New York, June 14.—The shipment of currency to the west and south by New York banks continued to day and excited much comment. The amount sent out yesterday is estimated at more than a million dollars, and probably another million today. When asked as to the cause for the large shipment, which is mainly to the west, the amount sent out within ten days being believed to exceed $14,000,000, the bankers agree in saying the demand was largely due to the distrust prevailing everywhere in the country, and especially in the west, where there had been a great many failures both of banks and commercial houses. A stringency of the money market is being experienced at both ends of the line now. The savings banks, as well as other banks out west, are all fortifying themselves as much as possible, and that, especially in the case of the country savings banks, is causing the hoarding of money in those places, and a consequent drain upon the banks of New York city. As a result many of the New York banks are being compelled to call in loans in order to maintain the lawful reserve. The sending forward of wheat, it is believed, will only account for a very small part of the currency demanded from the west. As an indication of how the monetary stringency is affecting trade in all its ramifications, it is reported in Wall street today that three large merchant houses in Chicago are endeavoring to get extensions in this city from wholesale houses of which they had bought goods. Another indication of the stringency, is the fact that a large mercantile house in this city, of first-class credit and abundant assets, had to pay 12 per cent. for an extension to tide over a tight place. Lack of buying is also reported to be one of the unfavorable conditions, and it is generally attributed to a curtailment of credit and a bad state of affairs in the west, and generally to the money stringency and lack of confidence.

Keokuk, Iowa, June 14.—With but a few moments warning a three story brick business building on Ninth and Maine streets fell this evening. It was occupied by J. Burrows, grocer and provisions; Shepherd & Real, saloon; and Andrew Willey, flour dealer. The building fell with a crash, burying several men in the debris. The injured are: John Real, crushed about the hips; Harry Young, compound fracture of three ribs, and internal injuries; Ben Stebbinger, hurt about the head, and Sam Wolf, missing. Four children sitting on the back porch have not been seen since.

Omaha, June 14.—The runs on the Omaha Savings banks subsided this morning.

Brick Building Falls. Keokuk, Iowa, June 14.—With but a few moments warning a three story brick business building on Ninth and Maine streets fell this evening. It was occupied by J. Burrows, grocer and provisions; Shepherd & Real, saloon; and Andrew Willey, flour dealer. The building fell with a crash, burying several men in the debris. The injured are: John Real, crushed about the hips; Harry Young, compound fracture of three ribs, and internal injuries; Ben Stebbinger, hurt about the head, and Sam Wolf, missing. Four children sitting on the back porch have not been seen since.

To Rescue Dr. Walker. Brainerd, Minn., June 14.—Company D, Third United States Infantry, arrived here last night and early this morning started for Leech Lake, C. C. Vandoren, who lives near the reservation, says Dr. Walker resisted the attempt of an Indian to take whiskey, and when the Indian advanced upon the doctor, the latter drew a revolver and shot the Indian in the mouth. Dr. Walker, the wounded Indian and three Indian police are all in one building, which is surrounded by pickets.

A Present from the Sultan. Washington, June 14.—The Turkish minister, in behalf of the sultan of Turkey, has presented to the president a magnificent massive gold medal commemorative of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America. There is a suitable inscription in Turkish on the face, and the medal proper is encircled with an elaborately wrought laurel wreath studded with numerous diamonds. The medal will probably ornament the national museum or library of the department of state.

The Printers Convention. Chicago, June 14.—The convention of the International Typographical Union today was a negative assembly, in that it defeated the proposed innovations regarding apprentices and foremen; also any change in the basis of representation for the allied crafts, as was the plan for the institution of a loan system for the relief of traveling printers. The questions of an international fund and the paying of death benefits was referred.

Annual Election of Officers. Cincinnati, June 14.—The Imperial Council of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine chose Denver today as the place of the next meeting in July, 1894. The following officers were elected: Imperial potentate, Thomas G. Hudson of Pittsburg; deputy imperial potentate, Charles L. Field of San Francisco; imperial treasurer, Joseph S. Wright of Philadelphia; imperial recorder, Frank M. Lucas of Chicago.

Bismarck Favors Artillery. Berlin, June 14.—Prince Bismarck has in an interview, come out in favor of an increase in the defensive strength, but not on the lines laid down by the government in the army bill. The increase, he says, should be made to the artillery forces, which, he declared, would decide the battles of the future.

Father McGlynn Reconciled. London, July 14.—A correspondent in Rome telegraphs this evening that his holiness, has given a long audience to Dr. McGlynn, and was very cordial. Dr. McGlynn was enchanted with the reception and had a complete reconciliation with the pope. He left tonight after a five days' sojourn at Rome.

Chicago Merchants Seek Extensions—A New York Mercantile House Pays a Heavy Premium.

Associated Press.

Washington, June 14.—The district supreme court this morning dismissed Colonel Ainsworth's petition for a mandamus on two grounds, the first holding that the deputy coroner is not a legal officer, which invalidates the inquest so far held; and the second, that the right of a person to be present at an inquest in person or by counsel is discretionary with the coroner, and therefore not a subject for a mandamus.

The commissioners of the district decided this afternoon to order a new inquest, and directed Mr. Thomas, attorney for the district, to assist Coroner Patterson in conducting it, in view of the latter's ill health. It having been ascertained that the bodies of Messrs. Loftis and Fagan were still in the vault at Glenwood cemetery, one of the bodies will be viewed by the jury tomorrow, and the inquest begun anew with the same jury resumed. Just how far the acts of Deputy Coroner Shaffer, prior to this decision, will be invalidated is rather a curious question. It is believed nothing serious will result, however. A number of clerks who worked in the wrecked building have expressed a desire to be heard in Colonel Ainsworth's behalf.

Dressed in Gay Colors. North Yakima, June 14.—North Yakima is gaily decorated today in national colors in honor of the twelfth annual encampment of the G. A. R. The encampment is for Washington and Alaska, the ninth annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps and the fifth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans. This afternoon the time was consumed in business, and tonight the camp-fire attracted great crowds. Active canvassing is going on for the position of commander of the department, which will be decided tomorrow. The most prominent candidates are J. N. Scott, of Port Townsend; J. F. Sinclair, of Ballard; and I. J. Litchenberg, and J. W. Langley, of Seattle.

Indicted for Perjury. Boise, Idaho, June 14.—It has been reported that at the session of the United States district court at Moscow the grand jury indicted Robert Dryden, a former deputy marshal, and Ed Mims, who attained notoriety in Kootenai county last fall on a charge of ballot-box stuffing. The charge upon which Dryden was indicted is that he collected a bill in the name of and signed by Mims as guard at the time of the Coeur d'Alene trouble. Mims did not perform the service alleged. He has admitted he signed the bill, but claimed he did so without knowing what it was. The indictment is for perjury. Mims is supposed to be in Slocum, but Dryden's whereabouts are unknown.

Serious Omission. Washington, June 14.—In deference to the decision of the supreme court, deputy coroner Shaffer, who has been conducting the inquest on the Ford theatre victims, adjourned proceedings until tomorrow. A curious point has been now developed. No dead body has been viewed by a legally constituted coroner's jury. Unless one of the injured victims dies, it may be necessary to exhume a body.

Unfurling "Old Glory." New York, June 14.—One hundred and sixteen years ago today the stars and stripes were adopted as the flag of the country, and the American Patriotic League has set on foot a general movement looking to a universal display of "Old Glory" on this day. All the city buildings display the flag by order of the mayor. In New England the day is being celebrated in the public schools.

Sunk in a Collision. Queenstown, June 14.—The Cunard liner Servia arrived here today and reports that on June 7th, during a fog, she ran down the American ship A. McCallum, Capt. O'Brien, from London to New York. The McCallum filled and sank a short time after the accident. All but two of her crew were saved by the Servia.

Germany's Day. Chicago, June 14.—Tomorrow will be the German day at the White city. For weeks the Germans have been preparing for it until it promises to be the biggest day the exposition has seen, both in the point of crowds and ceremonies. The Indiana and Arkansas state buildings will also be dedicated. Ex-President Harrison and family visited the grounds today after the manner of other private citizens.

THINK TAXES HIGH ENOUGH.

London, June 14.—The recent agitation of the radicals against practically taxing the workmen for contributions for wedding presents for the Duke of York and the Princess May, is beginning to bear fruit. Citizens' meetings have been held at Oldham, Bristol and other places throughout England, and the people are thoroughly aroused.

THE MONTEREY COMING.

Washington, June 14.—Acting secretary of the navy McAdoo, upon the application of the chamber of commerce and citizens of Portland, Or., has ordered the coast defense ship Monterey to proceed from San Francisco to Portland to participate in the celebration on July 4th, of the opening of the Great Northern Railroad.

Portland, June 14.—The Masonic Grand Lodge of Oregon elected the following grand officers today for the ensuing year:

LIFE SAVING EXHIBIT.

Besides the exhibits of all the life-saving apparatus contained in the new station at the world's fair, there are several exhibits of older appliances which have interesting histories. Among them is the first life car ever used on the coast of the United States, and with it the mortar and ball which was the necessary adjunct to such work. With this apparatus, in 1850, a life-saving crew on Squan beach, New Jersey, saved 250 lives from the wrecked British ship Arreshire. The passengers were mostly Irish immigrants, some of whom settled in the immediate neighborhood, and it was from that point that McClellan, of the revenue marine service, who is in charge of the station, got the story which he tells about the relics. The shot, which weighs twenty-five pounds, struck the deck and bounded down one of the hatches, striking a woman between the shoulders, but doing her no injury beyond giving her a great scare. In the excitement attending the rescue the ball was detached from the line which it carried to the ship when fired out of the mortar. The hulk settled in the sand, and like all such incidents, the wreck was soon forgotten. In 1875, twenty-five years after, a heavy gale set up a current in another direction, and the sand was washed away, and once more the hull of the Arreshire came to view. A party of wreckers going through the ship's hold came across the old rusted cannon ball. Its presence excited no little comment among the wreckers, and when they went ashore they told their story of the strange find in the hold of the Arreshire. There were some of the people who came over in the ill-starred ship still living in the neighborhood and they soon explained the presence of the big twenty-four-pound cannon ball. It was sent to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, where, with the curious-looking old mortar and the life car, it has since remained. Only one life was lost in the rescue of the passengers and crew of the Arreshire. It was that of a man who became too impatient to wait for his turn to go inside the car and insisted on going ashore on the outside. A heavy wave turned the car over and he was washed off and drowned.
