The death of Captain George Flavel removes from our midst Astoria's most prominent citizen. For more than half a century he has resided in this city, and has always identified himself with every movement having for its object the advancement of the city's interests. By honest endeavor and years of patient industry he long ago laid the foundation of the fortune he enjoyed in his declining years. It was not his privilege in early life to receive the benefit of either a classical or thorough commercial education. To this, doubtless may be attributed his disinclination to engage in speculations of the issue of which he was uncertain, or to invest largely in propositions which his own judgment did not fully endorse. In his rough and rugged road from sailor boy to ship captain and owner, he had suffered many hard experiences which we can readily believe enabled him to estimate at their full value the smiles of fortune, and naturally deterred him in advancing years from any and every speculation which could impair his, after all, but comparatively moderate fortune. In all his business transactions with his fellow citizens Captain Flavel was the soul of honor. He was faithful and constant to his friends. Prosperity never lifted him up in the least or diminished the general affability, courtesy and civility that he had always to all persons. A good citizen, a true friend, a tender husband and an affectionate father was laid to rest yesterday in Hillside cemetery in the person of Captain George Flavel.

THE FOURTH AT BLIND SLOUGH. Blind Slough, July 5, 1893. The Fourth of July was very appropriately observed in this neighborhood. The day was fair, after the passing shower in the morning, and a large number of people were in attendance.

About half past 10 o'clock the people gathered at the schoolhouse laden with bountifully filled lunch baskets, and headed by the school-children, marched to the picnic ground, where appropriate exercises were held. The exercises were well rendered and appreciated by those present. Then all partook of the tempting morsels prepared by the ladies.

At 2 o'clock the crowd again gathered at the schoolhouse where footraces, egg-races, three-legged-races, boat-races, judging of the prettiest girl, the best looking man, etc., took place. The judges were: Mr. Nelse Borglund, Mr. Nelse Haglund and Mr. A. Hillstrom. They decided that Cecelia Takola was the fairest maiden upon the ground and Mr. Jonas Pearson the best looking man. All the while the "small boy" kept up a bang and a "blaz" with fire crackers. In the evening all returned home tired but well pleased with the exercises of the day.

THE OPEN SWITCH. AN ESTABLISHED SAFEGUARD. Anybody who travels by cars knows what is meant by "an open switch." It is the terror of railroad men, and the dread of the traveler. Its victims—killed, horribly mangled or maimed for life—are numbered by the score each year.

Yet even the dreaded "open switch" is not so widely fatal as is a certain disease, which, without ceasing its activity for an instant, is filling hundreds of graves. What is that terrible ailment? you ask. It is Heart Disease! "But," you reply, confidently, "I haven't any heart disease—my heart is all right." Are you sure?

Dr. Franklin Miles, of Elkhart, Ind., the distinguished specialist in diseases of the heart and nervous system, states that disorders of the heart are as common as those of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels or kidneys, though often unsuspected. The reason people are not aware of this important fact is because symptoms of heart disease are not usually recognized as proceeding from this organ, but are attributed to some other source. If you have shortness of breath, fluttering or palpitation, pain or tenderness in left breast, shoulder or side, oppressed or choking sensation, fainting or smothering spells, your heart is affected. You had been troubled with heart disease for years. My left pulse was very weak, could at times scarcely feel it, excitement would weaken my nerves and heart, and fear of impending death stared me in the face for hours. Dr. Miles' Nervine and New Heart Cure are the only medicines that have proved of any benefit and cured me.—L. M. DYER, Cloverdale, Md. "My wife has been taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart. She thinks it wonderful. She has not been troubled with pain or smothering spells since using it. We have also used Dr. Miles' Pills, and we find them all they are claimed to be."—GEO. L. FINK, Philadelphia, Pa. These and hundreds of similar testimonials are convincing proofs of the wonderful powers of Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart. It is effective, agreeable, and above all, SAFE. Sold by druggists on a positive guarantee, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE MOUND-BUILDERS, THEIR WORKS AND RELICS. Author of Animal Effigies and Emblematic Mounds, etc. This book treats of the Mound-builders; their occupation, modes of life, religious systems, tribal divisions and early migrations. The work contains descriptions of the earthworks of all classes. The classification of the mounds is made according to their uses, whether as village residences, as defenses, as religious structures, or as sacrificial or burial places. The work contains many illustrations and descriptions of Mound-builders' relics, especially pipes and pottery. The value of the book is that it contains a comprehensive view of the whole field, and gives information about the mounds and relics of all states and districts. It is one of a series which is devoted to pre-historic America, and perhaps would be regarded as the most interesting volume. The author solicits subscriptions. Orders can be sent to the publishing house, 175 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, or to the author at Avon, Ill.
