Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

ONE ON HIM. Some drummers were diverting themselves in a smoking car by repeating episodes of so called "cheek." All but one had related an instance. When he was called upon, he drowsily said: "I don't remember anything worth telling. In fact my wife has completely dazed my memory of matters of that kind by a fine sample of her own stock. You see, when I got back from my last trip, I went home at something after 9 o'clock in the evening. Well, there was my house lighted up from top story to basement, carriages were leaving the door, and affairs seemed to be going on inside on a grand scale. I let myself into the basement with a flashlight and walked into the dining room. Strains of music came from the back part of the hall, and the mingled laughter and conversation indicated a host of guests.

"Presently my wife came into the dining room dressed like a princess. She ran up to me saying: "Oh, Jack! I'm so glad you've come home early."

WHY HE DIDN'T. A Cass avenue man, with a wife who has her own ways about doing things, catches her now and then. "My dear," he said the other morning as he was dressing, "I think you were right when you told me last night there were burglars in the house."

A JUDGE ON THE "TREADMILL." A good story is told of a judge practicing a penal institution. Being practically disposed, the learned judge philanthropically trusted himself on the "treadmill," desiring the warden to start it in motion. The machine was accordingly adjusted, and his lordship commenced to lift his feet. In a few minutes, however, the new hand had had quite enough of it and called to be released, but this was not so easy.
