Mat Aula, fishing for the Elmore cannery, lost his boat puller, Isaac Holm, yesterday. The accident was caused mainly if not entirely through the carelessness of the victim. The men were sailing in the vicinity of No. 3 buoy, Aula at the helm. Being about to tack, Aula so notified Holm, telling him to look out for the boom. The admonition was unheeded, and when the boat was run up in the wind the boom hit the unfortunate man on the head, knocking him overboard. He sank immediately, and all efforts of Aula and the occupants of several other boats field. to find him were futile.

The Picnic

a Great Success.

Despite the threatened showery weather in the early part of the day, the attendance at the Pioneer and Historical Society picnic yesterday was very large, and the enjoyment of the audience was complete. The program Raser's Root Beer Superior to all as announced was not carried out to others. the letter, but there was no lack of amusement. The main feature of the day's amusement was the football with President Pinlayson among the game between the Benedicts and Bachelors, and in consequence the main part of the spectators did not leave for the grounds until 2 o'clock. As soon as the train rounded the point the sun's genial influence was felt, and all looked forward with the pleasantest anticipations for the afternoon's amusement. About 2:30 the bachelors appeared on
