It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 271 Clay street, Sharpshooter, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds; that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of influenza...

Other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Chase Rogers' drug store, successor to J. C. Demant. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

ALONG THE WHARVES.

The Columbine moved up to the buoy depot yesterday and was busy during the day taking on supplies. The Manzanita left at an early hour to work outside.

The steam schooner Mail of Oregon arrived from Coos bay yesterday.

The Manzanita has moved the lightship to its new position.

The bark Coloma is discharging at Portland.

The ship Solitaire will leave Portland today for this port.

The bark Geo. S. Homer is discharging at Greenwich dock in Portland.

The steamer H. R. Thompson was expected in Portland yesterday.

The British bark Invermark, which sailed from Tacoma last Christmas day with a cargo of 26,085 barrels of flour, valued at $91,297, and for whose safety much uneasiness was felt, arrived at Cork June 30th.

The British bark Kitty, which leaves down the river in the morning, carries 616,000 feet of fine large timbers, none of them under forty feet in length. Nearly all of them are huge sticks 18x18 inches and some of them as long as ninety feet.

The Ocean Wave came down yesterday with 160 passengers and a large amount of freight for Ilwaco and North Beach.

The W. H. Harrison came in yesterday afternoon and proceeded directly up the river.

The dredger W. S. Ladd was busy all day yesterday in the channel above Tongue Point.

It is only a comparatively short time since four-masted square-rigged sailing vessels commenced to traverse the ocean and so far no explicit term has been devised or adopted to designate a four-masted sailing ship or bark from a three-masted. At the Merchants Exchange and in the Commercial News and other prominent shipping papers of the world a four-masted square-rigged sailing vessel, whether she has square or fore and aft sails on the after or jigger mast, is called a ship for want of a more definite term.

There is nothing to show if she has three or four masts or how she is rigged. A Commercial News reporter has interviewed a large number of shipmasters now in port and men connected with shipping, and the consensus of opinion is that, while a four-masted sailing vessel having yards on all the masts is entitled to the name "four-masted ship," the proper designation for a four-masted, square-rigged on the fore and jigger mast, is a "four-masted bark."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. E. Pitts of St. Louis is a guest at the Occident.

Col. John Adair came over from Sunnyside yesterday.

Miss Annie Mudge, of Seneide, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Day of Portland, arrived in town yesterday.

Mr. H. S. McGowan, of Chinook, came across to this city yesterday.

Captain Cleveland Rockwell, United States Engineer, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Soule of South Bend, arrived from the east yesterday.

E. M. Grimes came up from Seneide yesterday and proceeded to Portland on the Telephone.

Rev. L. Nissen left up on the Telephone last night to preach in the Norwegian church of East Portland.

Iring Kern and Frank Brallier came up from Silver Cliffs today. They will remain in the city several days.

Mrs. Flavel and her daughters will arrive in this city on the Telephone this afternoon. They will be met at Kalama by Mr. V. Boelling.

Sealed bids will be received at the office of Clatsop Land Co., for building a barn on Lewis & Clarke River. Bids to be opened July 4th, at 10 a. m. Right to reject any or all bids, reserved.

Look over these symptoms: headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat—sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; small and taste impaired, and general debility. You won't have all of them at once; probably only a few of them; but they mean Catarrh. And the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy mean to cure it, if you'll let them, no matter how bad or how long standing. If they can't, they'll pay you $500 in cash. They mean that, too, just as it's printed. They offer you the money—or a certain cure, if you'll take their medicine. But if they weren't certain of the cure, they'd never offer you the money.
