Judge McGuire, of Senside, and Thomas Lewiston, of Portland, had their trotters out at the beach Sunday afternoon. A dash of one mile on the fine race track at that place was won on the first heat by "Black Dan," belonging to the judge. The time was six minutes, and Lewiston's horse came in over forty feet behind. On the secand heat "Christmas," belonging to Lewiston, made the mile in five minutes and six seconds, Black Dan coming in fifteen minutes late. The race was declared a draw, and the stake money turned over to the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. C. A. McGuire was Black Dan's jockey, and Thomas Lewiston jocky for Christ-

IN MEMORY OF CAPTAIN GEORGE FLAVEL

into the condition of the grand stand Lodge, No. 7, A. F. and A. M., held on Tuesday evening, July 18th, the following resolutions were adopted: IN MEMORIAM-

"Life's labor done,
Serenely to his final rest he passed,
While the soft memories of his virtues
Yet linger, like sunlight hues,
When that bright orb is set!"

Whereas, By the irresistible decree of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe the spirit of our departed brother. George Flavel, has been called away to "That undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns;" and

Whereas, We, his surviving brethren of Temple Lodge, No. 7, Free and Accepted Masons, recognizing the fraternal debt we owe to one who has for well-nigh two score years been an honored and faithful member of our Ancient Order, desire to place on record in the archives of Temple Lodge our pression of our grateful appreciation of his generous and liberal legacy to this lodge; therefore be it

Resolved, That by mise of Brother George Flavel, Temple Lodge suffers the loss of one of her earliest sons, who by his actions and everyday life, ever manifested his loyalty to the lofty principles of Free Masonry, and his unfailing interest in the welfare of this, his mother lodge:

Resolved, That by his death this community is bereft of one of its most influential and highly respected citigens. Loving and true to his friends, he was just, honest and charitable toward all: Resolved, That in this, the day of their affliction, we extend to the bereaved family of our lamented brother our tenderest sympathy in the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father and wise counsellor. In this trial of their faith and submissive resignation to the Divine will, we would cheer them with the radiant hope that the spirit of their beloved has been translated from this imperfect to that all perfect, glorious, and celestial lodge above, where the Supreme Grand Arch
