MOVED TO NEW QUARTERS

The Astoria Savings Bank in its Own Office.

MEN AND MONEY MANAGEMENT

A Solid Institution, and the Solid Men Who are Interested In It A Few Facts.

All things having been made ready, the Astoria Savings Bank moved yesterday, into its own new quarters, 168 Cass street.

The announcement is merely the publication of what everybody knows about the solidity and success of the bank, backed by men of fortune, controlled by business men, and managed by Mr. Frank Patton, as clever a financier, and conservative a cashier as there is in the land. Directed as it has been, solely in the interests and for the advantage of its numerous depositors, it was a foregone conclusion of its establishment that it would soon outgrow its primal location.

The Astoria Savings Bank, began business March 1st, 1891, with a clear capital of $100,000, and was quartered with Chase's Bank, itself doing a business which required ample desk and office room. The anticipation of its founders found consummation in less than thirty months so the more ample rooms were fitted up. As the bank is one of the solid institutions of the state, it was but just and right that the new office should be handsome and bright, with painted frescoes and fittings of antique oak, carved and polished; crystal glass, beveled and beautifully mounted and Japanese panel work of tasteful and artistic design. Such has been provided and a visit to the rooms will hereafter be included in a liberal education in Astoria.

There are new steel vaults and safes, massive and strong, proof against burglars and fire; with facilities for the storage of money, valuables and documents ample for the use of the offices and customers. Conveniently located and so admirably arranged for the transaction of business, the bank will inevitably go on from prospering to prosper.

The local stockholders are W. E. Dement and J. C. Dement, capitalists; D. K. Warren, G. Holmes, Ben Young, C. H. Page, Hiram Brown, J. Q. A. Bowley, Hon. Frank J. Taylor, I. W. Case, Frank Patton and Mr. A. S. Reed, of the firm of Griffin and Reed; all men of stability and standing in the community.

Portland is represented by such wealthy men as Hon. D. P. Thompson, ex-minister to Turkey, and the present president of the Commercial National Bank, and also of the Portland Savings Bank; and Messrs. J. B. David and Perry Hinkle, capitalists. The estimated wealth of these gentlemen is above $5,000,000. With such unimpeachable backing and experience, honesty, and ability in the management it is no wonder that the Astoria Savings Bank is considered as one of the soundest on the Pacific coast.

ALONG THE WHARVES.

The wrecking scow San Pedro, Captain McGlynn, arrived on the 18th inst at Santa Barbara from the scene of the wreck of the British ship Goldenhorn on Santa Rosa Island. The San Pedro brought about sixty tons of iron plates, etc., obtained from the wreck. She is working for the California Iron Works. It will probably be several weeks before the San Pedro completes her job. The Goldenhorn went ashore on the island about a quarter of a mile from shore nearly a year ago. The crew of the San Pedro report that she was completely under water. It was so rough that for four days they could do nothing. The wreckage will be broken up here and shipped to San Francisco.

The British ship St. Miron and the British bark Invercol and Columbian are on the list of shipping en route to this port from San Diego.

The sealing schooner Rosie Olson notified in yesterday's Astorian as having been confiscated and sold by the Russian government at Petropaulovsk, formerly belonged here, having been the property of William Olsen, October 24th, 1893, she changed owners and district and her register was transferred to Port Townsend.

The Besse Rutter, which left here a year ago last February and has not been heard from since may have shared the Rosie Olson's fate, and her crew may now be in some Russian prison or convict settlement in Siberia.

The British ship Larnaca, hence for Quetanow with grain, was spoken in latitude 8 north, longitude 29 west, on June 4th.

On Monday all the buoys at the Port Stevens and Union Pacific docks will be transferred to the Tongue Point dock.

THE APPROACHING DINNER HOUR.

Is fraught with no pleasant anticipations for the unhappy mortal plagued with dyspepsia. Appetite seldom, discomfort after and between meals, always is his portion. Heartburn and flatulence subsequent to eating, a gnawing at the pit of the stomach before it, are only a few among the ills arising from this truly impish complaint. Sick headache, nervousness, constipation and biliousness are its diabolical offspring. Each and all them are annihilated by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which tones the fragile organs and regulates the liver and the bowels with certainty and promptitude. Chills and fever, kidney trouble, rheumatism and neuralgia are also remedied by this medicine of rare purity and comprehensive uses. Invalids, of all kinds, are greatly and swiftly benefited by it.
