STOOD THE TEST.

STOOD THE TEST.Women defraud themselves of good looks and vigor by compeling thems selves to staid movements after they come to years of maturity. If they were any where near healthy, they could not keep so demure, but nature would break out and tempt them into running up and down stairs, dancing about the house, and those quick movements which horrify conventional people, but are the secret of spirits and bright looks. They need to grow a healthier skin, treating it with an emollient nightly to lessen its irritability.—Exchange.Allcock's Porus Plasters are unap-proachable in curative properties, rapidity and safety of action, and are the only reliable plasters ever produced.
They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by the unscrupulous imitators who have sought to trade upon the reputation of Allcock's by mailing plasters with holes in them, and claiming them
