Report of Upper Astoria School for month ended June 16, 1893.

Table with columns for Months, Days Taught, Days Attendance, Days Absence, Per cent of Attendance, Times Tardy, Per cent of Punctuality, Boys Enrolled, Girls Enrolled, Total Enrolled, Average Belonging, Average Daily Attendance, Boys Admitted, Girls Admitted, Boys Readmitted, Girls Readmitted.

Total for the year: Average days taught, 183 2-3; days' attendance, 17,729; absence, 445 1-2; per cent of attendance, 97.4; tardy, 38; per cent of punctuality, 99.9; boys enrolled, 61; girls enrolled, 65; total, 126; belonging, 100; attendance, 98; cases of corporal punishment, 20; visitors, 63.

The year just finished has been quite prosperous with us. Our school has maintained a very high standard of attendance and punctuality throughout the year. The pupils have done well in department and the greater part of them have been quite studious.

My assistants, Miss Belknap and Miss White, have labored earnestly during the year, and well merit the praise which is given them. I voice the sentiments of the school, when I say: "We are very sorry to part with Miss Belknap as a teacher in our school."

ALONG THE WHARVES.

The steamer Truckee sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning.

The steamer R. P. Elmore sailed for Tillamook yesterday morning.

The ship Reaper sailed yesterday for New York.

Captain Taylor of the Reaper and Captain McIntosh of the Western Belle have made a bet of $1,000 that each vessel will make as good time as the other on the voyage from here to New York.

The ship Reaper sailed yesterday and will be followed by the Western Belle today.

The ship Reaper was built at Bath Me., and is owned by Sewell & Co. of that city.

The bark Western Belle, 1169 tons, is owned by W. H. Besse of New Bedford, Mass.

Captain Taylor has the reputation of making his ship invariably carry all the sail she will stagger under, and also of being one of the best shipmasters in Sewell's employ.

Captain McIntosh came overland to join the Western Belle, which arrived here in charge of Captain Sweeney.

He was formerly master of the Henry Felling, which was his first command.

There is a difference of opinion, of course, as to the respective merits of the vessels, and many bets have been made in shipping circles as to which will make the better time.

Captain Taylor made one bet, just as he left the dock, that the days of the trip would be included in two figures, while other wagerers have been made that he will not
