At the North Shore cannery yesterday morning "Russlan" Fred and another fisherman became involved in a quarrel, with the result that the former was badly beaten. He was knocked down and kicked, when he came to the conclusion that discretion was the better part of valor, and ran in the direction of his boat. His assailant followed him, and grabbing an oar, smashed it over Fred's head, inflicting a frightful wound. Next he grasped an ax and with it labored his victim into insensibility. The principal cause of the trouble was whisky. The wounded man will recover.

The largest shipment of butter that ever came from Tillamook was brought to this city on the Elmore on the occasion of her last trip. The consignment amounted to four and a half tons, and accompanying it was half a ton of cheese. The industrious farmers of Tillamook county are developing their portion of the state rapidly, and are building up a large trade with this city and Portland. Beef is also coming to this city in considerable quantities, and the Elmore is falling in for a handsome proportion of the business, the owners having made special tariff rates for the benefit of Tillamook people.

The water commissioners have as yet received no opinion from City Attorney Hamilton as to what rights the city has to condemn the right of way for the new pipe line to Bear Creek. It was understood Mr. Hamilton was to have been heard from at the last meeting of the council, but so far nothing has been done, and so long as the property owners demand fabulous sums for the right of way, just so long will the money be tied up. Reasonable sums will be paid for the desired concessions, and if these can be obtained there will be over $20,000 spent in clearing and road building before the expiration of the present year.

Today's Great Football Match.

Secretary Gunn of the Astoria Football Club yesterday received a letter from Secretary Cameron of the Portland club, stating that the colors to be worn by the metropolitan team in the great football match today would be black and dark blue. The men will be down this morning on the Potter, and the game will begin promptly at 2:45. The Portland men are the favorites, having had much practice together, but the Astorians are all in splendid condition, and will give as good an account of themselves as possible. They are, of course, heavily handicapped by never having played together, but they will, if necessary, accept defeat gracefully. The visitor's team will be as follows:

Goalkeeper, B. Orr; backs—J. Smith and R. Wilson; half-backs—J. Bingham, C. L. Watson, A. Bingham; forwards—J. G. Cameron, J. Tostack, D. Wilcox, W. Bingham, J. Crang; substitutes—R. Gillan, Black and W. Sutherland; umpire—J. Harper.

The local team will be as follows: Forwards—Higgins, Ridehalgh, Gibson, Astbury and Bell. Half-backs—Rathorn, Spittle, Tallant, Backs—Smith, and Bartholomew. Goal keeper—Addis. All of the players will go to the grounds at 2 o'clock, so as to be ready promptly at 2:45 to begin the game.
