J. B. Wilson, 31 Clay Street, Sharpburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds; that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of the grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cookport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Chas. Rogers' drugstore, successors to J. C. Dement. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

THE QUEEN'S PETS.

The Queen's most constant companions are "Spot," a fox-terrier, "Tory," a black and tan collie, and a lovely little brown spaniel, called "Marco." Her favorite dogs are collies, and she possesses a magnificent specimen in "Darnley," exhibited at the Agricultural Hall Show. "Jessie," the Queen's favorite old riding mare, was found by the rider's contributors placidly standing in a solitary loose box, warmly wrapped in rugs, her own natural coat being like a very thick, soft, black plush. With her splendid coat, silky main and tail, lofty crest, and soft, mild eyes, she looked worthy of her royal mistress. "Jessie's" pedigree is not given but she was bred near Balmoral. She is about 15 hands, three inches in height, black as a coal, and with peculiar white markings on forehead and back. She is now 26 or 27 years old, and until within the last twelve months, has carried her Majesty for many years. The queen is stated to be very fond of "Jessie," who, although now from old age is past work, is invariably sent to the castle for inspection when her Majesty is at Windsor.—The Idler.

Western Churchman—That's the trouble; he is all sound.

Some Georgia Noddies.—All the good men are not in the cemetery—but they're living mighty convenient to it. Some cast bread upon the waters only to hook the fish that nibble at it. "All the world's a stage" and some men are trying to see who can play the devil best.

God once made a world for one man; but instead of being grateful, the man went to growling because he couldn't go visiting.

There's a peck of happiness to every pint of misery in this world, but some folks are in the retail business and find the pint measure handier.

The lady and the tiger.—Bishop Guillem—Yes, it is a good work, and I trust you believe in maintaining foreign missions.

"Indeed I do." Why papa sees Mr. Cleveland every day about one!"—Life.

A French paper, in discussing the word "restaurant," now a part of the language of every country, gives the following history of its origin: "A landlord, bearing the appropriate name of Boulanger, whose house was in the Rue des Precheurs, Paris, in order to draw patrons, decided in 1874 to keep bouillon, boiled eggs, roasted chickens and other edibles ready at all hours of the day, rather than at only three certain periods. He announced this plan on a great shield above the door, bearing the following inscription: 'Venite ad me omnes, qui stomacho laboratis, et ego tres tabulari vos.' The announcement excited talk; the passers-by laughed and entered the house to 're-astore' themselves. The inn became famous, and other Parisian landlords began to imitate the inventive Boulanger, by calling their inns 'restaurants' and themselves 'restaurateurs.'

"It is a shame Mrs. Gaskip is growing old so rapidly."

"Do you think she is?"

"Of course I do. I saw three men rise to give her a seat in a cable car."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

There is a man in Griffin, Ga., who is hoarding a million dollars of Confederate money, in the hope that it will become valuable some day.

"Have you an opening on your staff, sir?" asked a man as he entered an editor's office.

"What department would you like to work in?"

"I think I could make a good success of the 'Answers to Correspondents.'"

"Have you ever conducted such a department?"

"No, sir."

"Then on what do you base your belief that you could do that sort of work?"

"I have spent several months in answering the questions of a four-year-old boy."

"I think you'll do."

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as the itching of hemorrhoids, yield at once to Dr. Boananko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, always itching, and cures hemorrhoids free. Dr. Boananko, 232 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by J. W. Conroy.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conroy's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria.

Look over these symptoms: headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat—sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, itching, cataracts, dizziness, offensive breath; small and taste impaired, and general debility. You won't have all of them at once; probably only a few of them; but they mean Catarrh.

And the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy mean to cure it, if you'll let them, no matter how bad or how long standing. If they can't, they'll pay you $50 in cash. They mean that, just as it's printed.

They offer you the money—of a certain cure, if you'll take their medicine. But if they weren't certain of the cure, they'd never offer you the money.
