifiers. They have repeatedly cured me of rheumatic pains and pains in my side and back. Whenever I have a cold, one on my chest and one on my back speedily relieve me."

"My family are never without them."

RUSSELL SAGE.

The night lunch wagon is a product of the nineteenth century. Its advent has been hailed by thousands of weary night-workers and the delectable frankfurter and hot roll has carried joy and comfort to myriad hearts and stomachs. Now, Tom Carroll is one of the men to whom the night lunch is the thing of beauty and the midnight joy. The other evening Tom came into the Saunterer's room, munching at his heart's content, with the end of a frankfurter in his hands.

"Where have you been?" Tom smiled as he swallowed the last bite. "Been out dining a la carte."—Boston Budget.

"Mah," said the little Chicago boy, who had been taken to see "Richard III." "What does the actor mean by saying 'A horse—a horse! McKinley for a horse!'"

The English language owes much to local newspaper reporters. A dispatch describing the fire in Auburn prison, told of the good work done by "stripes," meaning the convicts.—Buffalo Express.

The new railroad between Jerusalem and Jaffa has been the cause of a real-estate boom in Jerusalem. The railroad paid over $2000 an acre for land for its terminus, which could have been bought for $1 an acre thirty years ago. The building of this road suggests the realization of Tom Hood's dream in his "Impudence of Steam":

Godfrey of Boulogne, and thou, Richard, lion-hearted king, Candidly inform us, now, Did you ever? No, you never Could have fancied such a thing. Never, such vociferations Entered your imaginations As the ensuing—

"Ease her, stop her!"

"Any gentleman for Joppa?"

"Masous, Masous?" "Ticket, please, sir!"

"Tyre or Sidon?" "Stop her, ease her!"

"Jerusalem, tem, lem!"—"Shur! Shur!"

"Do you go to Egypt, sir?"

"Captain, is this the land of Pharaoh?"

"Now look alive, there! Who's for Cairo?"

"Back her!" "Stand clear, old feller!"

"What gent or lady's for the Nile Or Pyramids?" "Thebes! Thebes! sir!"

"Steady!"

"Now where's that party for England?"

Pilgrims holy, red-cross knights, Had you e'en the least idea, Even in your wildest flights, Of a steam trip to Judea?

What next marvel time will show It is difficult to say: "Bus," perchance, to Jericho; "Only sixpence all the way."

Cabs in Solyra may ply— 'Tis a not unlikely tale— And from Dan the tourist hie Unto Beersheba by rail."

A TRIED REMEDY FOR BILIOUSNESS.

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pill, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the bitters upon the great liver gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The softness of the skin, cured appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right shoulder, in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter, and from all classes of society.

STIMULATE THE BLOOD.

Brandreth's pills are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative sudorific and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remedy.

Sold in every drug and medicine store either plain or sugar coated.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per tin. For sale by Chas. Rogers, successor to J. C. Dement.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE FEEBLE.

So long as the falling embers of vitality are capable of being kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despair, but derive encouragement from this, and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dissipated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this precious invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized, and sustenance afforded.
