A handsome gold-headed cane will be presented by the club to the member who sells most tickets for the occa-

the efforts of Dunbar and Selig to throw cold water on the idea of holding the field day, and asked if any notice should be taken of them. Mr. O'Hara said that the Astoria Football Club had waited until a few days before the Fourth of July before taking any steps in the direction of giving a field day, and he for one did not ap prove of the attempts to create unpleasantness. The club, the speaker sald, was to hold the games, and if any others wished to celebrate in any different manner, they were at liberty to do so. "Let us," the speaker concluded, "pursue the even tenor of our way, and ignore all disturbers."

An offer was extended to A. Davidson, a professional tight-rope walker the spectators. It was decided to admit all children Arrangements have been made with Judge Cleveland to secure the loan of the handsome eagle which now adorns his office, the intention being to have the national bird adorn the front of the grand stand.
