John Lindstrom's Terrible Mishap.

A frightful accident occurred yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on board the United States tug Mendel, that cost Marlin, U. S. A.; Win, P. Carlice, U. S. John Lindstrom, one of the crew, his right hand. The tug had been tendered General Carlin, by Major Handbury, with which to make his official visit to J. R. Rathom and wife, Oregonian; J. Fort Canby, and it was while lying at dent occurred. On board the Mende as General Carlin's guests, were Colonel Anderson, wife and daughters Lieutenant Martin of Vancouver, Lieutenant Carlin of the Monterey, and Mr. and Mrs. Lounsberry Mayor Cros by and Dr. M. M. Walker of this city. They had just returned on board from a visit to the jetty and were pre paring to let go, when Lindstrom, who had been carelessly fooling with the stern line, in some manner got his right hand caught in a bight of rope and the member was snapped just above the wrist and flung into the water. None of the ladies on board saw the accident happn, and it was well that they did not, for when Dr. Walker who was immediately summoned, came out, he beheld a sickening sight. Linduninjured hand. Dr. Walker at once moment had stopped the hemorrhage and bound up the wound. Lindstrom dered him taken to the hospital.

Upon examination by Post-Surgeon Dr. Raymond and Dr. Walker, it was found that the stump was so badly lacerated that amputation of about two inches was necessary in order that the arteries might be secured. This was shortly done and the wounded man made as comfortable as possible General Carlin gave orders that the man should be cared for at the post hospital as long as treatment was nec essary. At the time the party left Canby, Lindstrom was resting easy, but It is too soon to say what the result of the accident will be.

Lindstrom is a man 45 years of age an experienced sailor, and has been or the Mendel but two weeks. The accident, it is said, was the result of his own carelessness.
